WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO. ET AL

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING, ORDER RECONVENING HEARING, AND ORDER FOR CONSOLIDATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 27th day of November A. D. 1945.

In the matter of West Texas Utilities Company, Central Power and Light Company, Central and South West Utilities Company, File No. 70-1187; The Middle West Corporation and its subsidiary companies, File No. 59-5.

Notice is hereby given that applications and declarations have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 10 and 12 thereof, by Central and South West Utilities Company ("Central and South West"), a registered holding company, Central Power and Light Company ("Central Power"), a public utility company and a direct subsidiary of Central and South West, and by West Texas Utilities Company ("West Texas"), a public utility company and an indirect subsidiary of Central and South West.

All interested persons are referred to the aforesaid applications and declarations which are on file in the office of this Commission for a complete statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Central Power proposes to sell its electric and ice properties in the Big Bend area of Texas located in Reeves, Jeff Davis, Presidio and Brewster counties, Texas, to West Texas for a base consideration of $815,000 in cash plus an amount equal to the net cost of additions to the properties made between September 30, 1945 and the closing date, and minor adjustments. Central Power proposes to use the proceeds from such sale for its corporate purposes in conformance with the terms of the indenture securing its first mortgage 3⅛% bonds.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said applications and declarations should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission; and

The Commission having heretofore on January 24, 1944 issued its findings, opinion and order (Holding Company Act Release No. 4846, File No. 59–5) requiring Central and South West to divest itself of the properties of Central Power in the Big Bend area of Texas, said order having reference to the identical properties now proposed to be sold by Central Power to West Texas; and

West Texas having indicated its intention of interconnecting the said electric properties with its present electric properties with the object thereby of forming an interconnected and integrated electric utility system, and West Texas further declaring that the ice properties which it proposes to acquire form an integral part of certain of the electric utility assets and that said ice properties cannot be physically separated without the loss of a large part, if not all, of the value thereof; and

It appearing that a hearing should be held to determine whether the said order of the Commission dated January 24, 1944, requiring Central and South West to dispose of the Big Bend properties of Central Power should be modified in view of the proposals described above; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the foregoing matters under File Nos. 70–1187 and 59–5 as they pertain to Central and South West, Central Power and West Texas are related and involve common questions of law and fact; that evidence offered in respect of each of said matters may have a bearing on the other; that the substantial savings in time, effort and expense will result if the hearings on said matters are consolidated so that they may be heard as one matter and so that evidence heretofore or hereafter adduced with respect to each of said matters may stand as evidence in both of said matters for all purposes;

It is ordered, That the hearing "In the Matter of the Middle West Corporation and Its Subsidiary Companies, File No. 59–5" with respect to the issues and matters herein recited be reconvened and consolidated with the hearing on the above described applications and declarations. The Commission reserves the right, if at any time it may appear conducive to an orderly and economic disposition of said matters, to order a separate hearing concerning such matter, to close the record with respect to any of the matters, or to take action on any of the matters prior to the closing of the record on any other matter.

It is further ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said act and rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder be held on December 12, 1945, at 10:00 a. m., E. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause will be shown why such applications and declarations should be granted and permitted to become effective respectively. Notice is hereby given to said above-named applicants and declarants and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said applicants and declarants by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by the Rules of Practice, Rule XVII, on or before December 10, 1945.

It is further ordered, That Henry C. Lank or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing at such time. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all power granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to the trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said applications and declarations otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at such hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the order of the Commission dated January 24, 1944, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) directing that Central and South West Utilities Company dispose of the electric and ice properties of Central Power and Light Company in the Big Bend area of Texas should be modified to permit the proposed transactions.

2. Whether the proposed acquisition of electric utility assets by West Texas Utilities Company will serve the public interest by tending toward the economical and efficient development of an integrated public utility system, and, generally, whether it is in compliance with the standards of section 10 of the act.

3. Whether the standards of sections 10 and 11 (b) (1) of the act will permit the acquisition and retention by West Texas Utilities Company of the ice properties and business which it proposes to acquire from Central Power and Light Company.

4. Whether the consideration to be received by Central Power and Light Company and to be paid by West Texas Utilities Company is fair and reasonable.

5. Whether competitive conditions have been maintained in connection with the proposed sale.

6. Whether the accounting entries to be recorded in connection with the proposed transactions are proper and conform to sound principles of accounting and meet the standards of the act.

7. Whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors or consumers to impose any terms and conditions, and, if so, what terms and conditions should be imposed.

8. Generally, whether the proposed transactions meet the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

By the Commission.

PENNSYLVANIA POWER & LIGHT CO. ET AL.

ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 27th day of November A. D. 1945.

In the matter of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company and Electric Bond and Share Company, File No. 59–29; in the matter of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company and Electric Bond and Share Company, File No. 54–128; in the matter of Electric Bond and Share Company, National Power & Light Company, et al., File No. 59–12; in the matter of Electric Bond and Share Company, National Power & Light Company, Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, Lehigh Valley Transit Company, The Edison Illuminating Company of Easton, et al., File No. 54–51; Applications 8, 9, and 10.

The Commission having, on October 26, 1945, entered its findings and opinion and order approving a plan of recapitalization, filed under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for Pennsylvania Power & Light Company ("Pennsylvania"), a subsidiary of National Power & Light Company ("National"), which in turn is a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, which plan, among other matters, provided for the issuance of 1,818,700 shares of new common stock by Pennsylvania through an offer of rights to subscribe to such shares to National which will in turn offer such rights to its own stockholders on a pro-rata basis at $10 a share; and the Commission having, in said order, reserved jurisdiction, among other matters, with respect to provisions to be contained in the offer of rights by National to protect the interests of members of the armed services who, because of being overseas, are not in a position to either exercise or sell their rights; and

National having submitted to the Commission on November 26, 1945 the terms to be contained in the offer of rights by it to protect the interests of overseas members of the armed services, which terms provide that any stockholder of record of National on December 4, 1945 and then a member of the armed services, who establishes (in an application addressed to National at any time within 90 days after discharge from, or release from active duty in, the armed services but in any event not later than December 22, 1947) that he was overseas during the subscription period shall be entitled to receive from National an amount equivalent to the value of the Subscription Warrants which were issued to such shareholder, such value to be computed on the basis of the difference between the closing price of Common Stock of Pennsylvania on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of the expiration of the subscription period and the subscription price provided for in the Subscription Warrants; and

National having requested that, in view of the above-described provisions, the Commission issue its order releasing the jurisdiction reserved in its order dated October 26, 1945 with respect to the foregoing matter; and

It appearing to the Commission that the foregoing provision affords reasonable protection to members of the armed services who, by reason of being overseas, are not in a position to either exercise or sell their rights, and that it is appropriate to release jurisdiction previously reserved as to this matter;

It is therefore ordered, That jurisdiction reserved in the Commission's order of October 26, 1945 with respect to the provisions to be contained in the offer of rights by National to protect the interests of overseas members of the armed services be, and hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHWEST UTILITIES CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 27th day of November, A. D. 1945.

In the matter of Central and Southwest Utilities Company, Central Power and Light Company (Massachusetts), Central Power and Light Company (Texas); File No. 70–1191.

Notice is hereby given that applications and declarations (or both) have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Central and South West Utilities Company (South West), a registered holding company, its subsidiary, Central Power and Light Company, a Massachusetts corporation (Central (Mass.)), and Central Power and Light Company (Central (Texas)), a Texas corporation recently organized, to acquire the properties and business of Central (Mass.).

All interested persons are referred to the aforesaid applications and declarations (or both) on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

The filing contemplates that Central (Mass.) will transfer all its assets (with the exception of its investment in a small Mexican utility company) to Central (Texas), refund all its outstanding serial notes by the issuance of new unsecured serial notes, retire, by means of an exchange offer or redemption, all its outstanding 7% and 6% preferred stock, distribute its remaining assets to South West and dissolve. To effectuate these purposes, the following steps are proposed:

1. Central (Mass.) proposes to issue and sell to banks $3,500,000 principal amount of its 2% unsecured notes, due serially April 1, 1946, to April 1, 1952, in semi-annual maturities varying from $200,000 to $400,00 each.

2. Central (Mass.) proposes to sell and Central (Texas) proposes to acquire all of the electric utility properties, water and ice properties, and all other assets of every kind and character owned by Central (Mass.) except 1,450 shares of the capital stock of Compania Electrica De Matamoras, S. A., a Mexican corporation, and except such cash as will be required for the payment to the preferred stockholders of Central (Mass.) who accept the exchange offer referred to below and for the redemption of such shares of preferred stock of Central (Mass.) as may not be exchanged.

3. Central (Texas) in consideration for the assets to be acquired by it from Central (Mass.) proposes (a) to issue and deliver to Central (Mass.) 100,000 shares of $100 par value cumulative preferred stock and 202,170 shares of its no par value common stock (Central (Mass.) will also acquire the 10 shares of common stock originally issued by Central (Texas) to its incorporators), (b) to assume liability for the $25,000,000 principal amount of 3⅛% first mortgage bonds of Central (Mass.) due November 1, 1973, and for all other indebtedness and liabilities of Central (Mass.), and (c) to execute and deliver to its own unsecured serial notes in substitution for the outstanding notes of Central (Mass.).

4. Central (Mass.) proposes to offer for sale at competitive bidding, pursuant to the requirements of Rule U-50, subject to the exchange rights to be offered to the holders of its outstanding preferred stock, the 100,000 shares of $100 par value preferred stock of Central (Texas). The dividend rates and the initial public offering price are to be determined by competitive bidding. In addition, the aggregate amount of compensation to be paid for affecting exchanges pursuant to the exchange offer and to purchase the unexchanged preferred stock are also to be determined by competitive bidding.

The offering of the preferred stock of Central (Texas) is to be subject to an exchange offer whereby the holders of the outstanding 7% and 6% preferred stock of Central (Mass.) may exchange their shares for shares of the preferred stock of Central (Texas) during a period of approximately 10 days, on a share for share basis, with a cash adjustment for the difference between the initial public offering price of the preferred stock of Central (Texas) (which is not to exceed $102.75) including accrued dividends to the date of the redemption of the unexchanged shares of the preferred stock of Central (Mass.) and the redemption price of the shares of the preferred stock of Central (Mass.) to be surrendered in exchange, including accrued dividends to the date of redemption of the unexchanged shares of the preferred stock of Central (Mass.). If more than 100,000 shares of Central (Mass.) preferred stock are deposited for exchange during the period in which the exchange offer is in effect, the number of shares to be exchanged is to be reduced pro rata as nearly as may be without the issue of fractional shares to a maximum of 100,000 shares.

5. Central (Mass.) proposes to use the proceeds from the sale of its serial notes and of the preferred stock of Central (Texas) for the refinancing and retirement of its outstanding securities as follows:

Security	Principal amount or shares	Redemption price
Unsecured serial notes, 2¼-3%, due to Apr. 1, 1950	$2,650,000
7% cumulative preferred stock	92,417	$120
6% cumulative preferred stock	30,981	110

6. Central (Mass.) proposes to distribute in final liquidation to South West 202,180 shares of the common stock of Central (Texas) and 1,450 shares of capital stock of Compania Electrica De Matamoras, S. A. and thereafter to dissolve.

The filing has designated sections 6 (a), 7, 9, 12 (c), 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the Act and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-50 as being applicable to the proposed transactions.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said applications or declarations (or both) shall not be granted or be permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission.

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matters under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 11, 1945, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the office of the Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, in such room as the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise. Any person proposing to be heard or otherwise to participate in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before December 7, 1945, a written request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing on such matter. PART 729—PEANUTS

NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA, NORMAL YIELD PER ACRE, AND NATIONAL ACREAGE ALLOTMENT FOR 1946 CROP

Whereas, the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that between July 1 and December 1 of each calendar year there shall be proclaimed the amount of the national marketing quota for peanuts for the crop produced in the next succeeding calendar year and that the nat'onal marketing quota for peanuts for any year shall be converted to a national acreage allotment by dividing such quota by the normal yield per acre of peanuts for the United States determined on the basis of the average yield per acre of peanuts in the five years preceding the year in which the quota is proclaimed, with such adjustment as may be found necessary to co.rect for trends in yields and for abnormal conditions of production affecting yields in such five years, and

Whereas, said act further provides that the powers therein granted shall not be used to discourage the production of sufficient supplies of foods and fibers to maintain normal domestic human consumption, taking into consideration current trends in domestic consumption and exports and the quantities of substitutes available for domestic consumption, and that due regard must be given to the maintenance of a continuous and stable supply of agricultural commodities from domestic production adequate to meet consumer demand at prices fair to both producers and consumers, and

PART 1042—IMPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS[1]

[General Imports Order M-63, as Amended Nov. 30, 1945]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain imported materials for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

(4) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States (including the Philippine Islands). (7) "Governing date" with respect to any material means the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M-63.

(b) Restrictions on imports of materials—(1) General restriction. No person, except as authorized in writing by the Civilian Production Administration shall purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any material subject to this order after the governing date. The foregoing restrictions shall apply to the importation of any material subject to the order regardless of the existence on the governing date or thereafter of any contract or other arrangement for the importation of such material. The materials subject to this order are those listed from time to time upon Lists A and B attached hereto.

(2) Authorization by Civilian Production Administration. Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form WPB-1041 addressed to the Civilian Production Administration Ref: M-63, Washington 25, D. N. S. C.—No separate class or commodity number has been assigned for the material as described by the Department of Commerce, Statistical Classification of Imports.

INTERPRETATION 1: Revoked June 4, 1945.

INTERPRETATION 2

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Civilian Production Administration with respect to the meaning of the term "in transit" as defined in paragraph (a) (6) of General Imports Order M–63 (§ 1042.1) as amended.

By amendment dated December 17, 1942, the definition of material "in transit" was changed by adding the following clause, "or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier for transportation to a point within the continental United States." The question has been raised as to the meaning of the term as applied to a case where the material on the governing date had been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on a through bill of lading for transportation to a specified port and from thence by boat to a point within the continental United States.

The material in the stated case is not deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order. If the material is to be carried to the port of arrival in the continental United States by ship the material must have been afloat, or an on board ocean bill of lading must have been issued with respect to it on the governing date in order for it to be considered as having been in transit on such date.

Material which has been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on the governing date for transportation to a point within the continental United States is deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order only when the transportation specified in the bill of lading issued by such carrier calls for delivery of the material at the port of arrival in the continental United States by rail, truck, or air carrier, not by ship. (Issued March 5, 1943.)

INTERPRETATION 3: Revoked June 4, 1945.

[Supplementary Order M–317A, Interpretation 2]

ACCEPTANCE OF AAA, MM AND CC RATED ORDERS WHICH IMPINGE UPON SET-ASIDES

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Supplementary Order M–317A:

The delivery restrictions in Supplementary Order M–317A, as amended, apply to both rated and unrated orders. Thus, for those fabrics for which delivery restrictions are provided in Columns III or IV of the Distribution Schedules of Order M–317A, producers may accept AAA, MM and CC rated orders only for that part of their production not required to meet the set-asides, unless the rated orders come within the delivery restriction. For example, in Reference Number 29, Osnaburgs, Column IV states that 66⅔% of the quarterly production may be delivered only to persons who certify that they will use the fabric to make textile bags. Under this provision no producer of osnaburgs may accept or fill rated or unrated orders for osnaburgs beyond 33⅓% of his quarterly production unless they contain the certificate provided in Column IV.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[2d Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 49]

SUGAR

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Second Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3.3 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Application for allotments. An industrial user's registration on OPA Form R–1200 is treated as an application for an allotment for his industrial user establishment for the quarterly period beginning January 1, 1944. Application for any other allotment period must be made, in person or by mail, to the Board with which his establishment is registered, in writing, on OPA Form R–1230. The application must be made not more than 15 days before, and no more than 5 days after, the beginning of the period. However, the Board may permit an application to be made at any time before an allotment period under such circumstances as the Washington Office of the Office of Price Administration may direct. The Board may, in its discretion, permit an application to be made at any time within the allotment period, but if it is made more than five days after the beginning of the period, the industrial user's allotment shall be reduced by the amount which bears the same proportion to the allotment as the number of days which have elapsed since the beginning of the period bears to the total number of days in the period.

2. The last sentence of the first paragraph of section 3.4 (d) is amended to read as follows: "Except for these two cases, application for the increase permitted by this section must be made on OPA Form R–1230."

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

Section 4 of Supplementary Order No. 131 is amended by adding thereto paragraphs (jj) through (ll), inclusive, to read as follows:

(jj) Cotton bedspreads. (1) As used herein, (i) "cotton bedspreads" means bedspreads subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 118;[1] (ii) "previous ceiling price" means the highest maximum price which the bedspread had or would have had under Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 prior to June 30, 1945;[2] (iii) "lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of cotton bedspreads" means those bedspreads with previous ceiling prices at or below the simple average of the previous ceiling prices of the lowest and of the highest priced cotton bedspreads invoiced by or on the active price list of the manufacturer from July 21 to August 15, 1941; (iv) "active price list" means styles which were delivered by the manufacturer at any time during 1941 and which were offered for sale by him between July 21 and August 15, 1941.

(2) The maximum prices established by § 1400.118 (d) (22) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 for bedspreads in the lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of cotton bedspreads, as well as for all bedspreads with a previous ceiling price at or below the dollar amounts indicated in subparagraph (3), are increased by the percentages appearing therein: Provided, That the foregoing increase shall not apply to any bedspreads with a previous ceiling price of more than $4.50.

(3) The permitted increases and lower price brackets are as follows:

Type of bedspread	Percentage increase for cotton bedspreads consisting 95% or more of cotton		Increase applicable to all cotton bedspreads with previous MPR 118 ceiling at or below (per bedspread)
	For the lower band	For the higher band
Bleached dimity	36	40	[3] $1.50
Dobby, plain and crinkle	26	30	1.50
Jacquard, hobnail, boxloom and homespun	[3] 21	[3] 25	2.75

[1] Styles computed on 72 x 90 inch bedspread.

[2] This percentage is for cotton bedspreads consisting 95% or more of cotton by weight after finishing. For bedspreads subject to MPR 118 containing a lesser percentage of cotton, subtract 3% for each 10% of cotton content less than 100%. For example the percentage increase applicable to jacquard bedspreads containing 70% cotton and 30% rayon would be 16% for the higher band and 12% for the lower band.

(kk) Table napery. (1) As used herein, (i) "cotton table napery" means table cloths, table napkins, and table cloth fabrics subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 118;[1] (ii) "previous ceiling price" means the highest maximum price which the napery had or would have had under Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 prior to June 30, 1945;[2] (iii) "lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of cotton table napery" means those styles of (a) table cloths and table cloth fabrics and (b) table napkins with previous ceiling prices per square yard at or below the simple average of the previous square yard ceiling prices of the lowest and of the highest priced cotton table napery in each of the two classifications invoiced by or on the active price list of the manufacturer from July 21 to August 15, 1941; (iv) "active price list" means styles which were delivered by the manufacturer at any time during 1941 and which were offered for sale by him between July 21 and August 15, 1941.

(2) The maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 for table napery in the lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of cotton table napery, as well as for all cotton table napery with a previous ceiling price at or below the dollar amounts indicated in subparagraph (3), are increased by the percentages appearing therein: Provided, That the foregoing increase shall not apply to any table cloth or table cloth fabric with a previous ceiling price of more than 75 cents per square yard or to any table napkin with a previous ceiling price of more than 85 cents per square yard.

(3) The permitted increases and lower price brackets are as follows:

Type of napery	Percentage increase for napery consisting 95% or more of cotton [1]		Increase applicable to all items with previous MPR 118 ceiling at or below (per square yard)
	For the lower band	For the higher band
Napkins	16	20	.50

[1] This percentage is for table napery and consisting of 95% or more of cotton by weight after finishing. For napery subject to MPR 118 containing a lesser percentage of cotton, subtract 2% for each 10% of cotton content less than 100%. For example, the percentage increase applicable to a table cloth containing 70% cotton and 30% rayon would be 14% for the higher band and 10% for the lower band.

(ll) Woven decorative fabrics. (1) As used herein, (i) "woven decorative fabrics" means (a) those defined in and subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 39[4] and (b) grey fabrics subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 118[1] which are specially designed for upholstery or drapery use, which are not lighter than 6 ounces per square yard and are of a weave requiring a dobby head with 16 or more harnesses or a jacquard loom; (ii) "previous ceiling price" means the highest maximum price which the fabric had or would have had under Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 or Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 prior to June 30, 1945;[2] (iii) "lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of woven decorative fabrics" means those styles of (a) woven decorative fabrics subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 and (b) the above-described grey fabrics with previous ceiling prices per square yard at or below the simple average of the previous square yard ceiling prices of the lowest and of the highest priced fabrics in each of the two classifications invoiced by or on the active price list of the manufacturer from July 11 to September 10, 1941; (iv) "active price list" means styles which were delivered by the manufacturer at any time during 1941 and which were offered for sale by him between July 11 and September 10, 1941.

(2) The maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 and Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 for woven decorative fabrics in the lower half of the manufacturer's 1941 line of woven decorative fabrics, as well as for all woven decorative fabrics with a previous ceiling price at or below the dollar amounts indicated in subparagraph (3), are increased by the percentages appearing therein: Provided, That the foregoing increase shall not apply to any woven decorative fabric subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 with a previous ceiling price of more than $1.67 per square yard or to any of the above-described grey fabrics subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 118 with a previous ceiling price of more than 45 cents per square yard.

(3) The permitted increases and lower price brackets are as follows:

Type of fabric	Percentage increase for decorative fabrics consisting 95% or more of cotton [1]		Increase applicable to fabrics with previous MPR 39 or 118 ceilings at or below (per square yard)
	For the lower band	For the higher band
I. Fabrics subject to MPR No. 39:
A. Fabrics narrower than 42 inches	21	25	$0.55
B. Fabrics 42 inches wide and wider:
1. If previous ceiling price was lower than $0.90 a square yard:
i. Other than a fabric requiring a box loom	21	25	.70
ii. Box loom, automatic and pick-and-pick	21	25	.90
2. If previous ceiling price was $0.90 a square yard or higher	16	20
II. Grey fabrics described in paragraph (ll) (1) (i) (b)	21	25	.35

[1] This percentage is for woven decorative fabrics consisting of 95% or more of cotton by weight after weaving and before finishing. For woven decorative fabrics subject to MPR 39 and grey upholstery and drapery fabrics subject to MPR 118 containing more than 50% cotton but less than 95%, subtract the following amounts: Where the increases are 21% and 25%, subtract 3% for each 10% of cotton content less than 100%; and where the increases are 16 and 20%, subtract 2% for each 10%.

For example, the percentage increase applicable to a decorative fabric containing 70% cotton and 30% rayon would be 12% for the lower band and 16% for the higher band, where the applicable increases are 21% and 25%, respectively.

This amendment shall become effective November 30, 1945.

Issued this 30th day of November 1945.

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1.1 Applicability. Except for those sales exempted by paragraph (a) of this section, this regulation shall apply to all sales of imported and domestic rye and to all deliveries of such rye, whether immediate or future, in the United States.

(a) Exempt sales—(1) Sales by retailers. This regulation shall not apply to sales by retailers as defined herein. Supplement No. 1[1] to Food Products Regulation No. 2 shall apply to such sales.

(2) Emergency purchases by the United States Government or any of its agencies. Whenever circumstances of emergency make a purchase by the United States Government or any of its agencies imperative and it is impossible to secure or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable, such purchases and deliveries may be made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended: Provided, however, That the Administrator may by order waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances and he may in lieu thereof require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

(3) Seed rye. Sales and deliveries of rye which the buyer intends to use for seed for planting or to resell for ultimate use as seed for planting are exempt from the provisions of this regulation: Provided, That:

(i) Each buyer shall certify in writing to his supplier at the time he contracts for its purchase, both that such rye is being purchased for use by the buyer as seed or for resale as seed, and that the rye will not be used by him or by any person affiliated with him for any other purpose. The purchase of any lot of rye above the maximum prices established herein for the same rye when not sold or used for seed, followed by its use by the buyer or by any affiliated person for any other purpose will be a purchase above the maximum price and a violation of the regulation: Except, that a producer who finds he has purchased more seed rye than he needs for planting, may use the excess up to a reasonable amount, for feeding to his livestock on his farm; and except, that if a part of the rye is separated as unfit for seed, such part may be used by the person for other normal uses; and, except, that this subparagraph shall not apply to sales in any quantity of State certified seed rye, or to sales in quantities of less than 100 pounds of seed rye if properly tagged or labeled to comply with the requirements of any applicable Federal or State seed law or when tagged or labeled to show the percentages of germination and foreign material in cases where there is no such Federal or State requirement.

(ii) If seed rye is resold for use other than as seed, or if part is used for any other purpose, consistently with paragraph (a) (3) (i) of this section, the maximum price for such rye shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions governing sales and deliveries of rye other than seed rye as elsewhere set forth in this regulation.

(iii) No rye purchased for seed shall be commingled with rye not purchased for seed, unless and until the owner has determined to sell for a different use as provided in paragraph (a) (3) (ii).

(4) Export sales. The maximum prices for export sales shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation, as amended.

[1] 9 F.R. 8309; 10 F.R. 747, 2612.

SEC. 1.2 Sales at other than maximum prices. Regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall in the course of trade or business buy or receive any rye at a price above the maximum price established by this regulation, nor shall any person agree, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, however, That certain agreements to raise prices are permissible, as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section.

(a) Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by an order of the Administrator or of any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

(b) Prices lower than maximum prices. Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this regulation may, of course, be charged or paid.

SEC. 1.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation; agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to rye, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or by any other means.

SEC. 1.4 Documents, records and reports. Every seller and every purchaser, in the course of trade or business, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records of all sales and purchases of rye covered by this regulation, including the date thereof, the name of the seller and purchaser, the grade and quality upon which the maximum price was based, the price paid or received, buyer's receiving point, and the quantity sold.

SEC. 1.5 Separate statement of charges, markups and costs, on sales in carload quantities. When any selling price of a carload quantity of rye equals or exceeds the base price adjusted for grade and quality at point of origin plus freight, or exceeds the base price adjusted for grade and quality at the terminal through which the shipment moves, plus freight, all service charges, markups, elevation and handling costs, and transportation costs permitted to distributors shall be separately stated on the invoice or on the confirmation of sale to each purchaser in such a manner as to show the nature of the service being performed or the markup taken, and the amount being added to the maximum price. Such invoice or confirmation of sale shall also indicate, with respect to each of the above items, the name and address of the person performing the service or taking the markup in all cases except on sales in mixed or pool cars, or sales made after the lot has been unloaded into a terminal or sub-terminal elevator or warehouse.

SEC. 1.6 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, apply to all sellers subject to this regulation, but no such license is required of, or granted to, a producer as a condition of selling an agricultural commodity produced by him. A seller's license may be suspended for violation of the license or of maximum prices provided in this regulation. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 1.7 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the license revocation and suspension provisions, civil enforcement actions, suits for damages and criminal penalties as provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 1.8 Protests, interpretations and petitions for amendment. Any person desiring to file a protest against or seeking an interpretation or an amendment of any provision of this regulation may do so in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, as amended, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

ARTICLE II—BASIC RULES AND DEFINITIONS

SEC. 2.1 Explanatory statement. This regulation provides a maximum price for every kind of seller and every kind of sale except those specifically exempted in section 1.1 (a). As you may not always perform the same marketing or distributive functions with respect to all sales, you should determine what function you perform with respect to each sale and with respect to the definitions for various grain trade functionaries as set forth in sections 2.2 and 2.6. After making this determination you will find the method for determining your maximum price for such sales described in the appropriate section of Article IV. If service charges are involved you will refer to the appropriate section of Article V.

SEC. 2.2 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons or the legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing; and includes the United States or any other Government or any political subdivision or agency of any of the foregoing.

(ii) Delivers it in any manner other than as a trucker-merchant or as a retailer.

NOTE: If you purchase and receive the rye from a producer at a terminal base point, on your resale thereof you must determine your maximum price as a merchandiser or as a retailer, as the case may be, following the rules in section 4.4 of this regulation, or the rules in Supplement No. 1 to Food Products Regulation No. 2, as amended.

(5) "Trucker-merchant" means, with respect to any lot of rye, a person who purchases such rye for resale and without loading it into a barge or railroad car or unloading it into an elevator or warehouse for his own account and use, transports and delivers the same to his customer in a truck or other vehicle owned or leased and operated by him.

(ii) Regardless of any of the provisions of this regulation, division of commission charges may be made with and paid to exchange members in accordance with the rules of the respective exchanges which were in effect January 1, 1943, and sellers of rye who are members may receive such divisions.

(26) "Your transportation cost" means:

(i) If you employ a common carrier, contract carrier, or other carrier for hire or compensation, the charge which you actually incur for the transportation service: Provided, That such charge shall not include the difference, if any, between the unload rate and the winter storage rate in the case of rye shipped via lake vessel; or

(ii) If you do your own hauling by truck or other vehicle, the hauling allowance at the scale set forth in definition 27; or

(iii) If you transport the lot by barge or vessel owned, leased, or chartered and operated by you, the going rate for the same movement, if there is such a going rate, or if there is no going rate for the same movement, then the going rate for the most similar movement, not to exceed the reasonable value of the service; or

(iv) When any movement involves a combination of more than one of the types of transportation included in (i), (ii) or (iii), the transportation cost for the movement of each type shall be computed separately and the results added.

(v) If any part of the movement is by barge or vessel, you may add customary vessel brokerage, cargo insurance, and outturn insurance or allowances on such lot, to the extent not included in the cost computed under (i) or (iii) above.

(27) "Hauling allowance" means the following scale of charges:

If the total haul does not exceed 100 miles—3 cents per 100 pounds for the first five miles or fraction thereof, plus 1 cent per 100 pounds for each additional five miles or fraction thereof;

If the haul exceeds 100 miles, the lowest local carload rye rail rate from the rail point nearest the point of origin to the rail point nearest point of destination plus 8 cents per 100 pounds, but not to exceed 22 cents per 100 pounds, plus ¼ cent per 100 pounds for each five miles or fraction thereof over 100 miles.

In applying the above mileage scale all distances shall be determined via the shortest route between point of origin and point of destination reasonably suitable for truck movement.

(28) "Other vehicle" means any conveyance other than a truck, rail car, barge or vessel.

(29) "Nearest" as used in section 3.2, paragraphs (c) and (d), means the shortest distance by a route suitable for truck movement.

(30) "Area A" includes the following States and portions of States, to wit:

Montana (counties of Hill, Blaine, Phillips, Valley, Garfield, McCone, Prairie, Daniels, Sheridan, Roosevelt, Richland, Dawson, Wibaux, Fallon, Carter, Powder River, Rosebud, Custer and Treasure, only).

Nebraska (all counties except Cass, Otoe, Gage, Johnson, Nemaha, Pawnee, and Richardson).

Minnesota (all counties except Lake of the Woods, Beltrami, Clearwater, Hubbard, Cass, Crow, Wing, Koochiching, Itasca, Aitkin, St. Louis, Lake, Cook, Carlton, and Pine).

Wisconsin (counties of St. Croix, Pierce, Dunn, Chippewa, Clark, Eau Claire, Pepin, Buffalo, Trempealeau, Jackson, La Crosse, Monroe, Vernon, Crawford, Richland, Wood, Juneau, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Waushara, Marquette, Green Lake, and Columbia, only).

Iowa (counties of Lyon, Sioux, Plymouth, and Woodbury, only).

Colorado (counties of Logan, Sedgwick, Phillips, and Yuma, only).

(31) "Area B" includes the District of Columbia and all states and portions of states not included in Area A.

SEC. 2.3 Rules relating to delivery—(a) Quantity delivered. Whenever a maximum price is dependent on the quantity delivered and the delivery is made by a vehicle such as a rail car, truck, wagon, barge or vessel, the quantity delivered shall be the quantity received by or for the customer at one time on one vehicle. Any practice of delivering in small quantities, which has no sound business reason other than to secure a higher maximum price, will be an evasive device.

(b) Point of delivery. Under this regulation "point of delivery" is frequently made the test of what maximum price applies. In such cases, the term is not used in the sense of legal delivery under a contract, but of actual delivery to and receipt at the point. The obligation of the seller to consummate the movement to that point is a part of the consideration upon which the maximum price is based. When the price is dependent upon delivery to an elevator, warehouse or store, the delivery is not made unless the lot is delivered to and unloaded into an elevator, warehouse or store, which is commercially operated as such, or in the case of shipment by rail, the lot has arrived at the point at which physical delivery is to be made to the buyer and is ready for unloading.

(c) Delivery by negotiable warehouse receipt or negotiable bill of lading. It is common trade practice in dealing with rye to accomplish delivery by transfer of a negotiable warehouse receipt or negotiable bill of lading. This practice is recognized as constituting delivery even though the point of delivery is determined under paragraph (b).

(d) Delivery as related to the effective date of this regulation. When a question arises as to whether a delivery was made before the effective date of this regulation, the general interpretation of the Office of Price Administration on the point governs. Information on this rule can be secured from any District Office.

SEC. 2.4 Rules relating to commingling. It is expected that a person may commingle a lot of rye owned by him with other rye owned by him. He may also commingle his rye with rye owned by others, provided such commingling is not used as a device to evade any maximum price. In either case he will continue to own an equivalent amount of rye. In such cases, his relationship to the "equivalent amount" of rye shall be deemed to be the same as his relationship to the original rye and the terms "any particular lot" of rye and "such" rye as used herein shall be considered accordingly.

SEC. 2.5 General rules for determining the price applicable to a withdrawal from a place of business. If you unload a lot of rye into a "place of business" such as an elevator, warehouse, processing plant or store, you will require a method of pricing the lot upon its "withdrawal" whether it is shipped out of the place of business, or is used there in processing, or is put into a mixed grain. If each such "inbound lot" were kept separate in your place of business, and were withdrawn separately, there would be no problem in determining its price upon withdrawal. In practice, however, such individual inbound lots are not kept separate, but usually are commingled or their identity is otherwise lost. For this reason, a method must be provided which permits you to select an inbound lot, or lots, or parts of lots, and use the "history" of such lots in determining the appropriate maximum price for a withdrawal of an equal quantity of the same rye. This section provides two alternative methods for pricing such withdrawals from a place of business.

(a) Definitions. When used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Place of business" means a warehouse, elevator, store or processing plant, or any combination of such facilities operated as a unit at one location.

(2) "Withdrawal" means any movement of rye out of a place of business whether pursuant to a sale or otherwise, or any movement of rye within a place of business for use in manufacturing or mixing with other grain in the same place of business.

(3) "Inbound lot" means any quantity of rye unloaded into your place of business which was received at one time and which has the same "history".

(4) "History" means, with respect to any inbound lot of rye, your supplier's maximum price on his sale and delivery to you, plus your transportation cost, if any, to the place of business where it is unloaded and from which it will be withdrawn, and plus any other charges you are permitted to add under this regulation for handling of the lot prior to such unloading.

(b) Rules for determination of uncancelled inbound lots in your stock—(1) Rye. In using this section you must know the uncancelled, inbound lots in your stock and the history of each such lot. At the time you commence using this section you must record the history of all rye in stock at your place of business by determining the histories of your most recent receipts up to the total amount of rye in your stock. These receipts constitute the uncancelled, inbound lots at that time and they remain such until cancelled as provided below. Thereafter each new inbound lot and the history of the lot is carried in your records as uncancelled until it is used and cancelled as provided below.

(2) Mixed grains. An inbound lot of mixed grain may be carried with the history of such lot as mixed grain, until it is commingled or further mixed so as to change the proportions of the various grains in the mixture. If such proportions are changed, however, it cannot any longer be carried as an inbound lot of mixed grain, but must be carried as separate lots of each of the grains in the mixture. To do so, you must multiply the weight of the inbound lot by the percentage of each grain and of the foreign material, if any, in the mixture and carry the resulting weight of each as if they were separate inbound lots of each such grain and foreign material, together with the history of each lot separately. Thus, for example, if an inbound lot of 100,000 pounds contains 80 percent wheat and 20 percent rye, it must, if it is commingled or further mixed, be entered and carried as two separate receipts of 80,000 pounds of wheat and 20,000 pounds of rye, each with its own price as determined from the history of the lot.

(c) Pricing withdrawals against individual inbound lots—(1) Rules. You may, if you wish, determine your withdrawal price by reference to individual inbound lots. To do so, you select any uncancelled inbound lot, and the history of such lot is your withdrawal price for an equal weight of the grain withdrawn, except that if the grade or quality of the withdrawal differs from the grade or quality of the inbound lot, the price shall be adjusted according to the schedule of premiums and discounts in the applicable regulation. Thereafter, the inbound lot or lots selected are considered cancelled and their histories may not be used again.

(2) Records. You must keep some permanent record of your uncancelled inbound lots in stock and their history, you must also keep some permanent record of each withdrawal and cancellation so that no inbound lot may be twice applied. Such records may be kept on the invoices themselves or in any other form you select.

(d) Pricing withdrawals against a weighted average of inbound lots—(1) Rules. You may, if you prefer, select any uncancelled, inbound lots which could be applied against a withdrawal under paragraph (c) and determine a withdrawal price for the total quantity of such lots, by averaging them and adjusting them as follows:

(i) When a number of inbound lots are put into an average it is necessary (except in the case of a retail store as provided in Supplement No. 1 to Food Products Regulation No. 2) to eliminate the factors of grade and quality and previous markups from the history of the inbound lots. In order to accomplish this, you must deduct all previous markups (including commission merchants' service charges) from the history of each lot being averaged and you must adjust such price to the corresponding price for the "standard grade and quality" (as defined in section 2.2 (19)) of each inbound lot.

(ii) Having selected the inbound lots you desire to average and having adjusted the prices to be used, as above, you determine a weighted average of such prices by multiplying each weight by its price, adding the resulting figures and dividing the total by the total weight averaged.

Example

Inbound lot A—1,000 bushels at $1.40	$1,400
Inbound lot B—500 bushels at $1.34	670
1,500 bushels	2,070
Average price per bushel—$1.38.

When you average any inbound lots, the lots so averaged are cancelled and they may not be used again either in another average or for application as individual lots against a withdrawal. Withdrawals may be made against the average price so figured up to the weight of the lots averaged.

(iii) The price of each withdrawal under this method shall be determined by adjusting the average price computed as above (which is for "standard grade and quality" and without prior markups) to the grade and quality of the rye withdrawn, by the appropriate premiums and discounts provided in Table I of Appendix A. Since this resulting price does not include prior markups (because under subdivision (i) such markups, if any, were deducted from the history of each inbound lot before averaging), you select any previously deducted prior markup or markups which have not since been used against any other withdrawal, and add it to the above resulting price to arrive at a withdrawal price. Of course,

If any inbound lot had no prior markup, an equivalent quantity must be withdrawn without adding a prior markup.

(2) Certification. Each seller of lots withdrawn from a commingled lot shall certify on his invoice that the average price set forth thereon is the lawful average price and that the markups as listed on the said invoice of the lot or lots withdrawn from the commingled lot when added to such average price adjusted for grade and quality becomes the buyer's lawful maximum purchase price for such lot or lots.

(3) Records. A record must be kept of prior markups so deducted and the quantity of rye involved, and when such a markup is added again in pricing a withdrawal, it shall be "cancelled" from the record for the quantity of rye withdrawn. (This provision for deducting and re-adding markups applies only to inbound lots put into an average, since when pricing withdrawals against individual inbound lots, the actual markups for each such inbound lot must be used.)

A record must also be kept of each average, how it was computed, and the withdrawals applied against it.

(e) Exception. The provisions of this section may be used in the computation of a maximum price except when pricing provisions elsewhere in this regulation (see section 4.4 (a) (2)) establish maximum prices by reference to a base price at your place of business or at a subsequent destination.

SEC. 2.6 Rules relating to persons performing several marketing functions ("Integrated Business" Rule). Following are minimum tests which must be met before a country shipper or a merchandiser may qualify to add the additional merchandising markups provided in this section to his maximum price calculated under this regulation. To be eligible for these additional markups, you must maintain two or more offices located as indicated below, but not in the same town or city except as provided in paragraph (a) (2) (iii). Each office must be a place of business, owned or leased and maintained exclusively by you where you conduct a business of buying or selling grain at which place and in the course of which business you employ one or more full-time salaried employees or you yourself work on substantially a full-time basis. In respect to any lot of rye one such office (hereinafter called the buying office) must buy the rye and another such office (hereinafter called the selling office) must sell the rye. The minimum tests set forth above in this paragraph shall not apply to Commodity Credit Corporation, which shall be entitled to the additional markups provided in this section if it meets the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof.

(a) Merchandising markups permitted to such persons when they are country shippers. If you are a country shipper under this regulation and comply with the above requirements as to buying and selling offices, you will be entitled to include the appropriate maximum markup shown below in your maximum price subject to all limitations on total markups set forth in this regulation.

(1) If you sell as a country shipper in a carload quantity, a markup of 1¼ cents per bushel: Provided,

(i) The lot is shipped from the point at which you receive it from your supplier and is sold on a recognized grain exchange by your selling office; or

(ii) The lot is shipped by rail or barge and after such shipment and before delivery to your customer is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by or for your account; or

(iii) The lot is sold by your selling office to a feeder, retailer or processor; or

(iv) Your selling office is located at least 200 miles from your buying office and the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 200 miles apart from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier.

(2) If you sell as a country shipper in a carload quantity, a markup of 2 cents per bushel: Provided,

(i) The lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 1,000 miles from the point at which you receive the lot from your supplier, and your selling office is at least 1,000 miles apart from your buying office; or

(ii) Your selling office is located at least 200 miles from your buying office, the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 200 miles apart from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier, and before delivery to your customer, the rye is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by you or for your account; or

(iii) You have maintained at a terminal base point city two selling offices which are and have been operated as separate businesses, and one of which is the central selling office for your country elevators and/or country buying offices which have bought the lot in question while the other is strictly a terminal merchandising office buying rye in carload quantities from other persons as well as handling rye turned over to it by your other office, and which sells the lot in question. In order to qualify under this paragraph, the selling office for your country department must have sold rye independently to other persons, and your terminal merchandising department must have bought rye independently from other persons, both in addition to the rye transferred from the one to the other. Furthermore, before qualifying under this paragraph, a business so organized shall file with the District or Regional Office of the state in which such offices are located, an application to operate in such manner, stating in all necessary detail the location and nature of the two offices, the country elevators and buying offices served, terminal elevators operated at that point, if any, whether the two offices keep separate books, and the volume of rye business in bushels done by each office with other persons as well as with each other during the crop year 1941–1942.

(3) If you sell as a country shipper in a carload quantity, a merchandising markup of 2¾ cents per bushel: Provided,

(i) Your selling office is located at least 1,000 miles from your buying office, the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 1,000 miles apart from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier, and before delivery to your customer the rye is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by you or for your account.

(4) The markups provided in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) are not cumulative.

(b) Extra merchandising markups permitted to such persons when they are merchandisers. If you are a merchandiser under this regulation and comply with the above requirements as to buying and selling offices, you will be entitled to add to any merchandising markup you may otherwise include in your maximum price, the appropriate extra markup shown below, subject to all limitations on total markups set forth in this regulation.

(1) If you sell as a merchandiser in a carload quantity, an extra markup of ¾ cents per bushel, Provided:

(i) The lot is shipped by rail or barge and after such shipment and before delivery to your customer is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by or for your account; or

(ii) Your selling office is located at least 200 miles from your buying office and the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 200 miles apart from the point at which you receive the lot from your supplier; or

(iii) The lot is sold by your selling office to a feeder, retailer or processor.

(2) If you sell as a merchandiser in a carload quantity, an extra markup of 1½ cents per bushel, Provided:

(i) The lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 1,000 miles from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier, and your selling office is at least 1,000 miles apart from your buying office; or

(ii) Your selling office is located at least 200 miles from your buying office, the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 200 miles apart from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier, and before delivery to your customer the rye is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by you or for your account.

(3) If you sell as a merchandiser in a carload quantity, an extra markup of 2¼ cents per bushel, Provided:

(i) Your selling office is located at least 1,000 miles from your buying office, the lot is shipped to and received by your customer at a point at least 1,000 miles apart from the point at which you received the lot from your supplier, and before delivery to your customer the rye is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse by you or for your account.

(4) The markups provided in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) are not cumulative.

SEC. 2.7 Rules relating to pricing by processors. In some cases other regulations require that a processor, in order to compute his maximum price on a processed commodity, know the maximum price he could have paid for a lot of grain received into his plant. If the processor operates a separate grain business at a different location from his processing plant, and that separate office sells grain to others besides supplying grain to the processing plant, the maximum price the processor could have paid for any lot of rye purchased by such separate grain office and delivered to the processing plant shall be deemed to be the maximum price which the grain office could have charged another person for a like sale and delivery to the processing plant: Provided, That before delivery to the processing plant such rye was unloaded by or for the grain office into an elevator or warehouse from which it was shipped to the processing plant as a carload or barge shipment. For example, this will permit markups to be added under section 2.6.

ARTICLE III—BASE PRICES

SEC. 3.1 Explanation of base prices. "Base prices" are not maximum prices but are used in the determination of maximum prices. All rye does not have the same value because of variations in grade and quality and also because rye located at one point may command a different price than rye located at another point. Base prices are, accordingly, worked out to reflect differences in grade and quality and differences in location. Generally speaking, this regulation starts any lot of rye into marketing channels with a maximum price at or near its origin, and these base prices are for the purpose of arriving at such initial maximum price for the particular grade, quality and location. At different levels of marketing the regulation permits the addition to base prices of transportation costs, markups, and similar incidents to distribution.

In order to provide a base price for rye at every point in the United States, for every grade and quality, it is necessary to establish base prices by location for a "standard grade" of rye and to provide premiums and discounts from such grade for grades other than "standard", and for moisture and the other factors affecting determination of quality. The "standard grade" is No. 2 rye having a test weight of 54 pounds per bushel. Base prices for the "standard grade" of rye are set forth in section 3.2. Base prices for other grades and qualities are determined by adding or subtracting the premiums and discounts provided in Table I of Appendix A to or from the corresponding price for the "standard grade".

SEC. 3.2 Schedule of base prices. Base prices by location for the "standard grade" of rye, dockage free, shall be as follows:

(a) Base prices at terminal base points. Base prices per bushel, bulk, for rye at the following terminal base points shall be as follows:

Minneapolis, Minn.	$1.37
Duluth, Minn.	1.37
Chicago, Ill.	1.42
Milwaukee, Wis.	1.42
Kansas City, Mo.	1.35¼
Omaha, Nebr.	1.35¼
Sioux City, Iowa	1.35¼

(b) Base prices at interior rail points—(1) In Area A. The base price per bushel, bulk, for rye at any interior rail point in Area A shall be that terminal base price specified in subparagraph (a) above which, less transportation charges at the lowest published domestic carload rail transportation rate from that interior rail point to that terminal base point, will result in the highest price at said interior rail point.

(2) In Area B. The base price per bushel, bulk, for rye at any interior rail point in Area B shall be the base price set forth in Table II of Appendix A hereof opposite the State and county or parish wherein the interior point in question is located.

(c) Base prices at interior points other than interior rail points. The base price per bushel, bulk, for rye at any interior point other than an interior rail point shall be the base price at the nearest interior rail point.

(e) Base prices for mixed grain. The base price for mixed grain (as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for rye) bulk, shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of Food Products Regulation No. 2. Where reference is made in such Article to an "applicable supplement" such reference, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall be deemed to include this regulation.

ARTICLE IV—MAXIMUM PRICES AT THE VARIOUS LEVELS OF MARKETING AND DISTRIBUTION

SEC. 4.1 Maximum prices for sales by producers. You will find that the term "producer" has been defined to include several persons. It includes a person who grew or harvested the lot of rye and a landlord who received such rye as, or in lieu of, rent for the farm where grown. In addition, for the purposes of the maximum pricing provisions of this regulation, it includes any other person who delivers the rye to his customer on the farm where grown or at roadside near such farm, the price result of this being that such person must deliver the rye to his customer away from the farm where grown or roadside nearby in order to secure a higher price than the person who grew the rye could have received.

You will not be acting as a producer in selling such rye, but as a country shipper, merchandiser or retailer, as the case may be: Provided, That before selling the rye you have it transported to a store, elevator, or warehouse operated by you at which you carry on a regular business of buying and selling grain produced by others. Under such circumstances, your maximum price shall be determined as though you purchased the rye from another producer at such producer's maximum price on the delivery made to such store, elevator or warehouse.

In connection with any delivery by you as a producer, if your customer performs any service or incurs any expense in connection with growing, threshing, harvesting, collection from field, or assembling at point where available for ready transportation from farm, the reasonable value of all such services performed and the expense so incurred must be deducted when he pays you the appropriate maximum price.

The maximum price of a producer is as follows:

(a) If delivery is made at the farm where grown or at roadside near such farm. If you deliver any lot of rye on the farm where grown or at roadside near such farm, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at the farm where grown with the following two exceptions:

(1) If there is an interior rail point on the farm, and you deliver the rye to your customer at a rail loading facility at such interior rail point, your maximum price shall be the base price at the interior rail point, less one cent per bushel if delivered to your customer loaded in a rail car, or less 2½ cents per bushel if not so loaded.

(2) If you are a landlord and you receive the rye from your tenant as or in lieu of rent, and if the lease or rental agreement between you provides for delivery of the rye at some point other than the farm where grown, then your maximum price for the sale of the rye to your tenant for delivery at such farm shall be the base price at the farm plus 1½ cents per bushel.

(b) If delivery is made by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown to a rail loading facility. (1) If you deliver the rye by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown to your customer at a rail loading facility at an interior rail point, without loading into cars, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at such point less 2½ cents per bushel.

(2) If you deliver the rye to your customer loaded aboard a rail car and if it is delivered at point of loading, your maximum price shall be the base price at point of loading, less 1 cent per bushel.

(3) If, after so loading the rye on a rail car, you deliver it to your customer following a rail movement, your maximum price shall be the base price at point of loading, less 1 cent per bushel, plus your transportation cost from the point of loading: Provided, That if after such a movement you have stored the rye, you must either pay or have deducted from the payment of such maximum price to you, all accrued storage and handling charges and the loading out charges. If your customer is also the warehouseman, such deduction for handling and loading out shall be not less than 1½ cents per bushel.

(c) If delivery is made by truck or other vehicle to a feeder, store or processing plant. You may deliver the rye by truck or other vehicle to either a feeder, store or processing plant, in which case your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at the farm where grown plus your transportation cost from such farm to the point of delivery to your customer.

(d) If delivery is made by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown to or in store at an elevator or warehouse. If you deliver the rye by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown to an elevator or warehouse (not including a delivery to a feeder, store or processing plant, which is covered in paragraph (c), separately) your maximum price per bushel, bulk, is as follows:

(1) If such elevator or warehouse is located at an interior point, your maximum price shall be the base price at such point, less 2½ cents per bushel; or

(2) If you store the rye in any elevator or warehouse located at an interior point, and deliver it to your customer in storage, your maximum price shall be the base price at such point, less 1 cent per bushel, but you must either pay, or have deducted from the payment of the maximum price to you, all accrued storage and handling charges, including the loading out charges. If your customer is also the warehouseman, the deduction for handling and loading out shall be not less than 1½ cents per bushel.

(e) If delivery is made in any other manner than is provided for above. If you deliver the rye to your customer in any manner other than as provided above, your maximum price shall be the base price on the farm where grown plus 1½ cents per bushel.

(f) Adjustment of fractions. If a maximum price, determined under this section, results in a fraction of a cent other than ⅛ of a cent, or a multiple thereof, the same may be increased to the next higher ⅛ of a cent.

SEC. 4.2 Maximum prices for sales by trucker-merchants. "Trucker-merchant" is defined as one who purchases rye for resale and, without loading it into a barge or railroad car, or unloading it into an elevator or warehouse for his own account and use, transports and delivers the rye to his customer in a truck or other vehicle owned or leased and operated by him.

If you are a trucker-merchant under this definition, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, for the sale of any lot of rye is your supplier's maximum price on the sale and delivery to you plus your hauling allowance from the point where you received delivery from your supplier to the point of delivery to your customer: Provided, That if you deliver the rye to a terminal base point your maximum price shall not exceed the base price at such terminal base point less 3 cents per bushel.

Every trucker-merchant shall, with respect to every lot of rye transported by him as such, procure or prepare a statement of information which shall accompany the rye while in transit on the truck or other vehicle. Such statement shall set forth the name and address of the trucker-merchant and of his supplier, the date of purchase, and the grade and purchase price of the rye. Upon delivery of the rye by the trucker-merchant to his customer, a copy of the statement of information signed by the trucker-merchant shall be given to his customer showing also the transportation charge being made. Copies of this statement shall be retained by the trucker-merchant and by his customer as a part of their records.

For enforcement purposes, it is necessary that both the shipments themselves and the records of the trucker-merchant covering such shipments be available for inspection while in transit. Failure of a trucker-merchant to stop for such inspection in response to instructions on a sign conspicuously posted at roadside or upon signal by an Office of Price Administration enforcement officer shall be a violation of this regulation, subject to all penalties of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 4.3 Maximum prices for sales by country shippers. "Country shipper" is defined in section 2.2 (a) (4) as a person who purchases and receives the rye from a producer at any point other than a terminal base point, in any quantity, before any movement by rail or barge, and delivers it to his customer at a point which is neither on the farm where grown nor at roadside near such farm and delivers it in any manner other than as a trucker-merchant or retailer.

This section sets forth the maximum prices for the ordinary "country shipper" marketing transactions. To these prices you may be entitled to add various charges which you may incur or allowances for special handling of the rye under the rules provided in section 5.2. Subject to such additions, the maximum prices per bushel, bulk, for sales by a country shipper are as follows:

(a) If delivery is made in a carload quantity. If you deliver the rye in a carload quantity, loaded in a rail car or barge or after a movement by such rail car or barge, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at the point where first so loaded plus your transportation cost, if any, from such point of loading: Provided, That, if, after such movement you store the rye, you must either pay or have deducted from the payment to you of such maximum price all accrued storage and handling charges, and the loading out charge. If your customer is also the warehouseman, such deduction for handling and loading out shall be not less than 1 cent per bushel.

(b) If delivery is made from the elevator or warehouse in less than carload quantities. If you deliver the rye from the elevator or warehouse to which it was hauled by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown in a less than carload quantity, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the sum of the carload quantity base price at the elevator or warehouse, your transportation cost, if any, and the appropriate one of the following markups:

(1) 3 cents per bushel for deliveries to a feeder or distiller of more than 150 bushels but less than carload quantities; or

(2) 6 cents per bushel for deliveries to a feeder or distiller of 150 bushels or less; or

(3) 1½ cents per bushel if delivered to any person other than a feeder, distiller or trucker-merchant: Provided, That, if, in making delivery, you do your own hauling, and, therefore, your transportation cost is the hauling allowances set forth in section 2.2 (a) (27), and if the distance you haul the rye is more than 60 miles, you shall not add the extra markups provided in this paragraph. The additional markups in this paragraph will not be subject to the limitation on markups provided in section 5.1 of this regulation. However, if your delivery is to a trucker-merchant, your maximum price shall not exceed the base price at the point of delivery.

(c) If delivery is made in storage. If you deliver the rye in any quantity, stored in the elevator or warehouse to which it was hauled by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at the point where the elevator or warehouse is located, but you must either pay or have deducted from the payment of the maximum price to you all accrued storage and handling charges, and the loading out charge. If your customer is also the warehouseman, the deduction for handling and loading out shall be not less than 1½ cents per bushel.

(d) If delivery is made in less than carload quantities, after movement by rail or barge. If your delivery, after any movement by rail or barge, is in a less than carload quantity, you shall add to your maximum price for a carload shipment, as computed in paragraph (a), your additional transportation cost to your customer's receiving point, if any, and the appropriate one of the following markups:

(1) 3 cents per bushel for deliveries to a feeder or distiller of more than 150 bushels but less than carload quantities; or

(2) 6 cents per bushel for deliveries to a feeder or distiller of 150 bushels or less; or

(3) 1½ cents per bushel if delivered to any person other than a feeder, distiller or trucker-merchant: Provided, That, if, in making delivery, you do your own hauling, and, therefore, your transportation cost is the hauling allowance set forth in section 2.2 (a) (27), and if the distance you haul the rye is more than 60 miles, you shall not add the extra markups provided in this paragraph. The additional markups in this paragraph will not be subject to the limitation on markups provided in section 5.1 of this regulation. However, if your delivery is to a trucker-merchant, your maximum price shall not exceed the base price at the point of delivery.

(e) If delivery is made by truck or other vehicle from the farm where grown to a store, feeder or processor. If you deliver the rye from the farm where grown in a for-hire truck or other vehicle to a store, feeder or processor, your maximum price per bushel, bulk, shall be the base price at such farm, plus 2½ cents per bushel, and plus your transportation cost. (If you delivered in your own truck or other vehicle, you would come under the definition of "trucker-merchant" and price accordingly.)

(f) If delivery is made in any manner other than as provided for above. The maximum price per bushel, bulk, for the sale by a country shipper of any lot of rye handled in any manner, not specified above, shall be the base price at the farm where grown plus 1½ cents per bushel.

SEC. 4.4 Maximum prices for sales by merchandisers. With the exception of persons acting as producers or country shippers, all sellers who deliver rye in any manner, other than as trucker-merchants or retailers, are "merchandisers" by definition. This section sets forth the maximum prices for the ordinary "merchandiser" marketing transactions. All markups are subject to the limitations set forth in section 5.1 of this regulation unless they are specifically exempted from such limitations. To these prices, you may be entitled to add various charges which you may incur or allowances for special handling of the grain under the rules provided in section 5.2 of this regulation. Subject to such additions, the maximum prices per bushel, bulk, for sales by a merchandiser are as follows:

(a) If you deliver in a carload quantity. For all deliveries of rye which you receive and deliver in a carload quantity, you calculate your maximum price either:

(1) By adding to your supplier's maximum price on the sale and delivery to you, or to the price of a withdrawal as determined under section 2.5 of this regulation, your transportation cost, and a markup of 1¼ cents per bushel; or

(2) If the rye has moved into a terminal basing point, you may use the terminal base point price in calculating your maximum price in lieu of your supplier's maximum price, and add to it (i) all previously allowable added markups and elevation charges, (ii) your transportation cost from the terminal base point to the point of delivery and (iii) a markup of 1¼ cents per bushel.

(b) If delivery is made to you in a less than carload quantity. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) below, if you receive any lot of rye from your supplier in a less than carload quantity and reship such rye by rail or vessel, or sell it in storage in a carload quantity, you must use in place of your supplier's maximum price the base price at the point of reshipment or storage, less 1¼ cents per bushel and after such adjustment, you calculate your maximum price as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) If you receive any lot of rye from your supplier in a less than carload quantity and you reship the rye by rail or vessel from a terminal base point, or sell it in storage there in a carload quantity, you shall use the terminal base price less 2½ cents per bushel, in place of your supplier's maximum price. Your markup on deliveries of carload quantities, in such cases, shall be 2½ cents per bushel. The limitation on markups set forth in section 5.1 shall not apply to the markup provided in this subparagraph.

(c) If you deliver in a less than carload quantity. If you deliver any lot of rye in a less than carload quantity, your maximum price shall be calculated by adding:

(1) Your supplier's maximum price on the sale and delivery to you (or the price of a withdrawal, as determined under section 2.5 of this regulation); and

(2) Your transportation cost; and

(3) A markup of 1¼ cents per bushel; and

(4) The appropriate one of the following additional markups:

(i) 4½ cents per bushel if delivered to a feeder or distiller in quantities of more than 150 bushels; or

(ii) 7½ cents per bushel if delivered to a feeder or distiller in quantities of 150 bushels or less; or

(iii) 2¾ cents per bushel if delivered to any person other than a feeder, distiller or trucker-merchant; or

(iv) 1¼ cents per bushel if delivered to a trucker-merchant;

Provided, That, if you do your own hauling, and, therefore, your transportation cost is the hauling allowance set forth in section 2.2 (a) (27), and if the distance hauled is more than 60 miles, you shall not be permitted to add the extra markups provided in subparagraph (4), above, in such case. The markups provided in subparagraph (4), above, will not be subject to the limitations on markups on carload shipments, as provided in section 5.1 of this regulation, but no more than one of such markups shall be added to the maximum price on the sale of any less than carload quantity except an additional markup on a sale to a feeder or distiller may be added to (4) (iii) above.

(d) If you deliver in storage. If you deliver the rye to your customer in storage, you must either pay or have deducted from the payment of the maximum price to you all accrued storage and handling charges and the loading out charges. If your customer is also the warehouseman, such deduction for handling and loading out shall be not less than 1 cent per bushel.

(e) Addditional markups if the rye is shipped by vessel on the Great Lakes, or by barge south, or east of Cairo, Illinois. If you ship a lot of rye by vessel on the Great Lakes, or by barge, south or east of Cairo, Illinois, you may add to the maximum price, otherwise applicable, a markup of 1¼ cents per bushel. The extra markup, provided in this paragraph, is not subject to the limitations set forth in section 5.1 of this regulation.

SEC. 4.5 Maximum prices for sales by retailers. The maximum prices for sales of rye by retailers shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Supplement 1 to Food Products Regulation No. 2, as amended.

SEC. 4.6 Pricing adjustments required of merchandisers when terminal base point prices set forth in section 3.2 or state and county base prices set forth in Appendix A are increased or decreased. Whenever terminal base point prices set forth in section 3.2 or state and county base prices set forth in Table II of Appendix A are increased or decreased subsequent to the date on which you purchased a lot of rye from your supplier but prior to the time you resell such rye, and such increase or decrease affects maximum prices for rye in the area in which such lot originated, and your maximum price for such lot of rye is dependent upon your "supplier's maximum price" on the sale and delivery to you or your "withdrawal price" calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 2.5, you shall, for the purpose of determining your maximum price on resale, increase or decrease your supplier's maximum price by the amount of such increase or decrease in the appropriate base point price, or if your basis for determining your maximum price is your "withdrawal price", you shall, for the purpose of determining your maximum price on resale, increase or decrease to a similar extent the "price histories" of lots purchased prior to the effective date of such increase or decrease and you shall then use such adjusted "price histories" in determining your withdrawal price.

ARTICLE V—RULES RELATING TO ADDITIONS TO MAXIMUM PRICES AND TO LIMITATIONS ON SUCH ADDITIONS

SEC. 5.1 Limitations on total markups of country shippers and merchandisers and on service charges of commission merchants which may be included in a maximum price. In order to prevent undue accumulation of markups for distributive services, all markups except those set forth in sections 4.3 (b) (3), 4.3 (d) (3), 4.4 (b) (2), 4.4 (c) (4) and 4.4 (e) are subject to the limitations provided in this section. These limitations apply to the total of all such markups and of service charges for commission merchants.

Except as heretofore set forth, the maximum price for the sale of any lot of rye shall never include an amount in excess of 3¾ cents per bushel as a total of all merchandising markups and of all service charges for commission merchants.

SEC. 5.2 Rules relating to additions to maximum prices.—(a) Maximum charges for services of brokers and commission merchants. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other regulation, the maximum charge which a broker or a commission merchant may charge for all services in connection with any purchase and sale of a lot of rye shall be as set forth below. These are maximum service charges regardless of whether the rye is sold at its maximum price and regardless of whether the markups may be added to any maximum price.

(i) Brokers. The maximum service charge for all services of a broker with respect to a purchase and sale of any lot of rye is ½ cent per bushel.

(ii) Commission merchants. The maximum service charge for all services of commission merchants with respect to a purchase and sale of any lot of rye is 1¼ cents per bushel.

(2) Subject to the limitations set forth in section 5.1 of this regulation, any seller may add the service charge of a commission merchant to the maximum price he would otherwise be entitled to charge: Provided, That the seller actually incurs such charge. However, no seller may add the service charge of a broker to the maximum price he is entitled to charge.

(b) Elevation charges which may be added to your maximum price. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2), below, if rye is unloaded into an elevator or warehouse from a rail car, barge or vessel, the maximum price of the seller shall be increased by 1 cent per bushel, provided the seller has actually incurred or would otherwise bear the expense of such elevation or handling, including loading out into a rail car, barge or vessel, except that if the seller is not the sign conspicuously posted at roadside or delivery is to a trucker-merchant, your chants or retailers, are "merchandisers

warehouseman and the expense he incurs or bears is less than 1 cent per bushel, he shall add to his maximum price the actual amount so incurred or borne.

(2) When any lot of rye is transferred from rail cars or barge through an elevator or warehouse to lake vessel, the elevation or handling charges actually incurred by the seller (but not exceeding the charges in effect December 6, 1943) may be added to his maximum price: Provided, That, if the rye is handled through an elevator or warehouse operated by the seller, he may add 1 cent per bushel.

(3) This paragraph (b) does not fix maximum prices which may be charged by warehouse-men for elevating or handling rye belonging to another person. The amount of such charges is determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) Inspection and weighing charges. (1) Where to complete a contract of sale official inspection or weighing of the rye is necessary, the cost thereof shall be borne by the seller.

(d) Sacks and sacking. (1) When rye is sold in sacks furnished by the seller, there may be added to the appropriate maximum price the reasonable market value of the sacks used (not exceeding any maximum price established thereon) plus a sacking charge of 3 cents per bushel.

(2) When rye is sold in sacks furnished by the buyer and the seller does the sacking, a sacking charge of 3 cents per bushel may be addded to the appropriate maximum price.

(3) These charges may be added to the appropriate maximum price for succeeding sales while the rye is sold in sacks.

(e) Carrying charges. (1) "Carrying charges" are the charges which a seller is permitted to add to the appropriate maximum price for rye where the buyer requests deferment of delivery of the rye beyond the free time allowed under the terms of the contract of sale. Carrying charges cover the cost of maintenance of condition and grade, financing, insurance and storage, and they involve the obligation on the part of the seller to make deferred delivery to the buyer, according to the grade, quality and quantity of rye purchased by the buyer, at any time the buyer may select, after the expiration of the free time.

(2) In addition to the appropriate maximum prices for rye, a carrying charge of 1/35 of a cent per bushel, per day, may be charged by the seller from the date of expiration of the free time, under the contract of sale, to the date selected by the buyer as the date on which shipment shall be made, or the date on which shipment or delivery is actually made, whichever is earlier: Provided, That, in all cases, the seller may have five days from the date of receipt of instructions within which to make shipment, and he may charge carrying charges accordingly.

(3) On any resale, the maximum price of the seller shall not be increased by any such carrying charge so added.

(4) This provision for the addition of carrying charges shall have no application to rye stored, or remaining, on the farm where grown.

(5) This paragraph (e) does not fix maximum prices which may be charged by warehousemen for storing rye belonging to another person. The amount of such charges is determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(f) Special services. Under certain special conditions persons performing several marketing functions may add to their maximum price merchandising markups for special services. These markups, and the conditions under which they may be added, are set forth in section 2.6 of this regulation.

ARTICLE VI—SALES ON CONTRACT FUTURES MARKETS

SEC. 6.1 Maximum prices for sales of rye on contract futures markets. The maximum price per bushel, bulk, for the sale of any rye on any futures market, designated as a contract market under the authority of the Commodity Exchange Act, whose rules provide for the delivery of such rye in store and for the subsequent resale and redelivery in store of the rye delivered on such futures contracts, shall be the base price determined under this regulation for the applicable terminal base point for the grade and quality stipulated in such futures contract, plus the amount provided in this regulation for one merchandising markup and one commission merchant's service charge. In connection with any limitation in this regulation on the total number or amount of markups or the total amount of service charges that may be included in a maximum price, the above maximum price shall be deemed to include one merchandising markup and one commission merchant's service charge.

For the purposes of accomplishing delivery of the actual rye on a futures market at such maximum price, the provisions of this section shall function as an exception to the rules provided in this regulation with respect to sales in store and no deduction need be made for the loading out charge, but when any rye delivered against a futures contract is loaded out, the person taking such delivery shall for the resale of such rye determine his maximum price under the provisions of this regulation regardless of the exception herein provided.

APPENDIX A

TABLE I

(a) Schedule of premiums and discounts over and under standard grade and quality. The base price of the standard grade and quality No. 2 rye with a test weight of 54 pounds and moisture content not over 14 percent shall be adjusted for other grades and qualities by the following premiums and discounts:

No. 3 plump	0

(2) Discounts—(a) For grades other than "standard" and for factors other than moisture. Base prices provided in section 3.2 shall be decreased for grades other than "standard" and for factors other than moisture as follows:

No. 3	1
No. 4	2
Sample grade (other than moisture)	4
Light smutty	1

(b) For moisture. Base prices provided in section 3.2 shall be decreased by 1 cent per bushel for each ½ percent or fraction thereof of moisture content over 14 percent.

NOTE: The foregoing discounts are cumulative. For example, rye 15 percent in moisture content, grading No. 4 Garlicky, will be subject to a discount of at least 2 cents per bushel for grading No. 4, plus a further discount of at least 3 cents for grading "Garlicky" plus a further discount of at least 2 cents for rye containing 1 percent moisture in excess of 14 percent.

warehouseman and the expense he incurs or bears is less than 1 cent per bushel, he shall add to his maximum price the actual amount so incurred or borne.

(2) When any lot of rye is transferred from rail cars or barge through an elevator or warehouse to lake vessel, the elevation or handling charges actually incurred by the seller (but not exceeding the charges in effect December 8, 1943) may be added to his maximum price: Provided, That, if the rye is handled through an elevator or warehouse operated by the seller, he may add 1 cent per bushel.

(3) This paragraph (b) does not fix maximum prices which may be charged by warehouse-men for elevating or handling rye belonging to another person. The amount of such charges is determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) Inspection and weighing charges. (1) Where to complete a contract of sale official inspection or weighing of the rye is necessary, the cost thereof shall be borne by the seller.

(d) Sacks and sacking. (1) When rye is sold in sacks furnished by the seller, there may be added to the appropriate maximum price the reasonable market value of the sacks used (not exceeding any maximum price established thereon) plus a sacking charge of 3 cents per bushel.

(2) When rye is sold in sacks furnished by the buyer and the seller does the sacking, a sacking charge of 3 cents per bushel may be addded to the appropriate maximum price.

(3) These charges may be added to the appropriate maximum price for succeeding sales while the rye is sold in sacks.

(e) Carrying charges. (1) "Carrying charges" are the charges which a seller is permitted to add to the appropriate maximum price for rye where the buyer requests deferment of delivery of the rye beyond the free time allowed under the terms of the contract of sale. Carrying charges cover the cost of maintenance of condition and grade, financing, insurance and storage, and they involve the obligation on the part of the seller to make deferred delivery to the buyer, according to the grade, quality and quantity of rye purchased by the buyer, at any time the buyer may select, after the expiration of the free time.

(2) In addition to the appropriate maximum prices for rye, a carrying charge of ⅛ of a cent per bushel, per day, may be charged by the seller from the date of expiration of the free time, under the contract of sale, to the date selected by the buyer as the date on which shipment shall be made, or the date on which shipment or delivery is actually made, whichever is earlier: Provided, That, in all cases, the seller may have five days from the date of receipt of instructions within which to make shipment, and he may charge carrying charges accordingly.

(3) On any resale, the maximum price of the seller shall not be increased by any such carrying charge so added.

(4) This provision for the addition of carrying charges shall have no application to rye stored, or remaining, on the farm where grown.

(5) This paragraph (e) does not fix maximum prices which may be charged by warehousemen for storing rye belonging to another person. The amount of such charges is determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(f) Special services. Under certain special conditions persons performing several marketing functions may add to their maximum price merchandising markups for special services. These markups, and the conditions under which they may be added, are set forth in section 2.6 of this regulation.

ARTICLE VI—SALES ON CONTRACT FUTURES MARKETS

SEC. 6.1 Maximum prices for sales of rye on contract futures markets. The maximum price per bushel, bulk, for the sale of any rye on any futures market, designated as a contract market under the authority of the Commodity Exchange Act, whose rules provide for the delivery of such rye in store and for the subsequent resale and redelivery in store of the rye delivered on such futures contracts, shall be the base price determined under this regulation for the applicable terminal base point for the grade and quality stipulated in such futures contract, plus the amount provided in this regulation for one merchandising markup and one commission merchant's service charge. In connection with any limitation in this regulation on the total number or amount of markups or the total amount of service charges that may be included in a maximum price, the above maximum price shall be deemed to include one merchandising markup and one commission merchant's service charge.

For the purposes of accomplishing delivery of the actual rye on a futures market at such maximum price, the provisions of this section shall function as an exception to the rules provided in this regulation with respect to sales in store and no deduction need be made for the loading out charge, but when any rye delivered against a futures contract is loaded out, the person taking such delivery shall for the resale of such rye determine his maximum price under the provisions of this regulation regardless of the exception herein provided.

PART 4004—PRICE STABILIZATION: MAXIMUM PRICES

The Price Administrator having submitted certain information, and having recommended that he, or any Regional Administrator, be authorized to increase maximum retail milk prices in communities having a population of 2,500 or less in those cases where there exists or threatens to exist an actual milk deficiency,

I hereby find that in order to maintain essential supplies of fluid milk in these communities, and in order to correct maladjustments and inequities which would interfere with the effective transition to a peacetime economy, the Price Administrator is authorized to adjust maximum retail milk prices in communities with populations of 2,500 or less under the following conditions:

1. That there exists or threatens to exist in such a community a serious deficiency in its essential fluid milk supply; and

2. Such serious deficiency will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the established maximum prices for fluid milk in such communities; and

3. The price increase will not result in a maximum price in such community which is more than 3 cents per quart above the maximum price on October 4, 1943; and

4. There is no feasible alternative to such price increase; and

5. The price increase will not create or tend to create a deficiency or a need for an increase in another community.

The Price Administrator may delegate the authority contained in this directive to Regional Administrators of the Office of Price Administration: Provided, That no adjustment under this authority may be made by a Regional Administrator without prior approval in writing by the National Administrator.

Nothing in this directive shall be construed to dispense with the requirement of approval by the Secretary of Agriculture in any case in which such approval is required by law.

CLINTON, IOWA, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON HANDLING OF MILK

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq., 10 F.R. 11791), notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, Clinton, Iowa, beginning at 10 a. m., c. s. t., December 6, 1945, with respect to proposed amendments to tentatively approved marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Clinton, Iowa, marketing area. These amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The amendments, which have been proposed by The Clinton Cooperative Milk Producers' Association, are set forth below.

1. Delete (1) and (2) of § 970.3 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk, skim milk, or cream disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and milk drinks, cream for consumption as cream (including any cream product in fluid form containing 6 percent or more butterfat), and all unaccounted-for milk in excess of 3 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk, skim milk, and cream used to produce evaporated milk, condensed milk, ice cream mix, cottage cheese, or any milk product other than those specified in Class I milk and Class III milk.

2. Delete § 970.3 (d) and substitute therefor the following:

(d) Transfers of milk and cream. (1) Milk, skim milk, and cream shall be classified as Class I milk when moved from the plant of a handler (i) to the plant of another handler who receives milk from producers: Provided, That if such milk, skim milk, or cream was utilized in a lower classification, such milk, skim milk, or cream shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator; (ii) to the plant of a handler who receives no milk from producers other than milk of his own production; and (iii) to the plant of a person, other than a handler, who distributes milk, skim milk, or cream in fluid form for consumption as such.

(2) Milk, skim milk, and cream received at the plant of a handler from sources other than producers or other handlers, except as provided in § 970.6 (c), shall be considered as utilized in Class III if the quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of in this class equals or exceeds the quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream from this source plus a quantity equal to actual plant shrinkage, not in excess of 3 percent. If the handler's Class III disposition does not equal these quantities, any portion of such milk, skim milk, and cream not thus utilized in Class III shall be considered as utilized in Class II.

(3) Milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of by a handler to the plant of a person, other than a handler, who does not distribute milk, skim milk, or cream for consumption in fluid form shall be classified in accordance with its utilization, subject to verification by the market administrator.

3. Delete § 970.3 (e) (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class I as follows (i) convert to pounds the total quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of in each of the several products of Class I; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; and (iii) if the quantity of milk so computed when added to the pounds of Class II milk and Class III milk computed pursuant to (5) (ii) and (7) (iv) of this paragraph is less than the total pounds of milk received in accordance with (1) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be added to the sum obtained in (ii) of this sub-paragraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class I as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class I by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; and (iii) if the quantity of butterfat so computed, when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II and Class III computed pursuant to (6) (ii) and (8) (iv) of this paragraph is less than the total pounds of butterfat received in accordance with (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be added to the sum obtained in (ii) of this sub-paragraph.

(5) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class II as follows: (1) compute the total pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream which were used to produce each of the several products of Class II; and (ii) add together the resulting amounts.

(8) Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class III as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) subtract the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (4) (ii) and (6) (ii) of this paragraph and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (ii) of this sub-paragraph from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity, up to 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers, shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purpose of this paragraph; and (iv) add together the result obtained in (ii) of this sub-paragraph and the amount of plant shrinkage allowed pursuant to (iii) of this sub-paragraph.

(9) Determine the classification of milk of producers as follows: (i) subtract from the pounds of milk in each class the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream received from other handlers and allocated to each class in accordance with (d) of this section; (ii) subtract from the remaining pounds of milk in Class III the total pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream, except emergency milk, received from sources other than producers' own farm production, and other handlers: Provided, That if the quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream, so received, is greater than the remaining quantity of Class III milk of such handler, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the remaining pounds of Class II milk: And provided further, That if the quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream, so received, is greater than the remaining quantity of Class II milk of such handler, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the remaining pounds of Class I milk; (iii) subtract pro rata from the remaining pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from the handlers' own farm production and emergency milk; (iv) if the remaining quantity of milk is greater than, or contains a greater quantity of butterfat than the handler reported having received from producers, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted pro rata from the remaining pounds of milk or butterfat in each class; and (v) the result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class.

4. Renumber § 970.4 (a) (2) to read § 970.4 (a) (3) and change the words "For Class II milk," in the first line thereof to read "For Class III milk,".

5. Add a new § 970.4 (a) (2) to read as follows:

(2) For Class II milk, the price shall be the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the period beginning with the 16th day of the previous month and ending with the 15th day of the then current month at the plants listed in (1) of this paragraph.

6. Amend § 970.4 (b) to provide for butterfat differentials to handlers for each one-tenth of one percent above or below 3.5 percent milk as follows:

Class I. Chicago 92-score butter plus 40 percent divided by 10.

Class II. Chicago 92-score butter plus 25 percent divided by 10.

Class III. Chicago 92-score butter minus 8 cents, plus 20 percent divided by 10.

7. Delete § 970.5 (c) and add as § 970.5 (a) (1) (viii) the following:

(viii) His producer payroll, which shall show for each producer the total receipts of milk with the average butterfat test thereof, the amount of the advance payment to such producer made pursuant to § 970.8 (b), and the deductions and charges made by the handler.

8. Amend § 970.7 by adding another paragraph which will provide for the subtraction for each of the delivery periods of May and June an amount representing 20 cents per hundredweight of milk received from producers by handlers whose values are included under (b) (1) of this section.

9. Amend § 970.8 by adding another paragraph which will provide for the payment to producers one-third of the amount withheld under amendment No. 8 during each of the delivery periods of September, October, and November.

10. Amend § 970.8 to provide for the payment of milk to each producer by the market administrator rather than by individual handlers.

11. Make such other changes as are necessary to bring the remaining sections into conformity with the amendments as proposed above.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles, which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices, shall determine their maximum resale prices, as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall determine his maximum resale price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration. However, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for on OPA Form 620-759, with regard to how he determines his maximum resale price, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his maximum resale price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum resale price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Maximum resale prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 30th day of November 1945.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

[MPR 188, Rev. Order 1 Under 159e]

HOUSEHOLD ALUMINUM COOKING UTENSILS

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, it is ordered:

SECTION 1. Purpose of this order. Household aluminum cooking utensils have been found to be a reconversion product in accordance with the standards set forth in § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. This order, issued under that section, specifies a price increase factor for the product and contains the specific pricing provisions which manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers are to follow in calculating their ceiling prices for sales of the product.

SEC. 2. What this order covers. This order applies to all sales of "household aluminum cooking utensils".

As used in this order the term "household aluminum cooking utensils" means all utensils made wholly or substantially of aluminum or aluminum alloys for household use, such as but not limited to, pots, pans, skillets, pressure cookers, dutch ovens, coffee pots, jelly molds, muffin pans, measuring cups, spoons, funnels, slicers, strainers, clothes sprinklers, soap dishes and sink strainers.

Articles such as electric appliances, chairs, stools, vegetable bins, clothes hampers and cocktail shakers are not household aluminum cooking utensils.

SEC. 3. Manufacturers' ceiling prices—(a) Sales to retailers and wholesalers. A manufacturers' ceiling price for the sale of a household aluminum cooking utensil to each class of purchaser for resale is the highest price of the following:

(1) His f. o. b. factory price to the particular class of purchaser, in effect on January 1, 1941, plus 10% of each such price in the case of sheetware, or plus 3% of each such price in the case of castware.

(2) His f. o. b. factory ceiling price to the particular class of purchaser established for particular articles in accordance with the provisions of the first, second, third, or fourth pricing methods of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, plus 10% of each such price in the case of sheetware, or plus 3% of each such price in the case of castware.

(3) His price to the particular class of purchaser as established by Order 3827 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

Regardless of any higher price determined in this way, a manufacturer's ceiling price for sales to a retailer, other than a chain store or mail order house, shall be at least 30% less than the retailer's ceiling price fixed by this order.

(b) Sales to ultimate consumers. A manufacturer's ceiling price for the sale of a household aluminum cooking utensil to an ultimate consumer is the highest price of the following:

(1) His ceiling price for sales to an ultimate consumer in effect on January 1, 1941.

(2) His ceiling price for sales to an ultimate consumer established for particular articles in accordance with the provisions of the first, second, third, or fourth pricing methods of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(3) His price to the particular class of purchaser as established by Order 3827 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(c) Terms. A manufacturer's ceiling price fixed by this section is subject to his customary terms, conditions and allowances to each class of purchaser.

SEC. 4. Wholesalers' ceiling prices. A wholesaler's ceiling price for sales of a household aluminum cooking utensil to a retailer is 30% less than the retail ceiling price of the article fixed by this order for sales by retailers other than chain stores or mail order houses. This ceiling price is for sales in the smallest quantity and is subject to the seller's customary terms, discounts and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser.

SEC. 5. Retailers' ceiling prices. Manufacturers are required to calculate the retail ceiling prices of all household aluminum cooking utensils according to the provisions of this section. The manufacturer must also comply with the tagging provisions set forth in section 6 of this order.

(a) Retail ceiling prices for retailers other than "Class I" sellers. The retail ceiling price for a household aluminum cooking utensil sold by a retailer other than a Class I seller (as defined below) shall be determined by adding to the "manufacturer's price" an amount equal to 100% of such price in the case of both sheetware and castware.

For the purposes of this section, the "manufacturer's price" is the highest of the following f. o. b. factory prices for sales of the article to the class of wholesaler or chain store to whom he sells articles covered by this order in largest dollar volume:

(1) The price in effect on January 1, 1941.

(2) The price established in accordance with the first, second, third, or fourth pricing methods of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 (§§ 1499.155 through 1499.158).

(3) The price established by Order No. 3827 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(b) Retail ceiling prices for Class I sellers. The retail ceiling price for a household aluminum cooking utensil sold by a Class I seller shall be 10% less than the price determined in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (a) for sales by other retailers. However, the retail ceiling price for a sale by a mail order house of an article which it sold during 1941 shall be the last catalog price in effect prior to March 31, 1942.

For the purposes of this order a "Class I" seller is a "chain store" and/or "mail order house". A "chain store" is a store which is one of a group of ten or more retail stores under common ownership or control which as a group had combined sales of over $1,000,000 for the year 1944. A "mail order house" is an establishment selling at retail which, as a separate operating unit, makes offerings through catalogs or printed price lists, receives orders by mail, and makes deliveries by mail, railway, express or other common carrier.

(c) Zone differentials. The retail ceiling prices computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) above are for retail sales in Zone I.

The retail ceiling price for sales of an article in Zone II is the retail ceiling price of the article in Zone I increased by 5%.

For the purpose of this order:

"Zone I" is that area of the following two in which a household aluminum cooking utensil is manufactured. The other area is "Zone II".

One area consists of the States of Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, and the following counties of Texas: El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Terrell, Pecos and Reeves.

The other area consists of the remaining counties of Texas, all the other States and the District of Columbia.

(d) Alternative retail ceiling prices—(1) Who may apply. The Office of Price Administration may, upon application by a manufacturer, establish ceiling prices for retail sales other than those determined in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section whenever it appears that:

(i) The article was sold at retail at substantially uniform prices prior to April 1, 1942.

(ii) The article is identified by a brand or company name.

(iii) The price requested for the article is no higher than the level of retail ceiling prices for that article, prevailing during March 1942.

An order may be issued under this section establishing uniform ceiling prices for all retail sales of an article which shall apply in place of the retail ceiling price that would otherwise have been determined under this section. Except as may be provided by such an order, all other provisions of this order remain in effect.

(2) What the application must contain. A manufacturer requesting establishment of uniform ceiling prices under this paragraph (d) must file an application with the Office of Price Administration, Consumer Goods Price Division, Washington 25, D. C. In the application the manufacturer shall state the following:

(i) His business name and address.

(ii) A complete identification of the article for which the ceiling price is sought including:

(a) Identification of the article and its brand name, style, model or lot number.

(b) His own ceiling prices to all classes of purchasers.

(c) His selling prices and terms to wholesalers and retailers.

(d) His suggested retail price prior to April 1, 1942.

(e) A list of the names and addresses of his retail and wholesale customers to whom he delivered the article prior to April 1, 1942, in substantial quantities.

(3) The uniform retail ceiling price which he requests for the article. Different prices may be proposed for sales in different areas.

SEC. 6. Tagging. (a) No manufacturer may, on and after January 1, 1946, ship to any purchaser any household aluminum cooking utensil for which the retail ceiling price is fixed by this order unless it is tagged, labelled, or stamped with its retail ceiling price for sales by retailers, other than Class I sellers, in the zone in which it is manufactured.

However, the manufacturer need not comply with this tagging requirement with respect to: articles for which the retail ceiling price in the zone in which it is manufactured is $.30 or less; articles sold by the manufacturer to ultimate consumers; articles shipped to Class I sellers who are both chain stores and mail order houses; articles which are distributed to ultimate consumers as premiums; or articles shipped for export.

A tag, label or stamp in the following form shall be used (with the blank properly filled in):

OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$------
Plus 5% in Zone II
Except Class I Sellers

When a tag or label is used the words "Do Not Detach", shall also be imprinted.

(b) No person may on and after January 1, 1946 display, offer for sale, sell or deliver at retail a household aluminum cooking utensil which the manufacturer is required to tag with the retail ceiling price unless it is tagged, labelled or stamped with the retail ceiling price fixed by this order, in the manner provided above.

Purchasers for resale, other than by mail order, who have received "untagged" articles which must be tagged with the retail ceiling price, must tag them with the retail ceiling price before they are displayed, offered for sale, sold or delivered at retail. However, persons who are both chain stores and mail order houses must tag all articles which they sell, other than by mail order, except those for which their retail ceiling price is $.30 or less. Articles sold by mail order houses are not required to be tagged if a price no higher than the retail ceiling price is published in the seller's catalog or current price list.

SEC. 7. General provisions—(a) Terms, discounts and allowances. Except as modified by the requirement set forth above that no ceiling price to a retailer may reduce the retailer's margin on the retail ceiling price below 30% of that price, every seller shall maintain all of his terms, discounts, allowances and other price differentials in effect on January 1, 1941, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(b) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, each seller shall notify the purchaser of the States in each zone as specified by this order and the retail ceiling prices of all articles which the manufacturer is not required to tag with the retail ceiling price. Manufacturers shall notify purchasers for resale at wholesale of all ceiling prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser.

(c) Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions contained in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation and § 1499.163 of Maximum Price Regulation 188, whichever is applicable, shall apply to terms used in this order.

(d) Relation between this order and the General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulation 188. The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and of Maximum Price Regulation 188, with respect to sales and deliveries for which ceiling prices are established by this order, only to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of those regulations.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This revised order shall become effective on the 30th day of November 1945.

Administrator.

No member of the said board shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier.

The board shall report its findings to the President with respect to the said dispute within thirty days from the date of this order.

As provided by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, from this date and for thirty days after the board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the Texas & New Orleans Railway Company and Hospital Association of the Southern Pacific Lines in Texas and Louisiana or their employees in the conditions out of which the said dispute arose.

This action which lessens the requirements of the regulations will not lessen the protection to uninfested areas. This modification is believed safe because intensive inspections over a number of years have shown that infestations do not occur during the early part of the harvesting and shipping season.

§ 301.64-3a Administrative instructions lifting permit requirements for interstate movement of citrus fruits until further notice. Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in the proviso of § 301.64-3 (a) of Notice of Quarantine No. 64 on account of the Mexican fruitfly, he has determined that natural conditions exist with

MACARONI PRODUCTS AND NOODLE PRODUCTS

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 9 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 9. Individual adjustment of processor's maximum prices—(a) When adjustments may be made. Either upon application in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, or on his own motion, the Price Administrator may adjust a processor's maximum price for macaroni products and noodle products established under this Regulation, when it appears that:

(1) The maximum price is below the median price at which sales of macaroni products and noodle products are made by processors of identical or similar commodities;

(2) The processor would be entitled to a maximum price increase under the standards set forth in paragraph (b) below; and

(3) In the judgment of the Price Administrator, an increase in the processor's maximum price would be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended (the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended), and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328 and 9599.

(b) Amount of adjustment. The maximum price, as adjusted under this section, shall in no event be higher than the median price at which sales of macaroni products and noodle products are made by processors of identical or similar commodities. Subject to the above limitation, the adjusted maximum price shall not exceed the following amount:

(1) Processing costs and direct delivery costs (if the processor's maximum price is a delivered price) for macaroni products and noodle products, if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of macaroni and noodle products, during the most recent fiscal period, was 4 percent or higher; or

(2) Total costs for macaroni products and noodle products, if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of macaroni and noodle products plus a profit equal to 2 percent of the adjusted maximum price, if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of macaroni and noodle products, during the most recent fiscal period, was lower than 2 percent.

In determining adjustments under this section changes in prices resulting from the granting of prior adjustments under this section shall, so far as practicable, be disregarded.

(c) Definitions. When used in this section the term:

(1) "Net sales" means total sales less return sales of finished product.

(2) "Processing costs" means:

(i) Actual cost per unit, delivered to the plant, of all ingredients and packaging materials for which maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than the current maximum prices applying to the class of purchasers to which the processor belongs, or, if no maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than their current market prices;

(ii) Direct labor cost per unit figured at no more than lawful current rates;

(iii) Other costs of processing per unit, such as indirect labor (figured at no more than lawful current rates), depreciation, factory rental, insurance, machinery repairs, and other cost factors generally pertaining to processing operations, but not including general administrative and selling expenses.

(3) "Direct delivery costs" means actual cost of delivering the product to the purchaser or to any point other than the seller's shipping point, where such cost is borne by the processor, including commissions paid to route drivers as part of their wages, but not including other selling expenses or commissions paid to sales people who do not make deliveries.

(4) "Total costs" means processing costs, direct delivery expense and general administrative and selling expenses per unit.

(5) "Median price" means the middle price of a series of prices arranged in order of size or, if the series consists of an even number of prices, the simple arithmetic average of the two middle prices.

(d) Form and place of filing application. Applications for adjustment under this section shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in duplicate, on Office of Price Administration Form No. 6031-2555, and shall contain the information specified in the form with the following qualification: In Part II under Item E include only actual cost of delivery, including gasoline, oil, repairs and depreciation of trucks, wages of route drivers, and commissions paid to drivers where such payment represents a portion of the drivers' wages; do not include supervisory salaries or wages.

Where price adjustment is sought for more than one type of product, type of Copies of Form 6031–255c may be obtained from any field office of the Office of Price Administration or from the Grocery Products Section, Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

This amendment shall become effective December 8, 1945.

PART 1379—SMALL ARMS AND PARTS

[MPR 254, Amdt. 4]

NEW SMALL FIREARMS AND PARTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 254 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1379.4a (e) is redesignated § 1379.4a (f).

2. A new § 1379.4a (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this section, the Office of Price Administration may by order establish maximum prices for any retail seller of private brand shotguns and rifles which will reflect the mark-ups over cost which he realized on May 29, 1941 for the same or most closely comparable firearm less the amount of absorption of permitted increases in costs required of other retail sellers by this section.

3. A new § 1379.4b is added to read as follows:

§ 1379.4b Maximum prices of revolvers and pistols on and after December 8, 1945. (a) The purpose of this section is to provide for the adjustment in the maximum prices for manufacturers, distributors and retailers of revolvers and pistols.

(b) Adjustment of prices appearing in the manufacturer's price list. (1) Each manufacturer who recalculates his maximum prices under this section for revolvers or pistols which appeared in his price list in effect on January 10, 1942, or for which an order was issued fixing a maximum price under § 1379.4, shall prepare price lists for his sales, for sales by distributors, and for sales by retailers based on the increases specified in the next subparagraph. The maximum prices so calculated shall be the manufacturer's, the distributors' and the retailers' maximum prices.

(2) Manufacturers' maximum prices to distributors, distributors' maximum prices to retailers, and retailers' maximum prices to consumers in effect on January 10, 1942, or fixed by an Order of the Office of Price Administration under § 1397.4 of this regulation may be increased by 9% of each such price in the case of all revolvers and pistols delivered by the manufacturer on and after December 8, 1945. In the case of a January 10, 1942 price which was inclusive of tax, the 9% shall be added to that price and the resulting price is also inclusive of the Federal excise tax. In the case of a January 10, 1942 price or a price established under § 1379.4 which did not include the Federal excise tax, the 9% shall be added to the price exclusive of the tax and the amount of the Federal excise tax paid by the manufacturer may also be collected by the manufacturer and distributor and shall be included in the retailer's ceiling price.

(c) Notification. The manufacturer shall, at the time of, or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, furnish the purchaser with a price list containing the maximum prices for resales by distributors and retailers. Such lists shall be accompanied by the following statement:

The prices in the enclosed price list are your maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 254, including the increases permitted under Amendment 4, effective December 8, 1945. You may not charge more than these prices for any firearms listed.

(d) Tagging. Every seller to a purchaser for resale shall provide with each revolver or pistol sold or delivered at an increased price permitted by this section, a tag or label stating the make or brand name, the model number and the retail ceiling price, inclusive of the Federal excise tax, established by this section. No person may sell or deliver any revolver or pistol at retail unless such a tax is affixed to it. A tag or label in the following form (with the blanks properly filled in) is satisfactory:

Make or brand_____
Model number_____
OPA retail price_____
(including Federal excise tax)

This amendment shall become effective December 8, 1945.

Issued this 3d day of December 1945.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[2d Rev. MPR 19,[1] Amdt. 14]

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 2 paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. What transactions are covered. (a) This regulation covers, under the name of "sales for direct-mill shipment" all sales of Southern pine lumber, no matter who the seller is, and regardless of the quantity involved, except the following:

(1) Sales of Southern pine lumber which is part of the regular stock of a distribution yard at the time the sale is made. Such sales are subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215.

(2) Sales of rough Southern pine lumber produced by "small mills" as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 19 A are subject to Maximum Price Regulation 19 A—Log-Run Southern Pine Lumber.

Any sawmill subject to this regulation, which sells its lumber rough, may, on application to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., be granted permission to price all its sales of Southern pine lumber under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 19 A.

2. In section 2, paragraph (c) is deleted.

3. In section 5, paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) are amended to read:

(c) Shortleaf Southern pine lumber produced in Virginia. For shortleaf Southern pine lumber produced and sold by mills located in the State of Virginia add $2.50 per M'BM to the f. o. b. mill prices set forth in Article IV, exeept that no addition may be made to the prices in Tables 3A, 9, 9A, 9B, 10, 12 and O. G. Batts in Table 4. This addition shall not be made, however, for the purpose of computing maximum prices under Second Revised Maximum Regulation 215[2] Distribution Yard Sales of Softwood, except by yards located in Virginia.

[2] 9 F.R. 12271, 7054; 10 F.R. 8747.

(d) Combination grades. (1) Lumber sold in a combination of grades may not be sold above the maximum price for the lowest priced grade actually named in the combination except as noted below in subparagraph (2) for the grade "No. 2 Common and Better". For example, the maximum price for lumber sold as No. 1 Common and Better is the maximum price fixed for No. 1 Common lumber. But it is permissible to sell a combination of grades where the exact quantity of each grade shipped is separately shown on the invoice and segregated in the car by strips (except timbers) or otherwise made easily identifiable to the purchaser and separately tallied (tally card to be included in the car), in which case the appropriate ceiling price for the quantity of each grade shipped may be charged.

(2) Any mill may sell rough or dressed, dry or green Southern pine lumber on a combination grade of No. 2 Common and better containing up to 15% of No. 3 Common at not more than the prices established in Tables 1, 2, 14 and 15 for No. 2 Common. This combination grade must contain all of the upper grades which are the product of the log and no mill electing to sell on this combination grade may sell any lumber in sizes covered by Tables 1, 2, 14 or 15 at prices in excess of the No. 2 Common prices in those tables during the period for which it is authorized to sell on the combination grade. It may, however, during this period sell grades lower than No. 2 Common at the grade prices specified in those tables.

Any mill electing to sell on the combination grade No. 2 Common and better must apply for authorization to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. to obtain an authorization number which must thereafter appear on all of its invoices for all its sales of Southern pine lumber. Any mill granted authorization to sell on this combination grade of No. 2 Common and better must give notice of at least ninety days to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, before it may return to the practice of selling on the regular grades.

The Lumber Branch shall deny the privilege of returning to the practice of selling upon the regular grades unless evidence is presented (i) that the mill has inspectors who are qualified to grade, (ii) that the operation is so set up that a good grading job can be done, and (iii) that the return to the practice of selling on grade is not for the purpose of selling an accumulation of upper grades withheld from combination grade sales in the past.

(e) Inspection certificates required on sales of certain grades. Any shipment of Southern pine lumber, priced in Tables 1, 2, 3A, 4, 7, 14, 15, 16A, 17, or 21 which does not bear the grade mark of a qualified inspection agency, as provided in Federal Specification MM–L–751C (May 20, 1942), must either be accompanied by a certificate of inspection by an inspection agency, which has been accepted as satisfactory by any Federal purchasing organization, or be inspected by an inspector from the Federal organization making the purchase if the shipment contains either (1) 30% No. 1 Common and higher grades, or (2) 15% C and higher grades, or (3) 10% B and Better. The certificate of inspection must cover all lumber in the shipment. In the absence of such a certificate, where the lumber is not grade marked as specified above, lumber invoiced as No. 1 Common and higher grades in any such shipment may not be sold at prices higher than the prices provided in such tables for No. 2 Common.

Federal Standard Stock Catalog, Section IV, (Part 5) "Federal Specification For Lumber and Timber; Softwood", MM–L–751c, reads in part as follows:

E. Detail requirements. E–1. Softwood lumber shall conform to the grading rules of the various lumber associations in effect at the date of invitation for bids where such grading rules are approved by the Central Committee on Lumber Standards as in conformance with "American Lumber Standards". • • •

F. Method of inspection. F–1. A Federal organization buying softwood lumber shall either require the firm or individual furnishing the lumber to meet the provisions of one of the following three methods of inspection procedure or may leave to the firm or individual furnishing the lumber the choice of any one of the three methods:

(1) The order may specify that each piece of lumber in the shipment must be grade-marked and also marked with the registered trade-mark of either the association or bureau of the association under whose rules it is graded or of another inspection agency satisfactory to the Federal organization making the purchase.

(2) The order may specify that the shipment must be accompanied by a certificate of inspection issued either by the association or bureau of the association under whose rules it is graded or by another inspection agency satisfactory to the Federal organization making the purchase.

(3) The order may specify that inspection will be made by an inspector from the Federal organization making the purchase.

(f) Tally card requirement: Every mill selling any Southern Pine lumber for direct-mill shipment shall post within the freight car, truck, or other means of transport, a tally card showing the point of origin of the shipment and a complete description of the lumber contained in the shipment including the species, condition, working and the number of pieces of each grade, size and length.

4. In section 7, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) An addition of $6.00 per M'BM may be made by a mill or concentration yard on a sale of 5,000 board feet or less for use within a radius of 25 miles from the seller's establishment to any consumer or buyer (except a box or container manufacturer) who does not purchase for resale, when a shipment originates at a mill. On such sales no additions may be made for delivery and no direct-mill distributor's mark-up may be added.

5. In section 8, paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Private truck: When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the following amounts may be added for transportation: For distances up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M'BM, over 10 miles and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M'BM and over 20 miles and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M'BM. Where the distance is greater than 30 miles, the seller may charge the amount of the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul or the common or contract motor carrier charge for the most similar haul, or $3.00 per M'BM, whichever is greater. Common or contract motor carrier charge may be used only where there is a specific common carrier rate for lumber or where the contract rate is the minimum rate filed by the carrier or published. Distance, as used in this paragraph, means the distance from the mill to the point of destination as measured by the speedometer. No addition may be made for the return trip.

6. Section 9 is amended as follows:

a. The heading is amended to read:

SEC. 9. Grade-marking, anti-stain, staking and bulkheading open top cars, and sling-lot loading.

b. Paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Additions for grade marking. An addition of $1.00 per M'BM may be charged for lumber that bears the grade mark of an inspection agency qualified in accordance with "Federal Specification for Lumber and Timber: Softwood", MM-L-751c (May 20, 1942), except lumber priced in Tables 10 and 23 (Standard Plastering Lath and Fence Lath); and Tables 12 and 24 (Bed Slats).

c. A new paragraph (d) is added as follows:

(d) Where in addition to open car loading the buyer requires packaging in sling loads or otherwise whereby the load is divided into individual parcels for the purpose of facilitating mechanical unloading, an additional charge may be made of $6.50 per car which includes the cost of all materials used in packaging.

7. Section 11 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Pricing rules. (a) Each order or confirmation thereof must clearly describe the items required. Where the order or confirmation fails to specify the grade required, the seller may only charge for No. 2 Common, unless otherwise specifically agreed prior to shipment, except that grades lower than No. 2 Common must be invoiced at the prices in the tables for such lower grades.

(b) No additions contained in the footnotes to Tables in Articles IV and V, or in the body of the regulation, or approved under section 22 may be charged unless the order or confirmation expressly requires the working, grade, condition, service, treatment, specification, size or length for which the addition is permitted. When a sale on Government contracts is based on OCE specification No. 105 dated May 30, 1944, or as thereafter revised, any grade, size or other specification mentioned in such specification will be considered expressly required by the order within the meaning of this paragraph.

(c) When a specific item or items are ordered and a higher priced item or items are shipped without permission of the buyer prior to shipment the maximum prices which may be charged for the item or items shipped are the prices for the item or items shown in the written order.

(d) Where the order does not specify that longleaf may be shipped, the seller may only charge shortleaf prices.

(e) Where moisture content requirements are waived by the purchaser the maximum price for the whole order, shipment or delivery shall be the price herein established for green lumber. However, if the waiver applies to a specified part of the order, green lumber prices shall apply only to such part. For example, if a buyer orders 100,000 feet BM of Southern pine and the order specifies 60,000 feet dry lumber and 40,000 feet MCW, the green lumber prices apply only to the 40,000 feet. In any event, where a "moisture content waived" sale is made on a delivered basis, the seller may only use the given estimated weights for dry lumber in computing transportation costs.

8. Section 12 is deleted.

9. In section 13, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Price. An invoice must be submitted by the seller in all sales and must contain a sufficiently complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not. Any working, specification, or extra which affects the maximum f. o. b. mill or delivered prices must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for these does not have to be separately shown.

When an invoice does not contain a complete description of an item shipped and when a seller fails to furnish a complete description within twenty days of receipt of invoice by the buyer the maximum price which may be charged or paid for that item is that of the lowest priced item to which the incomplete description could be applied.

10. In section 14, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Specific practices. The following are some of the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit or cash discount practices from what they were in August 1941. This includes decreasing credit periods or making greater charges for extension of credit.

(2) Refusing to ship except in higher grades or under other circumstances which bring the seller an extra return.

(3) Grading as a special grade lumber which can be graded as a standard grade; or wrongly or falsely grading or invoicing lumber.

(4) Making additions for special specifications, services, or other extras which are not specifically permitted.

(5) Failing to invoice properly and in accordance with the requirements of this regulation.

(6) Unnecessarily routing lumber through a distribution yard.

(7) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(8) Getting a higher price by charging the buyer for ripping, resawing or cross-cutting or charging on the basis of the original size larger than the item actually delivered, except where items ordered and delivered are not priced under the table and footnotes. This prohibition has no application where the buyer specified the larger size to be ripped or resawn into items of smaller sizes at a total price not higher than the price for the resultant item shown in the table.

(9) Breaking up an order or apportioning deliveries in order to get the direct-mill retail sale addition.

(10) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want; for example, making a buyer who orders No. 2 Common take all the upper grades that develop.

11. In Article IV, Appendix A, Table 1, the table and footnotes are amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV—APPENDIX A: SHORT LEAF SHORT LEAF YELLOW PINE LUMBER

The maximum prices for Short Leaf Yellow pine lumber, in straight or mixed carlots, f. o. b. mill, per one thousand feet board measure, shall be as follows:

[1] Edge widths are random widths including odd, even or fractional widths. Measurement shall be according to paragraph 136, S. P. I. B. rules.

Additions and Deductions per 1,000 feet Board Measure: (See sections 11 and 14).

For working:

1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. End-matching, add $2.00.
3. For any other matcher dressing not otherwise provided for (except V-Joint, ECB1S or ECB2S), add $2.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
4. Ripping, add $1.00 for each cut; resawing, add $2.00 for each cut, both applicable only where machine run product is shipped.

For grade:

5. For grade-marking in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 (a), add $1.00 per M'BM.
6. For Combination Grade No. 2 Common and Better as defined in Section 5 (d), use No. 2 Common prices.

For condition:

7. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
8. Green, Deduct $3.50.

For lengths:

9. For precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than 1/4" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
10. For any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M'BM for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 9 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M'BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot compute footage on exact length, otherwise compute on 6" breaks on the next break above.

For size:

11. Thin stock graded after complete working: For stock dressed 1 side, any edge working thinner than 3/4" down to and including 7/16" when the finished product is graded after complete working, deduct $1.00 per M from the 3/4" price for each 1/32" thinner than 3/4".
12. Thin stock sold on the basis of resawn product of thickness required for its production.

Stock dressed 1 side, any edge working thinner than 3/4" where the finished product is not graded after complete working shall be sold as the resawn product of the thickness required, with resawing addition as follows:

- 3/8" as product of 4/4" plus extra standard addition.
- 7/16" as product of 5/4"
- 1/2" as product of 5/4" plus extra standard addition.
- 9/16" as product of 6/4"
- 5/8" as product of 6/4" plus extra standard addition.

11/16" may not be sold as the resawn product but must be sold on a graded basis under footnote 11.

13. For dressing 5/4" and 6/4" S2S, S3S, S4S, S2S and matched or S2S Shiplap to extra standard thickness 1/16" or more thicker than American Lumber Standards, add $1.00 per M'BM where stock is dressed clean (or with slight skip as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber when specifically permitted by such rules for the grade shipped). Where 4/4" stock is ordered dressed 1/16" or more thicker than American Lumber Standards and to be resawn by the producer, add $1.00 per M'BM where stock is dressed clean (or with slight skip as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber when specifically permitted by such rules for the grade shipped), and the $2.00 resawing addition permitted in footnote 4.
14. 13" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and compute footage on nominal size.

Additions and deductions per 1,000 Feet Board Measure: (See sections 11 and 14.)

For Working:
1. Rough, deduct $4.50.
2. End-matching, add $2.00.
3. Any other matcher dressing not otherwise provided for (except V-Joint, EC B1S or EC B2S), add $2.00. Patterns requiring moulder work, add $6.50.
4. Ripping, add $1.00 for each cut; resawing, add $2.00 for each cut, both applicable only when machine run product is shipped.

For Grade:
5. Grade-marking in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a), add $1.00 per per M'BM.

For Grade:
6. No. 1 Common 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, add $20.00.
7. No. 2 Common 85 or 90% Heart Facial Area, add $12.00.
8. Combination grade No. 2 Common and Better as defined in section 5 (d), use No. 2 Common prices.

For Condition:
9. Kiln dried, add $1.00.
10. Green, deduct $3.50.

For Lengths:
11. Precision cutting to a specified exact length, with tolerance of not more than ¼" allowed, add $1.50. No addition is permitted for customary double end trimming.
12. Any length shorter than 4', cut to a specified exact length, charge the price of the nearest even multiple length up to 12'. If there is no even multiple length 12' or shorter, charge 12' price. In either case, add $1.50 per M'BM for each necessary cross cut, but the addition for precision cutting permitted in footnote 11 may not also be charged, and no total charge for such service may be greater than $6.00 per M'BM. If length breaks on even one-half foot, compute footage on actual length, otherwise compute on six inch breaks on the next break above.

For Size:
13. Thin stock graded after complete working:
For stock dressed 1 side, any edge working thinner than ¾" down to and including 7/16" when the finished product is graded after complete working, deduct $1.00 per M from the ¾" price for each 1/32" thinner than ¾".
14. Thin stock sold on the basis of resawn product of thickness required for its production.
Stock dressed 1 size, any edge working thinner than ¾" where the finished product is not graded after complete working shall be sold as the resawn products of the thickness required, with resawing addition as follows:
- 3/8" as product of 4/4" plus extra standard addition.
- 7/16" as product of 5/4".
- ½" as product of 5/4" plus extra standard addition.
- 9/16" as product of 6/4".
- 5/8" as product of 6/4" plus extra standard addition.
- 11/16" may not be sold as the resawn product but must be sold on a graded basis under footnote 13.

15. Dressing 5/4" and 6/4" S2S, S3S, S4S, S2S and matched or S2S Shiplap to extra standard thickness 1/16" or more thicker than American Lumber Standards, add $1.00 per M'BM where stock is dressed clean (or with slight skip as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber when specifically permitted by such rules for the grade shipped). Where 4/4" stock is ordered dressed 1/16" or more thicker than American Lumber Standards and to be resawn by the producer, add $1.00 per M'BM where stock is dressed clean (or with slight skip as defined in paragraph 48 of 1939 Standard Specifications for Southern Pine Lumber when specifically permitted by such rules for the grade shipped) and the $2.00 resawing addition permitted in footnote 4.
10. 13" and wider, add $2.50 per inch or fraction thereof to 12" price and compute footage on nominal size.

For Length:
16. Lengths longer than 24', add to 24' price as follows (for all grades):

Length:
32'	10.00

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[RMPR 19A]

LOG-RUN SOUTHERN PINE LUMBER

Maximum Price Regulation No. 19A is redesignated Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19A and is revised and amended to read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328 and 9599. The standards and specifications used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the Southern pine lumber industry. Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

§ 1381.104 Maximum prices for log-run Southern Pine Lumber. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328 and 9599, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 19A (Log-Run Southern Pine Lumber), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued

Sec.

1. What are "small mills" covered by this regulation.
2. What lumber and sales this regulation covers.
3. Maximum prices.
4. Sales of timbers and car material on "authorized buyer's inspection."
5. Resales of "small mill" lumber.
6. Delivery.
7. Special permission to price on grade.
8. Enforcement.
9. Records.
10. Prohibited practices.
11. Revocation of authorizations previously granted under Section 10 of MPR 19A.

AUTHORITY: § 1381.104 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

SECTION 1. What are "small mills" covered by this regulation. Small mills covered by this regulation are sawmills which sell their lumber rough and which cut 4,000,000 feet or less of lumber of any species in 1944. Any mill which cuts an average of less than 15,000 board feet per day and sells its lumber rough also falls within this class and is covered by the regulation.

On the other hand, sawmills which use a planer and sell their lumber dressed are not "small mills" covered by this regulation, no matter what the amount of lumber they produce. Such mills are subject to the provisions of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 on all their sales. They may not sell under any of the provisions of this regulation, such as those permitting sales on buyer's inspection. Insofar as such mills make sales of lumber which they cannot or do not grade, such sales are covered by the "combination grade" provisions in section 5 (d) of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, or any other applicable provision of that regulation.

SEC. 2. What lumber and sales this regulation covers. Maximum prices in this regulation apply to all sales of rough shortleaf or longleaf Southern pine lumber produced by "small mills" as defined in section 1 (a), with the following exceptions: They do not apply to such lumber if it has been graded, tallied and otherwise made ready for shipment at a concentration yard or mill subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, or if it has become an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard as defined in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215, and the sale is made in conformity with either of those regulations.

Log-run lumber which is covered by this regulation must include the full product of the log with culls out, except where a mill sells on buyer's inspection as provided in section 4.

SEC. 3. Maximum prices—(a) Green lumber. The maximum prices per thousand board feet for rough green shortleaf and longleaf Southern pine lumber are:

	Lumber sold at mill not loaded by the seller	Lumber sold at mill loaded on truck or wagon by the seller	Lumber sold loaded on railroad cars or barge by the seller
Stock of 4/4", 5/4" and 6/4" thickness, all widths	$33.00	$34.00	$36.50
Stock of 7/4" and 8/4" thickness, all widths	31.00	32.00	34.50
Stock 10/4" and thicker and 8" wide or less	30.00	31.00	33.50
Stock 10/4" and thicker and wider than 8"	31.00	32.00	34.50

When delivery is made by a truck owned or controlled by the seller the additions provided in section 6 may be added to the prices provided for lumber sold at the mill, loaded on truck or wagon by the seller.

The maximum price for lumber produced by small mills in Virginia is $2.00 per thousand board feet higher than the prices set forth above.

(b) Additions for dry lumber. A small mill wishing to sell dry lumber must file a signed statement with the nearest District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration setting forth the name and address of the owner (and the mill's name and location, if different), the mill's average daily production, and how much lumber it has on sticks or end-racked for drying on the date of the statement. Such mill shall then be registered as a seller of dry lumber and shall receive a registration number which must be shown on all invoices or settlement sheets where an addition for dry lumber is made. A small mill which has been registered as a seller of dry lumber may make the following additions to the maximum prices in paragraph (a) of this section:

$2.00 per thousand board feet for ¼", 5/4" and 6/4" lumber which has been on sticks or end-racked for drying for at least sixty (60) day prior to delivery.

$3.00 per thousand board feet for ¼" and 8/4" lumber which has been on sticks or end-racked for drying for at least ninety (90) days prior to delivery.

No addition to the maximum prices in paragraph (a) of this section may be made for dry lumber thicker than 2".

If a small mill registered as a seller of dry lumber shall sell green lumber as dry, its registration and authorization may be revoked by the Office which issued it; and this shall be in addition to all other penalties permitted by law for a violation.

SEC. 4. Sales of timbers and car materials on "authorized buyer's inspection"—(a) Who may buy on "authorized buyer's inspection." Any railroad, treating plant, state or county road and highway commission, or other industrial user of timbers, may obtain permission to buy timbers, and any railroad, railroad car builder, railroad repair shop or treating plant may obtain permission to buy car material, on grade determined by their own inspection from named small mills, provided they have first applied to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for permission to do so, and have received written authorization.

The application shall state

(1) The names and addresses of all small mills from which the buyer intends to purchase timbers or car material.

(2) The qualifications of the buyer to properly grade timbers or car material, including the names of the inspectors or graders to be used, the length of time they have been employed by the buyer and their previous experience in grading.

(3) A statement of the nature of the buyer's business setting forth the need for graded timbers or car material, accompanied by evidence of his past practice of purchasing on his own inspection.

An authorized buyer may purchase timbers on his own inspection only for use in the original size, and not for remanufacture into smaller sizes or for resale. An authorized buyer may, from time to time, submit the names and addresses of any additional small mills from which he wishes to buy under this section for extension of his authority to cover such purchases.

Wholesalers may buy from small mills subject to this regulation for resale to registered buyers under this section.

An authorization number will be issued to each buyer permitted to purchase timbers and/or car material on grade on his own inspection under this section.

If a buyer authorized to purchase timbers and/or car material on grade on his own inspection is found to have graded incorrectly, either intentionally or by reason of incompetence or negligence, his authorization may be revoked; and this shall be in addition to all other penalties permitted by law.

(b) Maximum prices on sales on authorized buyer's inspection. A small mill, otherwise subject to this regulation, may sell timbers and car material inspected and graded by a buyer authorized to buy on its own inspection under paragraph (a) of this section, at no higher than the following maximum prices:

Timbers—$3.00 less than the maximum prices in Tables 3, 3A, 16 and 16A of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19.

Car Material—$5.00 less than the maximum prices in Tables 9, 9A, 9B, 22, 22A and 22B.

All sizes, grades, conditions, workings and other rules in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 applicable to sales under those tables shall be applicable to sales under this section, except that no addition may be made for inspection at destination, and no direct-mill retail sale or distributor's mark-ups may be added.

SEC. 5. Resales of "small mill" lumber. Except for resales by concentration yards and sawmills which are defined in and subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, and resales by distribution yards out of regular yard stock which are defined in and subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215, resales of small mill lumber purchased pursuant to this regulation are governed by the following rules:

If rough, ungraded lumber is resold as such, the resale is subject to the maximum prices in section 3 of this regulation, plus delivery charges in section 6, if applicable.

If rough, ungraded lumber is graded and/or dressed by or for the reseller, he is performing the functions of a concentrator, and the resale is subject to the maximum prices applicable to sales by concentration yards under Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19.

If timbers or car material are resold to an authorized buyer under section 4, the resale is subject to the maximum prices in Tables 3, 3A, 16 and 16A of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, except that no addition may be made for destination inspection as provided in the car materials tables, and no direct-mill distributor's mark-ups may be added.

SEC. 6. Delivery. When delivery is made by truck owned or controlled by the seller to any other point except f. o. b. cars or barge the following additions to the maximum prices loaded at the mill may be made for transportation. For distances up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M'BM over 10 miles and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M'BM and over 20 miles and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M'BM. Where the distance is greater than 30 miles, the seller may charge 5 cents per M'BM for each mile in excess of 30 miles up to a maximum charge of $6.00 per M'BM. Distance, as used in this paragraph, means the distance from the mill to the point of destination as measured by the speedometer. No addition may be made for the return trip.

SEC. 7. Special permission to price on grade. If a small mill, not presently authorized, wishes to sell all of its rough lumber on grade under Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 instead of selling log-run lumber under this regulation, it may apply to the nearest District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for special permission to do so. Permission will be granted on a showing that the small mill uses inspectors of its own who are qualified to grade and its operation is so set up that it can do a good grading job on a piece by piece basis.

If a small mill is authorized to price on grade on its own inspection, all its lumber sold after receipt of such authorization must be sold on grade. A small mill may not sell part of its lumber on grade under the tables in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19 and part under the maximum prices fixed in this section. Mills previously authorized to sell on grade do not have to reapply.

If a mill is authorized to sell on grade under Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, and it is found that lumber has been graded incorrectly either intentionally or by reason of incompetence or negligence, the authorization will be withdrawn. Where a mill's grading indicates abnormally high grade realization, there will be a presumption of incorrect grading justifying a revocation of its authorization to sell or purchase on grade.

SEC. 8. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 9. Records. Sellers and buyers must keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration either invoices or tally and settlement sheets for the duration of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, but in any event for no longer than two years. These records must show date of sale, names of mill and purchaser, price and footage of each size, and a sufficient description of the lumber to show whether or not the price charged was permitted by this regulation.

A registered mill charging a premium for dry lumber must prepare and give the purchaser a signed tally showing mill's registration number and the footage of dry lumber covered by each sale; and the buyer must give the seller a settlement sheet showing the date of sale, the price and a description of the lumber including every factor having a bearing on the price.

If timbers and car material are sold on authorized buyer's inspection, the buyer's authorization number, grades, sizes and condition of the lumber must be shown on invoices or settlement sheets.

SEC. 10. Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a way of getting more than ceiling prices without actually raising or appearing to raise the price is as much a violation of this regulation as a direct overceiling price.

Direct-mill distributors operating under the provisions of section 6 of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19, may make no additions to the maximum prices of rough lumber bought from "small mills" under this regulation, except as provided in section 5.

SEC. 11. Authorizations previously granted under section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation 19A. All authorizations granted under section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation 19A to sell or buy special cuttings, shall expire December 31, 1945.

This regulation shall become effective November 29, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

12. Paragraph (j) of § 1364.469 is amended to read as follows:

(j) Freezing and/or packaging for the United States Department of Agriculture. On domestic sales of veal carcasses to the United States Department of Agriculture, or any agency thereof, the seller may add (1) 50 cents per hundredweight for wrapping in accordance with specifications prescribed by that agency, (2) 50 cents per hundredweight for freezing either in the seller's own freezer facilities or in a commercial freezer, (3) an additional 15 cents per hundredweight to the amount specified in paragraph (j) (2) hereof if the invoice weights are determined by weighing the meats upon removal from the freezer, pursuant to the requirements of the Department of Agriculture, and (4) actual transportation expense, not to exceed the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, for delivery by the seller from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to a freezer, provided that the point of slaughter is located within the same price zone and beyond a radius of 15 miles from such freezer.

15. Paragraph (a) (15) of § 1364.470 is amended to read as follows:

(15) "Peddler truck sale" means a sale of veal from a truck by a person who purchases veal at or below the maximum price from a seller with whom he has no other financial affiliations or relationships, who takes delivery at the seller's place of business, and who does not sell or deal in meat in any manner other than sales out of stock carried in a truck owned and driven by him.

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[RMPR 136, Amdt. 22]

MACHINES, PARTS AND INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 19 (i) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 136 is amended in the following respects:

1. Subparagraph (1) is amended by adding the following to the list of exclusions of coverage contained at the end of the paragraph, "mica capacitors and condensers".

2. Subparagraph (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Definition of comparable part. For the purpose of this paragraph, a comparable part shall be one whose use and functions are similar to those of the part to be priced, and which is constructed of the same or similar materials as the part to be priced. If there are a line of parts comparable to the part to be priced, the comparable part shall be that one of the line whose use, function and cost are most nearly those of the part to be priced.

3. Subparagraph (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales of new radio parts and electronic circuit parts by manufacturers who sold new radio parts and electronic circuit parts prior to October 1, 1941, shall be computed by applying the first of the methods, applicable to the part being sold, set forth in the following paragraphs (i) and (ii), except in cases where the manufacturer receives specific written approval of OPA to compute prices under the methods set forth in paragraphs (iii) and (iv). If a manufacturer did not sell new radio parts and electronic circuit parts prior to October 1, 1941, he may use the provisions of this paragraph (i) of section 19 only if he has a published list price for the part to be priced or for a comparable part which has been approved by OPA; otherwise, his prices for sales of new radio parts and electronic circuit parts shall be established by the other applicable provisions of this regulation without reference to this section.

(i) Parts with base date prices. If the part is one which the manufacturer sold at least once between April 1, and October 1, 1941, the last price at which he sold the part prior to October 1, 1941, shall be the established price in effect on the base date for the purpose of this subdivision (i). If the part is one for which the manufacturer has a published list price or an established price in effect on the base date, the maximum price shall be that price, adjusted to reflect all appropriate extra charges, discounts or other allowances that the manufacturer had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941, increased by one of the following percentages applicable to the part being priced:

	Percent
Coils for radio equipment (including R. F. and I. F. coils)	26.3
Fixed capacitors	16.4
Radio power and audio transformers, chokes and vibrators	16.1
Variable condensers	16.5
Speakers and speaker parts	13.5
Parts for electric phonographs or phonograph recorders or electric phonographs combined with radios	11.5
Fixed and variable resistors	9.5
All other radio parts	9.5

(ii) Comparable parts. If the part is comparable to one for which the manufacturer has a price that can be computed under subdivision (i), the manufacturer shall first compute a price for the part to be sold under the pricing formula set forth in section 8, using the price for the comparable part computed under the preceding subdivision (i) as "the established price in effect on the base date" for the part before modification. If the price thus computed is substantially less than or greater than the computed price of the comparable part, and is in line with the general level of prices of similar parts then the price for the part to be sold computed in the manner stated in the preceding sentence shall be the maximum price of the part to be sold, but if the part to be sold is different from the comparable part only by reason of minor changes in material, design or construction, which do not substantially affect the cost of materials, or prevent the part from offering fairly equivalent serviceability, the maximum price of the part to be sold shall be the maximum price of the comparable part computed under subdivision (i). In any case, where the manufacturer established a maximum price for a part, under the provisions of this subdivision (ii), he shall file with the Machinery Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a report of that price which shall contain the information required by Form OPA 694–2165 (see Appendix B). After receipt of this report, OPA may (a) approve the proposed maximum price, (b) disapprove the proposed maximum price, or (c) establish a different maximum price determined under this section by order. If the OPA fails to act within thirty days after it receives the required report (or any verification of the facts stated in the report that may be requested), the proposed maximum price shall be deemed to be approved. OPA will give notice in writing of the date of receipt of the required report.

(iii) Formula priced parts. The manufacturer may use the method of establishing a maximum price under the provisions of this paragraph only upon specific written approval by OPA. If the manufacturer can establish to the satisfaction of OPA that it is not feasible to compute a maximum price for sales of any new radio parts and electronic circuit parts under the provisions of subdivision (i) or (ii), and had in effect on the base date (October 1, 1941, as established by this paragraph) a method of determining price by relation to cost for parts of the same or similar types, the manufacturer may establish the maximum prices for sales of such parts under the provisions of this paragraph upon written approval by OPA. The application for such approval shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Machinery Branch, Washington 25, D. C., and shall contain a full statement of the reasons why the parts cannot be priced under subdivisions (i) or (ii) and a detailed statement of the price determining method of the manufacturer in effect on the base date. The approval of OPA may state conditions, limitations and restrictions upon which the manufacturer may compute prices under this subdivision (iii) which shall be consonant with the intent and purposes of this subdivision (i) of section 19. The maximum price for a part shall be computed under this paragraph in line with the general level of prices for comparable parts by applying to the manufacturer's price determining method, approved by the Office of Price Administration, the materials prices, (including purchased parts and subassemblies) the labor hours and labor rates, and the rates for overhead, general administrative and selling expense, profit and other factors, in effect on October 1, 1941, and by increasing the price so computed by the percentage applicable to the part being priced set forth in subdivision (i).

(iv) Other parts. If the manufacturer can establish to the satisfaction of the OPA that it is not feasible to compute a maximum price for sales of any new radio parts and electronic circuit parts under the provisions of the preceding subdivisions (i), (ii) or (iii), he may apply to the Office of Price Administration, Machinery Branch, Washington 25, D. C., for permission to compute prices under the provisions of sections 9 and 10. Such application shall contain a detailed statement of the proposed method of computing prices under sections 9 and 10. Upon receipt of a written approval by OPA, a manufacturer may then compute maximum prices for sales of such part under the provisions of sections 9 and 10 without reference to this section.

4. The following subparagraph (5) is hereby added:

(5) Deliveries. From and after December 3, 1945, no person shall deliver any radio part or electronic circuit part at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this section, except as provided in sections 21 and 23.

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 3d day of December 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[SPA Reg. 6, Order 2]

PART 8306—SALE OF GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT EQUIPMENT IN CONTRACTORS' PLANTS

FORMS FOR REPORTING INVENTORIES AND SALES[1]

Surplus Property Board Regulation 6, Order 2, June 24, 1945 (10 F.R. 8374) is hereby revised and amended as herein set forth as Surplus Property Administration Regulation 6, Order 2.

Pursuant to the authority of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765, 50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1611) and Public Law 181, 79th Congress, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The owning agencies shall report inventories and monthly sales to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on Form SPB–8, "Government-owned plant equipment: Report of inventory of owning agency", and Form SPB–9, "Government-owned plant equipment: Monthly report to Reconstruction Finance Corporation of sales by owning agencies".

2. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall make reports of inventories and sales to the Surplus Property Administrator on Forms SPB–8, "Government-owned plant equipment: Report of inventory of owning agency", SPB–10, "Monthly analysis of sales of Government-owned plant equipment by class of sale", and SPB–11, "Monthly report of sales of Government-owned plant equipment by class of price policy." In summarizing the sales report Form SPB–9 the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall use Forms SPB–10 and SPB–11 in accordance with instructions for the use of these forms. In summarizing the inventory report SPB–8, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall use Form SPB–8 in accordance with the following instructions: One summary SPB–8 shall be prepared for each of the categories in Block 2 with the check mark entered in the appropriate space to indicate which category is covered. An additional SPB–8 totalling the three categories shall also be prepared. At the top of the report, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall indicate that it is a summary report with the following words: "Total all owning agencies." Attached to the summary report should be one copy of each SPB–8 submitted by the owning agencies.

3. Government-owned plant equipment to be reported on in inventory and sales reports under this order shall include all Government-owned plant equipment in privately-owned plants and Government-owned plants including emergency plant facilities, excluding only (a) plant equipment in permanent industrial installations of the Army and Navy, such as arsenals, proving grounds, shore establishments, and similar permanent installations, (b) plant equipment in Army and Navy installations used or useful for activities of the Army and Navy other than the production of materiél, munitions, and supplies, (c) plant equipment declared surplus, (d) plant equipment outside the continental limits of the United States, and (e) plant equipment classified as scrap or salvage. It should be noted from the foregoing that the term "plant equipment" is used in this order in a broader sense than in § 8306.1 (b) (3), since it is not confined to Government-owned plant equipment in privately-owned plants.

4. In the instructions to Forms SPB–8, SPB–9, and SPB–10, there appear references to Exhibit B to SPB Regulation 6, which has been deleted in the revision of that regulation. All such references shall be taken to refer to Exhibit A to this order, beginning in the case of SPB–8 with the inventory as of December 31, 1945 and beginning in the case of SPB–9 and SPB–10 with sales for the month of January 1946. Exhibit A to this order contains a revision of sections 34–1 and 34–4 of former Exhibit B to SPB Regulation 6.

5. The instructions to Form SPB–9 are amended by revising the instructions for Block 3 to read as follows:

Indicate the month covered by the report. Submit the report covering sales during November 1945, and for each month thereafter on or before the 20th of the month following the month for which the report is made.

6. The instructions for Form SPB–10 are amended by revising the instructions for Block 3 to read as follows:

Enter the name of the month covered by the report. Submit the report covering sales made during November 1945, and for each month thereafter on or before the 27th of the month following the month for which the report is made.

Enter the name of the month covered by the report. Submit the report covering sales made during November 1945, and for each month thereafter on or before the 27th of the month following the month for which the report is made.

8. Whenever in the forms or the instructions to the forms the words "Surplus Property Board" or "Board" appear, they shall be deemed to refer to the Surplus Property Administrator.

This order shall become effective November 16, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

MEAD CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1945.

Notice is hereby given that The Mead Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Ohio not registered as a holding company and presently exempt from all the provisions of the act under the provisions of Rule U-9, has filed an application with this Commission pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, requesting an order exempting The Mead Corporation and its subsidiaries from the provisions of the act.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the facts alleged in said application, which may be summarized as follows:

The Mead Corporation represents that it is primarily engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling paper, paper products, and certain by-products, and that it directly owns all of the outstanding securities of The Manistique Light and Power Company and indirectly controls Upper Michigan Power & Light Company, both of said companies being operating electric utility companies in the State of Michigan. The Mead Corporation represents that it does not derive, directly or indirectly, any material part of its income from its public utility subsidiaries and is, therefore, only incidentally a public utility holding company.

Accordingly, The Mead Corporation requests the entry of an order by the Commission exempting it and its subsidiaries from the provisions of the act, pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) thereof.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in respect of such matter and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matter under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on December 10, 1945, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the office of the Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, in such room as the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise. It is requested that any person proposing to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before December 7, 1945, a written request relative thereto, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, or any other officer or officers of this Commission, designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing on such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters:

1. Whether The Mead Corporation is only incidentally a holding company and is primarily engaged or interested in a business other than that of a public utility company and whether or not it derives, directly or indirectly, any material part of its income from any one or more subsidiaries, the principal business of which is that of a public utility company; and

2. Whether the requested exemption from any or all provisions of the act would be detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing is hereby given to The Mead Corporation and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to The Mead Corporation by registered mail, and to all other persons by general release of this Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the act, and by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(1) To issue to banks $3,200,000 principal amount of promissory notes to mature serially in the amount of $125,000 on June 1 and December 1 in each of the years 1946, 1947 and 1948 and in the amount of $2,450,000 on June 1, 1949, such notes to bear interest at the rate of 2% per annum except the notes maturing June 1, 1949 which bear interest at 3% per annum; and

(2) To issue $3,200,000 principal amount of First Mortgage 4% Bonds, Series D, to be dated November 15, 1945, to mature September 1, 1949, secured by its mortgage of February 1, 1928, to pledge such bonds as collateral for the said new notes, under an agreement which provides for equal reduction of collateral as payments or prepayments of the notes are made, and to retire and cancel all its other presently outstanding bonds; and

Said declaration having been filed on October 29, 1945 and notice of filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed in Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and the company having requested that such declaration be permitted to become effective on or before November 28, 1945; and

The Commission finding under section 7 of said act that the requirements of section 7 (c) are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary under section 7 (d) and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective forthwith;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that the aforesaid declaration be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission; Commissioner Healy dissenting on the ground that the issuance of $6,400,000 face amount of obligations to obtain a loan of $3,200,000 is unnecessary, and is inconsistent with the act in that it unnecessarily complicates the company's capital structure.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Conservation Order M-81, as Amended Nov 30, 1945]

CANS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials entering into the manufacture of cans for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3270.31 Conservation Order M-81.—(a) What this order does. This order places limitations upon cans made of tinplate or terneplate. Cans made exclusively of blackplate, electrolytic tinplate waste-waste, terneplate waste-waste, terneplate waste and tinplate waste are no longer restricted by this order. This order no longer sets any quotas. This order lists in Schedule A the only products which may be packed in tinplate or terneplate cans with certain exceptions set forth in the order.

(b) Definitions specifically for the purpose of this order. (1) "Can" means any unused container, made in whole or in part of tinplate or terneplate, which is suitable for packing any product. The term includes any container which has a closure or fitting, made in whole or in part of tinplate or terneplate, but does not include a glass container having such a closure or fitting. The term does not include fluid milk shipping containers.

(2) "Tinplate" means steel sheets coated with tin (including primes and seconds) and includes (i) electrolytic tinplate in which the tin coating is applied by electrolytic deposition, and (ii) hot dipped tinplate in which the tin coatings are applied by immersion in molten tin. The term includes hot dipped tinplate waste-waste, but not electrolytic tinplate waste-waste or tinplate waste.

(3) "Terneplate" means steel sheets coated with terne metal (including primes and seconds). The term does not include terneplate waste-waste or terneplate waste. "Terne metal" means the lead-tin alloy used as the coating for terneplate but does not include lead recovered from secondary sources which contains not more than 2½ percent residual tin.

(4) "SCMT" means special coated manufacturers' terneplate.

(5) "Waste" means scrap tinplate and terneplate (including strips and circles) produced in the ordinary course of manufacturing cans and tinplate and terneplate strips produced in the ordinary course of manufacturing tinplate and terneplate. The term also includes tinplate and terneplate parts recovered from used cans.

(6) "Waste-waste" means hot dipped or electrolytic tin-coated steel sheets or steel sheets coated with terne metal which have been rejected during processing by the producer because of imperfections which disqualify such sheets from sale as primes or seconds.

(c) General restrictions on manufacture, sale and delivery. No person shall sell, manufacture or deliver any cans which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be accepted or used in violation of any provision of this order.

(d) General restrictions on use of tinplate or terneplate cans. No person may use a tinplate or terneplate can for any purpose other than for packing the products listed in Schedule A in accordance with the size and material limitations set forth in that schedule. The only exceptions to this rule are set forth in paragraphs (e) through (i).

(e) Exceptions for SCMT for soldered parts of cans to pack unlisted non-food products. Cans made without using any tinplate or terneplate except soldered parts made of SCMT may be used for packing any non-food products not listed in Schedule A, without restriction as to size.

(f) Exception for small users. Any person whose total use of cans for packing in any calendar year requires less than 250 base boxes of tinplate and terneplate may use cans with the soldered parts made from 0.25 electrolytic tinplate for packing products not listed on Schedule A, except that he may not use these cans for packing animal food (see paragraph (k)).

(g) Exception for products which are not to be sold. Tinplate or terneplate cans may be used to pack any product which is not to be sold in the same or different form, but this does not permit the use of cans contrary to the other provisions of the order for the purpose of advertising or promoting the sale of a product.

(h) Military exceptions. The use of tinplate or terneplate cans for packing any products not listed on Schedule A and any listed non-food products is permitted (without any size or material restrictions) when such cans are to be delivered either packed or empty to the Army, Navy, Veterans' Administration, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration or to persons operating vessels for the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration for use on the vessels.

(i) Exception for cans permitted before an amendment. Whenever can material specifications for a product are changed by an amendment to this order, any person may pack that product in any can which was permitted before the amendment if the can, or the tinplate or terneplate incorporated in it, was in his inventory, in the inventory of the can manufacturer, or in process or in inventory at a tin mill for the account of the can manufacturer on the date of the amendment.

(j) Completion and sale of outdated cans. Whenever can material specifications for a product are changed by an amendment to this order, a can manufacturer must continue to make, sell and deliver cans for that product in accordance with the former specifications and must not make any cans conforming to the new specifications as long as there is available to him tinplate or terneplate made for him which was in process at the tin mill or in its inventory for his account, or in his inventory on the date of the change.

(k) Prohibition against use of cans for animal food. No person shall use any tinplate or terneplate cans for packing any food which is not intended and suitable for human consumption. The use of such cans for animal and pet food is not permitted.

(l) Certificate for deliveries of tinplate or terneplate cans. No can manufacturer shall make, sell or deliver any tinplate or terneplate cans unless he has received from the purchaser a certificate signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7. This certificate shall be in substantially the following form and once filed by a purchaser with a supplier, covers all future deliveries from the supplier to that purchaser.

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation; that he is familiar with Order M-81 of the Civilian Production Administration, and that all purchases from you of items regulated by that order, and the use of the same by the undersigned, will be in compliance with that order.

If a certificate in substantially the above form has been received from a purchaser before November 16, 1945, no additional certificate is required from the purchaser.

(m) Appeals. Appeals from this order shall be filed by addressing a letter in triplicate to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-81. The letter of appeal need not follow any particular form. It should state informally, but completely, the particular provisions appealed from, the precise relief desired, the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship, and such other statistical and narrative information as may be pertinent.

(n) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-81.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further delivery of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

NOTE: Schedule A amended Nov. 30, 1945.

Column 1. Listed products. Listed in this column are the only products, except as provided in paragraphs (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) of the order, which may be packed in tinplate or terneplate cans.

Column 2. Can sizes. This column indicates the permitted sizes of cans, except that any person may use for packing any listed product a can which is larger than the largest listed size for packing that product. The size restrictions in this column also apply to cans to pack the listed products which are delivered to the agencies and persons listed in paragraph (h). Wherever the can size is specified by weight, the weight referred to shall be net weight of the contents of the can. Other can sizes are described in the terminology common to the industry such as "cylinder", "picnic", "oval", "drawn", "tall", "2", "10", "8z", etc.

Columns 3 and 4. Can materials. These columns specify the materials permitted for the soldered and nonsoldered parts of the tinplate or terneplate cans for each of the listed products. Any person may also use for packing a listed product such cans with a tin coating lighter than that specified for that product. Hot dipped tinplate waste-waste may be used wherever 0.50 or heavier tinplate is specified. The material restrictions in this column also apply to cans to pack the listed food products which are delivered to the persons specified in paragraph (h). Wherever "CTB" (chemically treated blackplate) is specified for food products 0.50 electrolytic tinplate may be substituted where such cans are to be delivered to the Army or the Navy for overseas use; however, where in such cases the cans are to pack listed meat products, 1.25 tinplate may be substituted. When only a figure is given in Column 3 or Column 4, this means that only tinplate may be used for the part, and the figure given indicates the maximum weight of tin coating per single base box. Menders arising in the production of electrolytic tinplate, which have been hot dipped with a maximum tin coating of 1.25 pounds per base box, may be used wherever 0.50 or heavier tinplate is specified in this column. Menders arising in the production of electrolytic tinplate which have been converted into SCMT may be used wherever 0.25 or heavier tinplate is specified in this order for nonfood cans. When a scored can is used to pack any of the meat products listed in this schedule, 1.25 tinplate may be used for the body of the can.

[Conservation Order M-51, as Amended Dec. 4, 1945]

PIGS' AND HOGS' BRISTLES AND BRISTLE PRODUCTS

Section 3290.161 Conservation Order M-51 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of pigs' and hogs' bristles for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3290.161 Conservation Order M-51—(a) Definitions of "bristles". For the purpose of this order "bristles" means pigs' or hogs' bristles, including riffings, 2 inches or longer, whether new, reclaimed, raw, dressed, imported, or domestic.

(b) Importation. Notwithstanding any other order, rule, regulation or direction, or any other certificate or authorization, no person other than Reconstruction Finance Corporation or U. S. Commercial Company shall import any variety of bristles of the categories known as "Chinese," "Indias," "Russians" or "Siberians." The importation of bristles of other categories shall be according to General Imports Order M-63, as amended from time to time.

(c) Inventories of bristles. No person manufacturing brushes shall buy or accept delivery of any bristles 2½ inches or longer if he has more bristles on hand than are required to continue his current rate of operations for a period of 120 days.

(d) Restrictions on purchase of bristles from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. No person may buy or accept delivery from Reconstruction Finance Corporation of any bristles of the categories known as "Chinese," "Indias," "Russians" or "Siberians" unless specifically authorized in writing by the Civilian Production Administration. Persons wishing to buy bristles of these categories from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation should apply by letter to the Textile Division, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M-51. The applicant will be advised by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation if the application is granted, and by the Civilian Production Administration if the application is denied. Allocations will be made to bristle dealers who meet Reconstruction Finance Corporation's conditions and terms of sale and persons who were not formerly in that business will be given an equitable share.

(e) Equitable distribution. It is the policy of the Civilian Production Administration that bristles, not required to fill rated orders, shall be distributed equitably. In making such distribution due regard should be given to essential civilian needs, and there should be no discrimination in the acceptance or filling of orders as between persons who meet the seller's regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. Under this policy, every seller of bristles, so far as practicable, should make available an equitable proportion to his customers periodically, without prejudice because of their size, location, or relationship as affiliated outlets. It is not the intention to interfere with established channels and methods of distribution, unless necessary to meet essential needs. If voluntary observance of the policy outlined is inadequate to achieve equitable distribution, the Civilian Production Administration may issue specific directions to concerns.

(f) Communcations. All reports required to be filed and all communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed be addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. M-51.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or, who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration, as amended from time to time.

Issued this 4th day of December 1945.

Recording Secretary.

(k) The maximum base price, if any, at which the manufacturer sold the item to each class of customer under the provisions of section 1351.803 of Maximum Price Regulation 280.

6. A new section 35 (e) (3) (ii) (l) is added to read as follows:

7. A new section 35 (e) (5) is added to read as follows:

(5) Notification of new maximum base price. (i) With the first delivery of a cheese item for which a maximum base price has been determined under paragraph (d) (2) of this Section, each manufacturer shall supply each wholesaler and retailer or other buyer to whom he sells the item with a written notice reading as follows:

(Insert date)

Our OPA ceiling for (describe the cheese item by kind, brand name, container size, type of package or container) has been recalculated under paragraph (d) (2) of section 35 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this cheese item under Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289, Maximum Price Regulation 422 or Maximum Price Regulation 423 you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier with this notification after October 23, 1945. You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules set forth in section 35 (g) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289 or section 8 of Maximum Price Regulation 422 or 423 whichever is applicable to you.

(ii) For a period of 60 days after determining the new maximum price for the cheese item, and with the first shipment after the 60-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that time, each manufacturer shall include in, or securely attach to the outside of, each case, carton or other receptacle containing the cheese item the written notice set forth in immediately preceding subparagraph (5) (i). However for sales directly to any retailer the manufacturer may supply the notice by attaching it to, or stating it on, the invoice covering the shipment instead of providing it with the item.

(iii) Any wholesaler who has received written notice requiring him to refigure his ceiling price for a cheese item as provided in immediately preceding subparagraphs (5) (i) and (ii), after actually receiving the cheese item for the first time with such a notice, must, before selling such cheese item refigure his ceiling price for it by following the directions in paragraph (g) of this section. Such a wholesaler shall supply each purchaser (either another wholesaler or a retailer) of the item from him with written notice of the establishment of the new maximum price. This notice which shall be attached to, or stated on, the invoice covering the first delivery to such purchaser after October 23, 1945 at the changed maximum price shall read as follows:

(Insert date)

Our OPA ceiling price for (describe the cheese item by kind, brand name, container size, type of package or container) has been changed from $---------- to $---------- per ---------- (state unit) under the provisions of section 35 (g) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289. You are required to notify all wholesalers and retailers for whom you are a customary type of supplier purchasing the cheese item from you after October 23, 1945 of any change in your maximum price. This notice must be made in the manner described in section 35 (e) (5) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289.

8. A new paragraph is added to the end of section 35 (n) to read as follows:

Any natural cheese used in preparing any cheese item subject to the controls of this section must conform to the applicable standards of identity under OPA regulations or in the absence of such standards, under the provisions of the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938, as amended, or under historically accepted standards in the industry. Where Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289 establishes a table for a sub-standard natural cheese item, such a sub-standard natural cheese may be used in preparing cheese items covered by this section, but the prices established in such table for a sub-standard natural cheese item must be used and reflected in any determination of a maximum price under paragraph (d) (2) of this section. Where no table for a sub-standard natural cheese item is provided in Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289, a sub-standard natural cheese item may not be used in a cheese item or items subject to the controls of this section and the use of such a sub-standard natural cheese item shall be considered an evasion of the provisions of this regulation.

9. Section 35 (o) is added to read as follows:

(o) Grated dehydrated cheese shall not be subject to the provisions of this section. Sales of grated dehydrated cheese are subject to the controls of Maximum Price Regulation 280.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This amendment shall become effective December 10, 1945.

1. Subparagraph (1) of § 1364.22a (a) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The limitations contained in this section are applicable on all dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) that are moved into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington in straight and/or mixed carload lots.

2. Subdivision (i) of § 1364.22a (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(i) The pork products moved constitute part or all of a total shipment and the total volume by weight of such shipment is less than a "carload" as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (9); or

3. Paragraph (b) of § 1364.22a is amended by changing the words preceding subparagraph (1) thereof to read as follows:

(b) Limitation. Except as permitted by paragraphs (a) (2) and (b) (1) of this § 1364.22a, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall ship, transport, transfer or deliver dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) into the said area in straight and/or mixed carload lots after November 9, 1945; and except as permitted by the above-cited paragraphs, no person in the course of trade or business shall cause such pork products to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered into the said area in straight and/or mixed carload lots after November 9, 1945. Other than as permitted by paragraph (a) (2) of this § 1364.22a dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) may be moved into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington on and after November 10, 1945, only in accordance with the following conditions:

4. Subparagraph (1) of § 1364.22a (b) is amended by changing the words preceding subdivision (i) thereof to read as follows:

(1) No person shall ship, transport, transfer or deliver such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts in such carload lots into the said area, and no person in the course of trade or business shall cause such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered into the said area in such carload lots unless he has a quota therefor determined on the basis of the total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) that was moved into the said area in straight and/or mixed carload lots during the appropriate base period specified hereinafter, except that the total volume by weight of such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts shipped, transported, transferred or delivered, or caused to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered to war procurement agencies, licensed ship suppliers and ship operators during the appropriate base period shall not be included in any computation hereinafter required. No person shall have more than one quota, and every person claiming a quota must qualify therefor, and compute the volume thereof by one of the methods provided in following subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv), or must apply for a special quota as provided in subdivision (v) hereof.

5. Subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) and (vii) of § 1364.22a (b) (1) are amended, respectively, to read as follows:

(i) Each person who moved such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts in such carload lots into the area within the base period of from January 1, 1944, through March 31, 1944, is entitled to a quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight of such pork products so moved into such area within the said base period.

(ii) Each person who moved such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts in such carload lots into the area during any period after January 31, 1944, but did not move such pork products in such carload lots into the area during the month of January 1944, is entitled to a quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight of such pork products so moved into such area within the first consecutive three calendar month period in which such movements were made following January 31, 1944.

(iii) Each person who is a buyer in the course of trade or business having a selling establishment or establishments located in the said area, and who purchased and caused such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts to be moved into such area in such carload lots within the base period of from January 1, 1944, through March 31, 1944, is entitled to a purchasing quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the purchasing quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight of such pork products so purchased and caused to be moved into such area in such carload lots within the first consecutive three calendar month period in which such movements were made following January 31, 1944. No person who has established a quota under foregoing subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall be eligible to establish a quota under this subdivision.

(v) Special quotas authorizing persons not having quotas under subdivisions (i) or (ii) to move such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts into such area in such carload lots in order to enable persons having quotas under foregoing subdivisions (iii) or (iv) to operate within the limits of such latter quotas may be authorized by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., only upon a showing that the persons having such latter quotas are unable to obtain such carload lots from persons having quotas under subdivisions (i) or (ii).

(vi) No person having a quota under subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall move such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts in such carload lots from outside such area to its branch houses, subsidiaries, or financial affiliates located within such area, in excess of 75 percent of the total volume by weight of such pork products so moved in such carload lots to its branch houses, subsidiaries, or financial affiliates during its quota base period. All such movements shall be charged against the quota.

(vii) Any person having a quota under foregoing subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall not move such dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts in such carload lots from outside the area to a consignee within the area other than a branch house, subsidiary or financial affiliate unless he first shall ascertain that such consignee has an unfilled quota under foregoing subdivisions (iii) or (iv) permitting such movement. All such transactions shall be charged against both quotas.

This amendment shall become effective December 4, 1945.

Issued this 4th day of December 1945.

machines covered by this regulation will result.

This amendment shall become effective on the 4th day of December 1945.

Issued this 4th day of December 1945.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 208 is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (d) is added to section 5.6 to read as follows:

(d) Specific authorization for manufacturers of jean, drill, twill and poplin garments. (1) Any manufacturer of a work garment, made from jean, drill, twill and poplin materials purchased on or after September 17, 1945, may sell and deliver such garment at the maximum price in effect on July 1, 1945, and reserve the right to charge the difference, if any, betwen that maximum price and any higher maximum price which may thereafter be established by OPA.

(2) Any manufacturer who elects to exercise the adjustable pricing permission provided in this paragraph (d) must, in connection with each contract of sale, deliver to the purchaser the following statement in writing, or stamp such statement on the invoice required by section 5.2 (a) (4):

For as long as permitted by OPA (name of manufacturer) reserves the right to charge you, for the following quantities of garments delivered pursuant to this contract, the difference between our ceiling price in effect on July 1, 1945, and any higher ceiling price which may thereafter be established by OPA.

Lot No.	Quantity	(Number of dozens)

OPA has ruled that in determining your ceiling price for these garments, you must use as your "supplier's net selling price" our net price to you under this contract, exclusive of the additional charge which we may be permitted to make.

(3) The permission granted in this paragraph (d) shall remain in effect only until the date revised maximum prices of general applicability are first hereafter established for manufacturers' sales of jean, drill, twill and poplin garments, or this paragraph is revoked, whichever is earlier.

(4) Any purchaser who buys jean, drill, twill or poplin garments under a contract containing an adjustable pricing clause authorized by this paragraph (d) shall disregard that clause, and any additional charge made pursuant to it, in determining his ceiling prices for resale of the garments so purchased.

(5) No person is authorized to collect an amount in excess of the ceiling in effect on July 1, 1945, for any jean, drill, twill or poplin garments, unless prior to the revocation of this paragraph (d), revised maximum prices of general applicability have been established for such garments.

2. Section 5.9 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Who may apply. Any manufacturer who was required to produce a garment of staple work clothing by the War Production Board, pursuant to Conservation Order No. M-379 (issued July 10, 1944) and General Direction No. 1 to Conservation Order No. M-379 (as amended October 12, 1944), may apply for an adjustment of his ceiling price on such garment.

3. Section 5.9 (b) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Denial of applications. An application may be denied, notwithstanding the standards in subparagraph (2), if price relief under an alternate method has been provided for the applicant or his industry, or if the Price Administrator determines that granting the application would not accord with the purpose of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

This amendment shall become effective December 10, 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

TABLE E—MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE CHARGES FOR SPECIAL WORK AND FINISHES ON STRIKING TOOL HANDLES

Extra long handles—For lengths longer than 36 inches, add per dozen net for each 2 inches as follows:
Axe handles—65 cents per dozen.

NOTE: Short handles are the types included in the price lists under Hammer Handles and Hatchet Handles. Long Handles are all other types such as axe, pick and maul.

(4) Sales of hickory handles marked with trademark or brand. If an order for the purchase of hickory handles specifically stipulates that the order be composed of hickory handles to be marked with the trademark or brand of either the buyer or seller, which order constitutes a mixture of different grades of such handles of a type, class and pattern contained either in the list in Table C of subparagraph (1) or in the list in Table D of subparagraph (2) or in both lists, the manufacturer's maximum price for the order shall be the price in either (i) or (ii) as follows:

(i) On a sale to a buyer other than a buyer who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail (see definitions in subparagraph (5) (iv)), the maximum price shall be 65% of the weighted average list price for those tables for the mixture of such handles evened off to the nearest 10 cents.

(ii) On a sale to a buyer who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail (see definitions in subparagraph (5) (iv)), the maximum price shall be 74% of the weighted average list price for those tables for the mixture of such handles evened off to the nearest 10 cents.

The distributor's maximum price for such an order of handles shall be 82% of the weighted average list price from those tables for the mixture of such handles evened off to the nearest 10 cents.

For example: A buyer orders 100 doz. single bit hickory axe handles of a brand called the "X" brand, the order to be made up of the following grades:

50 doz. AW, 10 doz. BW, 20 doz. AR, 20 doz. BR.

The weighted average price is computed as follows:

Grade	Number of dozen in order	List price per dozen	List price for number of dozen in order
AW	50	$8.20	$410.00
BW	10	6.90	69.00
AR	20	6.30	126.00
BR	20	5.30	106.00

$711.00 divided by 100 dozen—$7.10, the weighted average list price per each dozen in the order evened off to the nearest 10 cents.

The manufacturer's maximum price on a sale to a buyer other than a buyer who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail is 65% of $7.10 or $4.60 per dozen.

The manufacturer's maximum price on a sale to a buyer engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail shall be 74% of $7.10 or $5.30 per dozen.

The distributor's maximum price is 82% of $7.10 or $5.80 per dozen.

The manufacturer's maximum price for an order of hickory handles made up of hickory handles to be marked with the trademark or brand of either the buyer or seller and which are composed of a single grade of a type, class and pattern contained either in the list in Table C of subparagraph (1) or in the list in Table D of subparagraph (2) shall be the price in either (i) or (ii) as follows:

(i) On a sale to a buyer other than a buyer who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail (see definitions in subparagraph (5) (iv)), the maximum price shall be 65% of the list price for those handles of that grade, type, class and pattern contained in Table C or Table D, whichever table applies.

(ii) On a sale to a buyer who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking tool handles only at retail (see definitions in subparagraph (5) (iv), the maximum price shall be 74% of the list price for those handles of that grade, type, class and pattern contained in Table C or Table D, whichever table applies.

The distributor's maximum price for such an order of handles shall be 82% of the list price for those handles of that grade, type, class and pattern contained in Table C or Table D, whichever table applies.

(5) Sales by sellers other than producers and manufacturers. The maximum prices provided for under this subparagraph (5) are subject to the discounts and concessions required by paragraph (e).

(i) Definition of distribution type of sale. The distribution type of sale is a sale by a seller, other than a producer or manufacturer, out of his own warehouse where that seller maintains a varied stock of items covered by this section and which seller buys those items from one or more producers or manufacturers of such items and sells them to government agencies, industrial users, tool manufacturers or retailers.

A sale by a producer or manufacturer or by a seller who does not maintain a warehouse shall not be classified as a distribution type of sale under any circumstances.

(b) Hickory handles: Federal Specification NN–H–93. The maximum prices on the distribution type of sale, f. o. b. the distributor's warehouse, for hickory handles manufactured and graded according to Federal Specification NN–H–93 shall be 82% of the prices contained in Table D in subparagraph (2) above for the types, classes, grades and sizes indicated.

(c) Handles specially priced under paragraph (c) below, of this section. The maximum prices on the distribution type of sale, f. o. b. the distributor's warehouse, for handles not specifically priced in this section but which are specially priced under paragraph (c) below shall be 82% of the list price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration as provided in that paragraph (c).

(iii) Maximum prices for handles sold by a seller who does not maintain a warehouse. For a seller who does not maintain a warehouse the maximum prices for handles covered by this section shall be the same maximum prices established by this section for manufacturers.

(iv) Retail type of sale. The retail type of sale is excluded from the coverage of this section. That type of sale is covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation or a successor regulation possessing such coverage. For the purpose of this section, the retail type of sale is not a distribution type of sale but is a sale "across the counter" to an ultimate consumer in small quantities of an item which the seller carries in stock and which the seller has purchased for resale.

Within the meaning of this section, a person who is engaged in the business of selling hardwood striking-tool handles at retail is one who is in the business of making the retail type of sale as defined above.

(c) Maximum prices for hickory handle blanks, hickory handles and all other hardwood striking-tool handles not specifically priced in this section. Hickory handle blanks, hickory handles and all other hardwood striking tool handles sold on special grades or specifications or with special services or other extras not specifically priced in this section are nevertheless subject to this section as "specially priced items" or "special items." The producer or manufacturer (referred to as seller in this paragraph), making a sale of an item covered by this section for which that seller does not have a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for approval of a requested maximum price for that item. The application shall cover only one order or inquiry of hickory handle blanks or hardwood striking-tool handles and a copy of that order or inquiry shall accompany the application.

On his application the seller shall show (1) the list price in October 1941 of the "special item" and (2) the price differential in October 1941 between the net price of the "special item" and the net price of the most comparable standard item specifically priced in this section, or (3) the price differential during the first month before October 1941 in which he had sales of both the special item and the most comparable item, or (4) if (2) and (3) are impossible, the price differential which the seller would have maintained between these two items in October 1941. The seller shall report his requested price in his application together with an explanation of how he has determined such price. The maximum price shall be a price which is in appropriate relationship to the most comparable standard item, determined from an examination of the data submitted by the seller and from such other data as may be available to the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration for a seller for a special item shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item unless the Office of Price Administration limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

Within thirty (30) days of the date on which the seller's application is received by the Lumber Branch, the Office of Price Administration shall send to the seller (1) an approval of a maximum price, (2) a disapproval of the requested price, or, (3) a request for additional information. If the Office of Price Administration fails to send one of such notices within the thirty (30) day period, the seller may use his requested price as an approved maximum price but such approval shall be applicable only to the one specific order or inquiry covered by the application and only to the quantity of the special item contained in that order or inquiry on the date of the application.

Following the receipt of the application by the Lumber Branch, the Office of Price Administration must send a notice to the seller informing him of the receipt of the application. If, within the thirty (30) day period described above, the Office of Price Administration requests additional information, a new thirty (30) day period shall begin to run from the date on which that information is received by the Lumber Branch.

Prior to the approval of a maximum price as provided in this paragraph, the seller shall not make any collections on account of the sale price of the special item. However, the seller may proceed with the delivery of the special item, using the requested price as a tentative maximum price but all quotations, contracts and invoices must notify the buyer that the price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration within the thirty (30) day period described above.

(d) Sales made on basis other than list prices contained in this section. It shall not constitute a violation of this section for a seller of items covered by this section to sell on a basis other than the use of the list prices contained in Tables C and D of subparagraphs (1) and (2) respectively of paragraph (b) above, provided, the sale prices of such seller do not exceed the maximum prices provided for in this section.

(e) Discounts and concessions. All maximum prices provided for under this section 3.10 are subject to this paragraph (e). In making a sale of an item or items covered by this section, a seller shall give to the purchaser the same trade, cash or service discounts or concessions which that seller gave to a purchaser of the same class in March 1942. For example: A manufacturer of striking-tool handles sold handles in March 1942 to distributors at a discount of 50% from his list price and sold to tool manufacturers at discounts from his list prices of 50% and 5%. Under this section, that manufacturer must continue to maintain these discount relations and would sell to distributors at 65% of his list prices and would sell to tool manufacturers at discounts from his list prices of 35% and 5%.

(f) Transportation—(1) Hickory handle blanks—(i) Common or contract carrier. To the permissible maximum price for hickory handle blanks provided for in this section, the seller of the blanks may add the actual transportation charges paid by the seller to a common or contract carrier for transportation of the hickory handle blanks directly from the seller's plant to the point of delivery required by the purchaser.

(ii) Truck haul prior to shipment by a common or contract carrier. When a truck haul precedes a rail shipment or water-borne shipment, as for example, when a seller of hickory handle blanks located away from a railhead or away from the point at which water-borne shipment begins, hauls the hickory handle blanks by truck to the railhead or to shipside, no addition may be made for the truck haul.

(iii) All truck haul. When shipment of hickory handle blanks is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, no addition may be made for such transportation charges or expenses if the point of delivery ordered by the purchaser is located 25 miles or less from the seller's plant over the most direct route which is normally used. But, when shipment of the hickory handle blanks is by truck owned or controlled by the seller and if the point of delivery ordered by the purchaser is located at a point greater than 25 miles from the seller's plant over the most direct route which is normally used, the seller may make the following additions to the permissible maximum price for hickory handle blanks provided for in this section:

½ cent per blank for lengths less than 29".

(iv) If, in the purchase of hickory handle blanks, the point of delivery ordered by the purchaser is located at a point greater than 25 miles from the seller's plant over the most direct route which is normally used and, if the purchaser collects the hickory handle blanks at the seller's plant and transports them in a truck owned or controlled by the purchaser to the point of delivery, the seller shall deduct from the maximum prices provided for in paragraph (a) (1) of this section a sum figured as follows:

1 cent per blank for lengths 29" or more.
½ cent per blank for lengths less than 29".

(2) Hickory handles or other hardwood striking-tool handles. For a shipment of hickory handles or other striking-tool handles weighing less than 100 lbs., the seller may add to the permissible maximum price provided for in this section the actual charges paid or owed by the seller to a common or contract carrier for transportation directly from the seller's plant to the point of delivery required by the purchaser.

For a shipment of hickory handles or other striking-tool handles weighing 100 lbs. or more to a point of delivery ordered by the buyer located east of 105° West Longitude the following rules shall govern:

(i) If the seller makes shipment by a common carrier of the seller's own choice to the point of delivery referred to above, no addition for transportation shall be made by the seller to the permissible maximum prices for the items sold provided by this section.

(ii) If on the specific order of the buyer, the seller makes shipment by a common carrier other than the one charging the lowest rate of all common carriers providing transportation from the seller's shipping point to the point of delivery referred to above, the seller may add the amount of the difference between the lawful charges of the common carrier by which shipment was made and the lawful charges of that common carrier with the lowest rate.

For a shipment of hickory handles or other striking-tool handles weighing 100 lbs. or more, the seller may add to the permissible maximum prices provided for in this section any transportation charges owed or paid by the seller to a common or contract carrier which may exceed $1.25 per hundredweight provided the point of delivery ordered by the purchaser is located west of 105° West Longitude.

(g) Export sales. The maximum prices for export sales of items covered by this section are governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

This amendment will become effective December 10, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[MPR 196,[2] Amdt. 8]

TURNED AND SHAPED WOOD PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 1384.51 of Maximum Price Regulation 196 is amended to read as follows:

[2] 7 F.R. 6078, 7254, 8016, 8945; 8 F.R. 11812, 15194, 15431.

(a) The term "turned wood product" means any softwood or hardwood lumber product which has been turned on a cutting machine or passed through a dowel machine. The term "turned wood product" includes handles other than those handles excluded under subparagraph (3) below and it also includes wood parts of utensils and wood parts of appliances (other than rotary cut lumber) which have been turned on a cutting machine or passed through a dowel machine.

The term "turned wood product" also includes products which must have further work performed on them or a part or parts assembled to them before they are ready for ultimate use. The necessity for painting, lacquering or varnishing such products before they are ready for ultimate use shall not be considered criteria to determine whether further work must be performed on the products for them to be ready for ultimate use. In addition, the term "turned wood product" includes wood soles and lasts, however made, and regardless of whether the soles or lasts consist exclusively of wooden parts or of wooden parts assembled with other parts.

The term does not include:

(1) Rotary cut lumber or veneer.

(2) Finished products ready for ultimate use (rather than incorporation in other products), consisting of a turned wood product or an assembly of a turned wood product or products and other parts. Specifically, but not exclusively, the following products are not subject to this Maximum Price Regulation 196: furniture, brooms, mops, carpet sweepers, toys, games, baseball bats, checkers, chessmen, billiard cues, drumsticks, golf tees, tools, wooden spoons, wooden bowls, toothpicks, potato mashers, rolling pins, clothespins, medical applicators and an assembly of wood product units even though any one or more of such units by itself is a turned wood product.

(3) Hickory and other hardwood striking tool handles covered by section 3.10 of Second Revised Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) The term "shaped wood product" means any softwood or hardwood lumber product which has been shaped to pattern on a cutting machine. The term "shaped wood product" includes handles other than those handles excluded under subparagraph (6) below and it also includes wood parts of utensils and wood parts of appliances which have been shaped to pattern on a cutting machine. The term "shaped wood product" also includes products which must have further work performed on them or a part or parts assembled to them before they are ready for ultimate use. The necessity for painting, lacquering or varnishing the products before they are ready for ultimate use shall not be considered criteria to determine whether further work must be performed on the products for them to be ready for ultimate use.

The term does not include:

(1) Moulding.

(2) Millwork.

(3) Small dimension stock either rough, semi-machined or completely machined and either glued or not glued.

(4) Doors, sash, windows and frames or parts thereof.

(5) Finished products ready for ultimate use (rather than for incorporation in other products) consisting of a shaped wood product or an assembly of a shaped wood product or products and other parts. Specifically, but not exclusively, the following products are not subject to this Maximum Price Regulation 196: furniture, toys, tools, picker sticks, toothpicks, clothespins, wooden spoons, medical applicators, tongue depressors, and an assembly of wood product units even though any one or more of such units by itself is a shaped wood product.

(6) Hickory and other hardwood striking tool handles covered by section 3.10 of Second Revised Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

This amendment becomes effective December 10, 1945.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14E. Amdt. 17]

IMPORTED SOUTH AMERICAN HORSE HIDES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

1. The last sentence of section 3.2 (b) is amended by deleting the word "or" appearing after the phrase "section 3.5 (c)," and by deleting the words appearing after the phrase "section 3.11" and substituting therefor the words "or South American Horse Hides subject to section 3.12 of this regulation."

2. Section 3.12 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 3.12 Imported South American horse hides. This section establishes maximum prices for all purchases for importation into the continental United States and for all sales after arrival in the continental United States of South American whole horse hides and parts of wet salted horse hides.

The term "horse hides" as used in this section means untanned horse hides or pony skins originating in South America.

TABLE I

Group	Average net landed weight in pounds	Price per pound net landed weight C. & F. Atlantic or Gulf port of entry
2	44½ to 48½	.1125
3	48½ and heavier	.1175
Inservibles	All weights	.075

The average net landed weight for a lot of hides shall be determined as follows:

(i) The lot of hides shall be weighed on arrival in the United States to obtain its gross received weight.

(ii) A representative sample of the lot shall be weighed to obtain the gross received weight of the sample.

(iii) Each hide in the sample shall be biffed twice on each side if shipped in a bundle and once on each side if shipped loose and the sample shall then be reweighed and the loss of weight computed.

(iv) The loss of weight on the sample shall be divided by the gross received weight of the sample to determine the percentage tare on the sample.

(v) The gross weight of the lot shall be multiplied by the percentage tare thus obtained to determine the tare for the lot.

(vi) The tare shall be deducted from the gross received weight of the lot to obtain the net landed weight. No tolerance is permitted.

(2) Dry or dry salted whole horse hides. The maximum price which may be paid by any purchaser for dry or dry salted whole horse hides to be imported into the continental United States shall be the price enumerated below for the applicable weight group.

TABLE II

Average weight in kilos	Price, C. & F. Atlantic or Gulf port of entry

PART 4004—PRICE STABILIZATION; MAXIMUM PRICES

FROZEN VEGETABLES—1945

The Price Administrator on September 12, 1945, and the Secretary of Agriculture on November 20, 1945, submitted certain information and recommendations with respect to the payment of subsidies on the quantities of snap beans, sweet corn and green peas used in producing the portion of the 1945 pack of frozen vegetables utilized by the processors thereof in actually producing other food products.

1. I hereby find that the payment of subsidies on the quantities of snap beans, sweet corn and green peas used in producing the portion of the 1945 pack of frozen vegetables utilized by the processors thereof in actually producing other food products will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250, 9328 and 9599, by correcting a gross inequity.

2. The first sentence of paragraph (2) of Directive 61 issued June 27, 1945, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

The Department of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to make subsidy payments, out of funds of the Commodity Credit Corporation, on frozen snap beans, frozen sweet corn, frozen green peas and frozen mixed vegetables containing one or more of these three vegetables, produced during the period May 1, 1945, through December 31, 1945 (except that with respect to frozen snap beans and frozen mixed vegetables containing snap beans, the terminal date of production shall be February 28, 1946, inclusive), and eligibly sold to purchasers other than Government procurement agencies during the period May 1, 1945, through June 30, 1946 (or such later date as the Department of Agriculture may specify), or used by the processor thereof in actually producing any other food product.

[Directive 90]

LIVESTOCK SLAUGHTER PAYMENTS

The Price Administrator has submitted to me certain information and recommendations with respect to adjustment of the rates of subsidy payments on livestock slaughtered from July 1, 1945, to October 31, 1945, and from April 1, 1945, to October 31, 1945. After careful consideration, I find:

(a) That on or about June 6, 1945, the Price Administrator, with the approval of the Economic Stabilization Director and the Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion, announced that the Government would see that slaughter of each of the three main species of livestock—cattle and calves, hogs, and sheep and lambs—was separately profitable at least on an annual basis and, to the fullest extent practicable, at all times;

(b) That the substance of this announcement was embodied in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 by the so-called Barkley-Bates amendment, effective July 1, 1945, providing that maximum prices for meat and meat products, after the effective date of the amendment, should allow for a reasonable margin of profit to the processing industry as a group on each of the three main species;

(c) That this announcement, together with the Barkley-Bates amendment to the Emergency Price Control Act, was reasonably understood and relied on by the industry as an undertaking that maximum prices for meat and meat products, or subsidy rates, would be adjusted, if necessary, for the purpose of affording the industry as a whole a reasonable margin of profit on each main species with respect to livestock slaughtered from July 1, 1945, to October 31, 1945;

(d) That this undertaking was necessary in order to obtain the necessary supply of meat and to implement the production and stabilization programs;

(e) That a return of 0.7 per cent on sales is the current equivalent, or more than the equivalent, of the return earned by the industry as a whole in the representative peacetime period 1936–1939 and constitutes, therefore, a reasonable margin of profit on each of the three main species;

(f) That the payments authorized in section 1 of this directive are necessary in order to carry out the foregoing undertaking;

(g) That on or about April 1, 1945, the Price Administrator and the Economic Stabilization Director announced that adjustments would be made in ceiling prices for meat and meat products or in subsidy payments in order to see, first, that so far as practicable the revenues of the meat packing industry during each of the various periods of the year would equal something more than costs of production, and second, that at all events its earnings for the year as a whole would equal those in a fair prewar base period;

(h) That this announcement was reasonably understood and relied on by the industry as an undertaking that, with respect to livestock slaughtered from April 1, 1945 to October 31, 1945, subsidy payments would be adjusted, if necessary, for the purpose of placing the industry as a whole, and any clearly defined segment thereof, in as favorable a position for the year as a whole as it was in during a representative prewar period both from the standpoint of average earnings and from the standpoint of the proportion of the output produced profitably;

(i) That this undertaking was necessary in order to obtain the necessary supply of meat and to implement the production and stabilization programs;

(j) That earnings for the industry as a whole for the fiscal year predominant in the industry were materially in excess of the return on net worth earned in the representative prewar period 1936–1939, and that a smaller proportion of the output was produced at a loss than in that prewar period;

(k) That if the earnings of the largest packers, which received substantial returns from sales of non-food products, are excluded from consideration, the earnings of the remainder of the industry for the fiscal year were still equivalent to the return on net worth earned by this portion of the industry in 1936–1939; but that on this basis a larger proportion of the output was produced at a loss than in the base period;

(l) That the remainder of the industry just referred to (that is, the industry exclusive of the largest packers which received substantial returns from sales of non-food products) constitutes a distinct segment thereof, and that the undertaking described in paragraph (g), above, requires that this segment of the industry be placed in as favorable a position as it was in during a representative peacetime period from the standpoint of the proportion of the output produced profitably.

(m) That additional subsidy payments made for the purpose of reducing the proportion of the output produced by this segment of the industry at a loss ought not to be made to those slaughterers who already have earned during the fiscal year profits materially better than normal average peacetime profits; and that a return of one percent on sales can reasonably be taken as representing, under current conditions, profits materially better than normal average peacetime profits;

(n) That while so far as practicable additional subsidy payments should be made on the principle stated in paragraph (m), above, it is impracticable to vary payments according to earnings in the case of the smallest slaughterers in the industry because of their number and the inadequacy of their records; that slaughterers who during the fiscal year would otherwise receive less than $25,000 in livestock subsidy payments (exclusive of the extra compensation provided for non-processing slaughterers) may fairly be taken as representing this class of slaughterer; and that it is reasonable and proper and consistent with the purposes of the stabilization laws to make additional payments to this class of slaughterer irrespective of inquiry into current earnings;

(o) That the payments authorized in sections 2 to 9 of this directive are necessary to carry out the undertaking described in paragraph (g) consistently with the principles and findings stated in paragraphs (h) to (n).

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order 9250 of October 3, 1942 (7 F.R. 7871) Executive Order 9328 of April 8 1943 (8 F.R. 4681), Executive Order 9599 of August 18, 1945 (10 F.R. 10155), Executive Order 9620 of September 20, 1945 (10 F.R. 12033), the directive of October 13, 1945, issued by the Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion (10 F.R. 12812), and Executive Order 9651 (10 F.R. 13487), It is hereby ordered:

1. Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and directed to make additional subsidy payments to slaughterers on account of livestock slaughtered from July 1, 1945 to October 31, 1945 (both dates inclusive) as follows:

Cattle and calves: 8 cents per hundredweight.

Sheep and lambs: 20 cents per hundredweight.

2. Subject to the provisions of sections 3 through 9 of this directive, Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and directed to make additional subsidy payments to slaughterers on account of livestock slaughtered from April 1, 1945 to October 31, 1945 (both dates inclusive) as follows:

Cattle and calves: 7 cents per hundredweight.

Sheep and lambs: 10 cents per hundredweight.

Hogs: 15 cents per hundredweight.

3. In the case of slaughterers whose livestock subsidy payments from Reconstruction Finance Corporation, exclusive of the extra compensation provided for non-processing slaughterers, amount to less than $25,000 for the fiscal year, the payments provided for in section 2 of this directive shall be made without reference to the earnings position of the applicant.

4. In the case of slaughterers whose livestock subsidy payments from Reconstruction Finance Corporation, computed as provided in section 3, amount to $25,000 or more for the fiscal year, the payments provided for in section 2 of this directive shall be made only if the slaughterer's profit for the fiscal year, before state and Federal income and excess profits taxes, amounts to less than one percent of his net sales of goods and services, and only to the extent necessary to return such profit to the slaughterer.

5. Any subsidy payments which have been made or to which the slaughterer is entitled under section 1 of this directive shall be taken into account in determining his eligibility to receive the payments provided for in section 2.

6. For the purposes of this directive, "fiscal year" means the slaughterer's fiscal year ending between October 15, 1945 and January 15, 1946. If the slaughterer's fiscal year does not end within this period, "fiscal year" means the twelve months preceding the date between October 16, 1945 and January 15, 1946, on which a quarter of the slaughterer's fiscal year ends.

7. For the purposes of determining the payments to be made under sections 2 to 9 of this directive, "slaughterer" includes all affiliated enterprises taken as a unit. Enterprises are affiliated if:

(a) The one owns a majority interest in the other; or

(b) The same person or group of persons owns a majority interest in both; or

(c) The one owns a majority interest in any affiliate of the other.

8. "Net sales", for the purposes of this directive, means the slaughterer's total gross sales of products and services, less cash and trade discounts, returns and allowances, and freight and cartage out. Subsidy payments recieved by the slaughterer shall not be included in computing net sales.

9. "Profit", for the purposes of this directive, means the excess of net sales of goods and services, plus all subsidy payments (including payments to which the slaughterer would have been entitled but for violation of an Office of Price Administration regulation), over costs and expenses. In determining the relationship of profit to net sales for the purpose of this directive, the following items shall be excluded from costs and expenses:

(a) Administrative salaries, bonuses, commissions and withdrawals, to the extent that they are unreasonably high in comparison with those paid in previous years;

(b) Any wage or salary payments made in violation of the stabilization laws;

(c) Any increase in wages or salaries made after August 18, 1945 which has not been approved by the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency;

(d) Any amount paid, or obligation incurred, as a fine or civil penalty, or in settlement of any liability, on account of violation of any regulation of the Office of Price Administration;

(e) Any amount paid by the slaughterer for commodities or services in excess of the applicable maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration;

(f) Any items, including provisions for reserves, which are not properly chargeable as operating costs or expenses during the fiscal year under generally accepted accounting methods.

10. Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall require that every slaughterer agree, as a condition of receiving any payment authorized by this directive, that he will furnish to any agency designated by the Stabilization Administrator his books, records, income tax returns or any other information, as required, bearing upon his eligibility to receive such payments.

11. The provisions of section 7 of Office of Economic Stabilization directive No. 41 shall apply to the payments provided for in this directive with respect to violations occurring within the slaughterer's fiscal year.

12. Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and directed to amend its Regulation No. 3—Livestock Slaughter Payments—in accordance with the provisions of this Directive.

[SO 119, Order 24]

UNITED METAL BOX CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. The United Metal Box Company, Brooklyn, New York may increase by no more than 8.1% its ceiling prices for sales to each class of purchaser of the metal kitchen cabinets which it manufactures. This increase in ceiling prices need not be separately stated on the invoice.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of any article which the manufacturer sells at a price adjusted in accordance with this order, shall determine their maximum resale prices in the following manner:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 by the use of a pricing chart shall compute his ceiling prices in the manner provided by that regulation.

(2) A wholesaler who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 shall find his ceiling price in the manner provided by that regulation.

(3) A purchaser for resale who must determine his maximum prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of that regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall find his ceiling prices according to the method and procedure set forth in that section using as his "cost" his invoice cost, but not including any separately stated adjustment charge.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(4) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his ceiling price under any of the above methods, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances, on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

SPECIAL RULES FOR DECEMBER 1945 FOR SELLERS WITH SURCHARGES

[SO 108,[1] Special Order 9]

An opinion accompanying this Special Order No. 9 under section 17 of Supplementary Order 108, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order provides for a special type of operation during December 1945 for sellers who, during the third quarter of 1945 incurred net surcharges which they had not made up by December 1. Such sellers are not required to operate on a makeup basis (as described in section 7 of S. O. 108) during December 1945.

SEC. 2. Special operations during December 1945. If you incurred a net surcharge during the third quarter of 1945 and have not made up such surcharge in its entirety by December 1, 1945, your deliveries of all items must be made at such prices that, during December 1945, your total net dollar amount charged for all items does not exceed the total of your maximum average prices multiplied separately for each category by the number of units delivered in that category (that is, the total net dollar amount you would have charged for all of your merchandise if you had delivered each item at the maximum average price for its category).

If your total net dollar amount charged during December 1945 is higher than the total net dollar amount you would have charged if you had delivered each item at the maximum average price (for its category) the amount of the excess constitutes an overcharge on the aggregate of your deliveries during December 1945.

This special order shall become effective as of December 1, 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region II by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by General Order 68, it is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does. This basic order puts into one document the provisions which will be common to all future orders establishing flat (dollars-and-cents) maximum prices for sales by all persons except manufacturers of commodities under the jurisdiction of the Building Materials and Construction Price Branch of the Office of Price Administration which are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation, 3rd Revised Maximum Price Regulation 13, Maximum Price Regulation 44 (except as to sales covered by Maximum Price Regulation 525) and Maximum Price Regulation 293 (except as to sales covered by Maximum Price Regulation 525) and Maximum Price Regulation 381, to be issued by the New York Regional Office, Region II, pursuant to the authority contained in General Order 68. The orders to be issued under this Basic Order are referred to herein as adopting orders and when issued will expressly adopt the provisions of this basic order. The provisions of the regulations above named remain unaffected by this basic order unless and until adopting orders are issued under this order. When such adopting orders are issued the maximum prices fixed by such adopting orders will supersede any maximum prices or pricing methods previously fixed by the applicable regulation above named as to the commodities covered by such adopting order on sales in the area covered by such adopting order. Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order, all other provisions of the regulation applicable to the commodity or commodities covered by adopting orders shall apply to sales covered by such adopting orders.

(b) Transactions covered by this order. This order covers all sales by all persons except manufacturers of commodities under the jurisdiction of the Building Materials and Construction Price Branch of the Office of Price Administration which are covered by the regulations above named.

(c) Relationship of this order and all adopting orders under this basic order to the General Maximum Price Regulation, 3d Revised Maximum Price Regulation 13, Maximum Price Regulation 44, Maximum Price Regulation 293 and Maximum Price Regulation 381. Adopting orders issued under this basic order fixing maximum prices for sales of commodities named therein in areas described therein shall supersede any maximum prices or pricing methods previously fixed by any other regulation or order except as modified by this order and by adopting orders hereafter issued. All other provisions of the applicable regulation shall continue to apply to sales covered by this order and by such adopting orders.

(d) Posting of maximum prices. Every seller making sales covered by any adopting order under this basic order shall post a copy of the list of maximum prices fixed by such adopting order in each of his places of business in the area covered by such adopting order in a manner plainly visible to all purchasers. Every seller making sales covered by any adopting order issued under this basic order shall, if requested by the purchaser, make available to the purchaser for inspection a copy of this order and a copy of the applicable adopting order.

(e) Sales slips and records. Every seller covered by any adopting order issued under this basic order who has customarily given his customers a sales slip or other evidence of purchase must continue to do so. Upon request from a customer, such seller, regardless of previous custom, must give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, name and address of the seller, a description of each item sold and the price received for each item. If such seller customarily prepared the sales slip in more than one copy, he must keep for at least six months after delivery, a duplicate copy of each sales slip delivered by him pursuant to this section. Each such seller shall also keep at his place of business all records required by the applicable regulation and make the same available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(f) Amendment. This order may be revised, amended, revoked or modified at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

Each such seller shall also keep such records of each sale as he customarily kept.

[Region I Order G–7 Under RMPR 251]

Installed Mineral Wool Insulation in Boston Area

An opinion accompanying this order, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Under the Authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region I by section 9 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, and by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328, and 9599, Order No. G–1 is hereby issued.

Section 1. Transactions covered by this order. This order covers sales of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis in existing structures located in the area set forth in section 3 of this order. Certain items of incidental construction work are also given specific prices by this order when performed by sellers of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis. All other incidental construction work remains covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251.

"Mineral wool" means rock wool, slag wool, glass wool or any other material used to retain or exclude heat, whether loose or in batt or blanket form.

"Existing structures" means completed structures, whether occupied or unoccupied, and includes ordinary changes, improvements, remodeling, and additions to such structures.

"On an installed basis" means a transaction in which the seller furnishes mineral wool insulation, together with the labor, services and material required to incorporate such insulation into an existing structure. Installation may be performed by the pneumatic or blowing method, by the hand-packing method, or by the use of batts and blankets.

"Incidental construction work" means work performed or services rendered with respect to a building or structure apart from the installation of mineral wool insulation.

Sec. 2. Relationship of this Order No. G–1 to Revised MPR 251. (a) The provisions of this order supersede sections 6, 7, 8, 16, and 17 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251, except as otherwise provided in this order, with respect to sales of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis and certain items of incidental construction work. Except as otherwise provided herein, all transactions subject to this order shall remain subject to all provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251, together with all amendments that have been or hereafter may be issued.

(b) On and after the effective date of this order, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell, offer to sell, or deliver in the area covered by this order mineral wool insulation on an installed basis or incidental construction work listed in Table I at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this order, Provided, however, If the seller has complied with section 9, his recomputed price shall be his maximum price and any offer, sale, or delivery in excess thereof shall, for the purposes of this order, be of no effect.

(c) An employer paying or about to pay labor rates higher than those in effect for him on the effective date of this order by reason of the pre-determination of wage rates by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act or any order or authorization of the Wage Adjustment Board, National War Labor Board, or Economic Stabilization Director may file a petition for the amendment of this order to reflect such increased labor rates. Such a petition for amendment shall conform in all respects with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that it shall be filed with the Boston Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration.

Sec. 3. Geographical applicability. This order shall apply to installations in structures located in the following Massachusetts cities and towns referred to in this order as "Metropolitan Boston Area":

Abington, Acton, Andover, Arlington, Ashland, Avon, Bedford, Belmont, Beverly, Billerica, Boston, Boxford, Braintree, Brockton, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Carlisle, Chelsea, Cohasset, Concord, Danvers, Dedham, Dover, Easton, Everett, Foxborough, Framingham, Hanover, Hingham, Holbrook, Holliston, Hull, Lexington, Lincoln, Lynn, Lynnfield, Malden, Marblehead, Medfield, Medford, Melrose, Middleton, Millis, Milton, Nahant, Natick, Needham, Newton, Norfolk, North Andover, North Reading, Norwell, Norwood, Peabody, Quincy, Randolph, Reading, Revere, Rockland, Salem, Saugus, Scituate, Sharon, Sherborn, Somerville, Stoneham, Stoughton, Sudbury, Swampscott, Tewksbury, Topsfield, Wakefield, Walpole, Waltham, Watertown, Wayland, Wellesley, Wenham, Weston, Westwood, Weymouth, Whitman, Wilmington, Winchester, Winthrop and Woburn.

Sec. 4. Maximum prices for sales of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis and incidental construction work.—(a) Mineral wool insulation on an installed basis. The maximum prices for sales of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis shall be those shown in Table I of this section. Prices apply to all types and thicknesses of blown mineral wool and to all types and thicknesses of hand packed loose mineral wool and to batts and blankets. The prices listed in Table I are based upon an insulation thickness of 4 inches. For each inch or fraction of inch of insulation over 4 inches, when ordered by the buyer, the seller may make the following additional charges:

For flat areas, 3½¢ per square foot.
For vertical areas, 3½¢ per square foot.
For sealed slopes, 3½¢ per square foot.

For each inch of thickness under 4 inches the seller shall deduct 2¢ per square foot. A ⅜ inch tolerance may be allowed for thicknesses of 4 inches or over, but no tolerance shall be allowed for thicknesses under 4 inches.

The diagrams referred to in Table I are on file with the Division of the Federal Register, and are hereby made a part of this order. For the convenience of sellers and buyers, and in the interest of simplification and clarity of description, copies of these diagrams (known as Home Insulation Diagrams) may be obtained at the Boston Regional Office of Price Administration.

Where a machine or a crew of two or more workers is used on mineral wool insulation jobs and the total charge as determined in accordance with maximum prices listed in Table I is $100 or less, the seller may add $10 to such charge.

(b) Incidental construction work. Maximum prices for certain incidental construction work are established by categories 29 to 35 of Table I. The work described by these categories shall be subject to the maximum prices established in the table, only when performed and sold by the installer of mineral wool insulation. When sold by other sellers the maximum price shall be determined under the applicable area order for such sellers and if there is no applicable area order, then maximum price shall be determined under Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251. When any incidental construction work necessary for the completion of the installation of "mineral wool" (whether listed in categories 29 to 35, inclusive, or not) is performed by a subcontractor but sold by the installer, the installer's maximum price shall be the price charged by the subcontractor not to exceed the subcontractor's maximum price determined under the applicable area order for such work, and if there is no applicable area order covering such incidental construction work, the subcontractor's maximum price shall be determined under Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251.

Sec. 5. Measurements. It shall be the seller's responsibility to ascertain that all measurements are accurate. Measurements for exterior walls are to be taken overall, with no deduction for openings, except for sun porch walls, store fronts or similar areas where windows and door areas must be deducted. In the case of elevator wells, ventilators, skylights, monitors and pent houses on flat roofs the entire such area must be deducted where they are more than 16 square feet in area and extend through the flat ceiling area to be insulated. For attic floors outside gross dimensions may be taken. In measuring the height of knee walls, to the height between floors, joists and rafters add one foot for floor seal piling of insulation. For slopes add six inches to length of clear span for capping intersecting surfaces. For flat ceilings which intersect slopes add one foot to length of span taken at right angles to intersection slopes. For stairwell walls measurement may be taken as a rectangle from floor to ceiling and not as triangles. Where the exterior walls are of brick and/or stone veneer or solid brick, the area of floors or ceilings to be insulated shall be determined by taking gross interior dimensions.

In determing the total of the square foot area for each category of insulation installed a tolerance of 5 percent will be permitted.

Sec. 6. Maximum prices for special insulation and related work and incidental construction. (a) The maximum prices that may be charged for sales in the area covered by this order for special insulation and related work and incidental construction work for which no separate dollars-and-cents price has been set out in Table I of this order shall be the maximum prices established in accordance with Revised Maximum Price Regulation 251.

Sec. 7. Quoting a "guaranteed price." The seller may offer to sell an insulation job covered by this order on the basis of a "guaranteed price" wherein the seller agrees to charge a fixed amount: Provided, however, That the so-called "guaranteed price" must not be higher than the maximum price figured in accordance with the pricing methods and requirements of this order. The seller shall stamp or otherwise mark conspicuously on each invoice a statement in substantially the following form: "Prices are at or below ceiling prices set by OPA Regional Order G–1 under RMPR 251."

Sec. 8. Records and invoices. (a) Every seller of mineral wool insulation on an installed basis, whether the sale is made as a part of a general contract calling for installation of other commodities or not, shall: (1) Preserve records showing the information given in compliance with subparagraphs (i) to (vi) of this section. (2) Upon completion of the work or within a reasonable time thereafter, if requested by the purchaser, give to the purchaser an invoice or similar document showing:

(i) The date of the sale and the date on which the installation was completed.

(ii) The name and address of the seller and buyer.

(iii) The number of square feet and type of insulation installed, the thickness of insulation material, and the areas in which such insulation material was installed.

(iv) The price charged for each separate category exactly as stated in Table I including category number and diagram number.

(v) The terms of sale.

(vi) A statement shown separately on the invoice of any special insulation and related work and incidental construction work and the prices therefor.

(b) Every person making sales subject to this order shall notify the purchaser of the existence of this order, and, if requested, show the purchaser a copy of this order and a copy of the home insulation diagrams referred to in this order and Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

Sec. 9. Recomputation. Within 30 days from the commencement of the work performed pursuant to a sale covered by this order, the seller shall recompute his price by reviewing the categories and other factors used in arriving at his price on the basis of actual services rendered and material furnished and shall determine whether the price quoted or charged is the properly established maximum price. In case the price quoted or charged is higher than the maximum price, the seller shall reduce his price to the properly established maximum price and shall refund to the buyer within 30 days from the commencement of the work any excess which has been paid, or by written notice to the buyer, shall cancel the appropriate part of the indebtedness for any unpaid excess, or both, as the case may be. In the event an extension of time is required, the seller may apply in writing to the Boston Regional Office and for good cause shown, the Regional Administrator or his designee shall grant the extension in writing.

SEC. 10. Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Agencies of the United States and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this order.

SEC. 11. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this order. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more maximum price regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 12. Revocation. This order may be revised, amended, or revoked at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

This Order No. G–1 shall become effective November 5, 1945.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of November, A. D., 1945.

The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (Commonwealth), a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 12 (c) thereof and Rule U-46 thereunder, regarding the proposed payment of a dividend of $1.50 per share, subject to approval by this Commission, on the 2nd day of January, 1946, to stockholders of record at the close of business on the 7th day of December, 1945, on its 1,482,000 shares of preferred stock outstanding, the aggregate amounts of such dividend payment being $2,223,000; and

Commonwealth having stated in the declaration that "The Board * * * recognizes that the restatement of the carrying value of Commonwealth's investments, which restatement it is proposed in the Amended Plan will be made upon consummation thereof, will result in a decrease in such carrying value in an amount not less than the sum of (a) the amount shown as 'Earned Surplus' in the balance sheet as at October 31, 1945 and (b) the amount of net income to be received subsequent to October 31, 1945 and prior to the date of such restatement, provided such restatement is completed within some reasonable period, say by June 30, 1946, and, accordingly, the 'Earned Surplus' account is so qualified that, under the rules and practice of the Commission, payment of said dividend is subject to the requirements of Commission authorization under the provisions of section 12 (c) of the act and Rule U-46 in spite of the fact that, as authorized by section 34 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the source of payment of such dividend under such Law is Commonwealth's net profits for the current and preceding fiscal years"; and

Said declaration having been filed on November 9, 1945 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in the said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission regarding the proposed payment as similar in principle to those proposed by Commonwealth and permitted by the Commission's orders of June 24, September 13, November 26, 1943, March 8, June 3, September 5, December 21, 1944, March 12, 1945, May 30, 1945, and September 17, 1945. (Holding Company Act Releases Nos. 4383, 4560, 4709, 4933, 5084, 5268, 5506, 5659, 5833 and 6056) and, as in the case of said prior dividend payments, as being made out of capital; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective; and

Commonwealth having requested that the effective date of the declaration be accelerated to facilitate the prompt payment of the proposed dividend to the preferred stockholders and the Commission deeming it appropriate that such request for acceleration be granted;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the Act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, Provided, however, That this order shall not be construed as a determination that such dividend payment is or is not taxable to the recipient pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, And provided further, That Commonwealth accompany the dividend checks with a statement to the effect (1) that the Commission regarded the dividend payment as being made out of capital for purposes of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and (2) that the Commission's statement to this effect did not purport to be a determination that such dividend payment is or is not taxable to the recipient pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEATTLE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND CONSOLIDATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 3d day of December 1945.

Notice is hereby given that Seattle Gas Company (Seattle), a public utility subsidiary of Portland Electric Power Company and Portland General Electric Company, registered holding companies, has filed an application with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 6 (b) thereof and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Seattle proposes to issue and sell, at a price to be determined by competitive bidding, $4,800,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, ____% Series due 1976. The net proceeds from the sale of the bonds proposed to be issued will be applied by the company to the redemption on April 1, 1946, of $4,678,250 principal amount of Seattle's First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 5% Series A, due October 1, 1954, presently outstanding, at 102½% of the principal amount thereof, or $4,795,206.25. The balance of $32,250 principal amount of such First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 5% Series A, held in the treasury of the company will be surrendered to the trustee under the mortgage securing such bonds at or prior to the time of issuance and sale of the First Mortgage Bonds, ____% Series due 1976. Seattle further proposes to use its treasury funds to pay accrued interest payable to April 1, 1946. It is also provided that treasury funds will be used to the extent that the proceeds from the sale of the bonds are not sufficient to pay any balance of the redemption price. To the extent, if any, that such proceeds exceed the amount required for such redemption, the excess will be added to the general funds of the company to reimburse it in part for the cost of net additions to its utility plant made during the period from January 1, 1944 to August 31, 1945, inclusive, in the amount of $192,342.

The proposed issue and sale of the new bonds is subject to the applicant obtaining the express authorization of the Department of Public Utilities of the State of Washington, in which state Seattle is organized and doing business.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to such matters and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission; and

It further appearing to the Commission that evidence bearing on the matters recited above and upon the questions to be determined is contained in the record of the proceedings before this Commission entitled "In the Matter of Seattle Gas Company, File No. 54-124, File No. 59-79"; and

It further appearing that the trial examiner heretofore designated to preside at the hearings (File No. 54-124, File No. 59-79) is unable to preside at the time hereinafter mentioned and that a new trial examiner should be designated at the consolidated hearings herein;

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of this order by mailing copies thereof by regsitered mail to the applicant and to the Department of Public Utilities of the State of Washington and that notice shall be given to all other persons by publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Richard E. Townsend, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by the Commission for that purpose, be, and he is hereby, designated to preside at such consolidated hearing, in lieu of the trial examiner heretofore designated to preside at the hearing "In the Matter of Seattle Gas Company, File No. 54-124, File No. 59-79", and the said Richard E. Townsend is hereby granted all the powers heretofore granted to the trial examiner so heretofore designated.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed issue and sale of the new bonds is solely for the purpose of financing the business of the applicant and will have been expressly authorized by the State Commission of the state in which the applicant is organized and doing business.

2. Whether and to what extent it is appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers to attach terms and conditions with respect to the proposed issue and sale.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions, or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said consolidated proceedings or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved.

PART 204—ISSUE OF SUBSTITUTES OF LOST, DESTROYED, MUTILATED AND DEFACED CHECKS DRAWN ON THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 3, 1945.

Part 204, Subchapter A, Chapter II, Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America (appearing also as Treasury Department Circular No. 327 (Revised), dated April 29, 1944) is hereby revised to read as follows:

Sec.
204.0 Introductory.
204.1 Advice of nonreceipt or loss.
204.3 Issuance of substitute check.
204.4 Receipt or recovery of original check.
204.5 Removal of stoppage.
204.6 Amendment of regulations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 204.0 to 204.6, inclusive, issued under R. S. 3646, as amended by the act of December 3, 1945.

§ 204.0 Introductory. This part governing the issuance of substitutes of checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States other than those drawn by officers or employees of the Post Office Department is hereby established pursuant to the provisions of section 3646 of the Revised Statutes of 1873, as amended (Public Law No. 243, 79th Congress). The requirements contained herein must be strictly observed except as the Secretary of the Treasury, being satisfied that observance thereto is not necessary to carry out the purposes of the law and this part may waive or modify any such requirement.

§ 204.1 Advice of nonreceipt or loss. In the event of the nonreceipt, loss, or destruction of a check drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, or the mutilation or defacement of such a check to an extent which renders it nonnegotiable, the owner, better to protect his interest, should immediately notify the drawer, describing the check, stating the purpose for which it was issued, giving, if possible, its date, number and amount, and requesting that payment be stopped. If the name or address of the drawer is not known the request for stoppage of payment should be sent to the Treasurer of the United States, stating the purpose for which the check was issued, the name of the Department or Agency authorizing the payment and if possible, the date, number and amount of the check. In cases involving mutilated or defaced checks the owner should enclose the mutilated or defaced check with his communication to the drawer or Treasurer.

Upon receipt of advice from an owner as to the nonreceipt, loss, destruction, mutilation, or defacement of a check the drawer will, if appropriate, transmit the owner's letter (together with the mutilated or defaced check in cases involving such checks) to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington 25, D. C., or the Federal Reserve Bank through which the check is payable, as the case may be, together with (1) a request by the drawer for stoppage, (2) a certificate as to the accuracy of the check description contained in such request for stoppage, and (3) a statement that the check was properly issued.

Where such a check is determined to be outstanding, the Treasurer's Office will furnish the claimant an appropriate form for obtaining a substitute check.

§ 204.2 Request for substitute check; when undertaking of indemnity not required; execution of applications in foreign countries. An undertaking of indemnity (Form 2244) in a penal sum equal to the amount of the check or, in an appropriate case, an application (Form 2244a), in substantially the form prescribed, must be executed by the claimant and submitted to the Chief Disbursing Officer, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C.[1] In the event the claimant is someone other than the payee of the original check he should present clear and satisfactory evidence of his ownership.

Unless the Secretary of the Treasury deems that an undertaking of indemnity is essential to the public interest, no undertaking of indemnity shall be required in the following classes of cases:

(a) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement, as the case may be, occurred without fault of the owner or holder and while the check was in the custody or control of the United States, including the Postal Service when carrying mail for an officer, employee, agent, or agency of the United States when performing services in connection with an official function of the United States, but not including the Postal Service when otherwise acting solely in its capacity as a public carrier of the mail, or of a person thereunto duly authorized as lawful agent of the United States; or while it was in the course of shipment effected pursuant to and in accordance with regulations issued under the provisions of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, as amended;

(b) If substantially the entire check is presented and surrendered by the owner or holder and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied as to the identity of the check presented and that any missing portions are not sufficient to form the basis of a valid claim against the United States; and in cases where the circumstances justify such action, a letter of application may be accepted in lieu of Form 2244a;

(c) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the original check is not negotiable and cannot be made the basis of a valid claim against the United States;

(d) If the amount of the check is not more than $200.00 and the check has not been endorsed by the payee;

(e) If the owner or holder is the United States or an officer or employee thereof in his official capacity, a State, the District of Columbia, a Territory or possession of the United States, including the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, a municipal corporation or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, a corporation the whole of whose capital is owned by the United States, a foreign government, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

An application (Form 2244a) executed in a foreign country, by one other than an officer or an employee of the United States, or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, shall be sworn to before (1) a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, or (2) an officer of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or (3) an official of such foreign country authorized by law to administer oaths generally, and such foreign official shall affix his official seal, if any, and a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States shall certify that the foreign official who administered the oath was duly authorized under the laws of such foreign country so to act.

§ 204.3 Issuance of substitute check. Upon approval of the undertaking of indemnity (Form 2244) or application (Form 2244a), and before the close of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the original check was issued, the Treasurer of the United States will transfer the amount of the original check from the account of the drawer to a Special Deposit Account carried in the name of the Secretary of the Treasury. A substitute check payable from the Special Deposit Account will be issued in favor of the claimant under current date and showing such information as may be necessary to identify the original check. In the case of checks issued on account of public-debt obligations and transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws substitutes may be issued without limitation of time.

§ 204.4 Receipt or recovery of original check. If the original check is received or recovered after the owner has requested the drawer or the Treasurer of the United States to stop payment on the original check but before a substitute check has been received, he should immediately advise the drawer or the Treasurer, as the case may be, that the stoppage request may be disregarded.

If the original check is received or recovered after a substitute has been received, the original shall not be cashed, but shall be immediately forwarded to the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., for cancellation. Under no circumstances should both checks be cashed.

§ 204.5 Removal of stoppage. Requests for removal of stoppage shall be addressed by the drawer to the Treasurer of the United States, or the Federal Reserve Bank through which the check is payable, as the case may be. The drawer shall immediately advise the Chief Disbursing Officer, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., of any such request made by him. No request for removal of stoppage shall be honored by the Treasurer of the United States or any Federal Reserve Bank after the receipt of advice from the Chief Disbursing Officer that a substitute check is in the course of preparation.

§ 204.6 Amendment of regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the foregoing rules and regulations.

Previous regulations superseded. This circular supersedes Treasury Department Circular No. 327, dated April 29, 1944, and all previous regulations governing the issuance of duplicate checks.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Marcellus M. Murdock, surviving trustee of the Victoria Murdock Estate, doing business as The Wichita Eagle, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provision hereof.

(c) The restrictions and prohibitions contained herein shall apply to Marcellus M. Murdock, surviving trustee of the Victoria Murdock Estate, doing business as The Wichita Eagle, his or its successors and assigns or persons acting in his or its behalf. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

The introductory text of Section 1305.28 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) This Supplementary Order No. 24 provides temporary rules for determining maximum prices for sales at wholesale and retail of articles which are "specially packaged" for the 1945 Christmas season by the manufacturer, producer, processor or fabricator (but not by any retailer or wholesaler). These rules shall not apply to sales which take place after January 15, 1946, nor shall they apply to any sales subject to the provision of Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 421,[2] 422,[3] and 423.[4]

Section 1305.28 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Rule 2. The package and its contents may be treated as a single commodity and its maximum price determined in accordance with the pricing provisions of § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation if (i) the packaging consists of material other than paper or ordinary cardboard, and is of a type which would normally carry a combined price for the contents and packaging higher than the price at which the contents would be sold without special packaging, or if (ii) the package contains an article or articles all or any of which are not regularly sold by the "seller" in seasons other than the Christmas season. The price so determined shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration but it need not be reported as required in the case of other commodities priced under § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

This amendment shall become effective December 10, 1945.

Issued this 5th day of December 1945.

SECTION 1. Applicability. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) hereof this regulation shall apply to all sales within the United States and the District of Columbia of domestic and imported finished rice and rice milling by-products, whether for immediate or future delivery.

(b) Sales excepted. This regulation shall not apply to:

(6) Sales and deliveries of finished rice and rice milling by-products, whenever circumstances of emergency make their purchase by the United States, or any of its agencies imperative and it is impossible to secure or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable. Such purchases and deliveries may be made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1[8] to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended: Provided, however, That the Administrator may, by order, waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances, and he may, in lieu thereof, require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

SEC. 2. Sales at other than maximum prices. (a) Regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall, in the course of trade or business, buy or receive any of the commodities covered by this regulation at a price above the maximum price established by this regulation, nor shall any person agree, solicit, offer, or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, however, That this prohibition is subject to the exception provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(1) Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery, but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by an order of the Administrator or of any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged or paid.

SEC. 3. Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to finished rice or rice milling by-products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or an agreement requiring the buyer to sell any commodity in return, or other trade understanding or by any other means.

SEC. 4. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the license revocation or suspension provisions, civil enforcement actions, suits for damages, and criminal penalties, as provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 5. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[9] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Every person shall keep for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect a complete record of each sale or purchase subject hereto showing the date thereof, the names and addresses of the buyer and seller, the price contracted for, paid or received, and the quantity and quality of the finished rice or rice milling by-products sold or purchased.

(c) Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration is hereby authorized to grant to sellers of finished rice written permission to function as primary distributors upon the receipt and on the basis of an application provided for in this section. Pending action on their applications, sellers are hereby authorized to function as primary distributors. The base period for such dealers shall be the two year period ending April 30, 1942. The "quota" for a dealer in any calendar year shall be 50 percent of his sales as a dealer of imported and domestic broken or granulated rice during the base period.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 7, 10 F.R. 4910, effective 4-30-45]

(b) The maximum price for sales of broken or granulated rice by a dealer, not in excess of his quota, shall be the maximum price as set forth in section 9 of this regulation, plus 15 cents per 100 pounds, plus in each case the inbound and outbound transportation costs actually incurred by the dealer. The maximum price for sales of broken or granulated rice to industrial users by a seller in excess of his quota shall be his supplier's maximum price, plus the inbound and outbound transportation costs actually incurred by him.

(c) Any dealer under this regulation must make application in writing to the regional office of the Office of Price Administration in which he has his principal place of business for permission to make sales as such dealer and he must receive a written approval of his application. The application shall contain:

Prior to April 30, 1945, and thereafter pending action on their applications filed prior to that date, sellers are authorized to function as dealers under this paragraph. Applications may be made after April 30, 1945, but in such cases the applicant may not add on the charge as a dealer until permission is obtained.

(b) At or prior to the time of delivery, every seller of rice milling by-products subject to this regulation shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice covering the rice-milling by-products in question. This invoice must bear the same lot number or other mark of identification as the lot in question.

In other words, the seller may not collect from the buyer any more than the maximum price, including allowable transportation so paid, less any amount which the buyer pays the broker. PART 5—SURPLUS PROPERTY DISPOSAL

PUBLICATION OF NOTICES

Section 5.307–02 of Chapter I, Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 5.307–02 Publication of notice. Upon receipt of a declaration of surplus real property the disposal agency shall promptly and widely publicize the same, giving information adequate to inform interested persons of the general nature of the property and its possible uses. Such publicity shall be by public advertising, and may also include press releases, display advertisements, and any other appropriate means which it is customary to use for advertising notices of sale. Such public advertising shall consist of a sale notice containing substantially the matters set forth in Exhibit A of Regulation No. 5 of the SPA and shall be published at least three (3) times during the ninety (90) days following the date such notice is first published at approximate intervals of twenty-one (21) days. The priority chart (Exhibit C of SPA Regulation No. 5) may be used as a guide in preparing the notice for publication. Ordinarily it will not be necessary to include all the information in the chart in any one notice. For example, if the declaration indicates that all tracts within the project area were acquired by the Government after December 31, 1939, it will not be necessary in preparing the notice to call attention to the priorities applicable to property acquired before that date. Also, if the project area does not include property other than section 23 real property, it will be unnecessary to include priorities applicable to such property.

The foregoing regulations have been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture. (SPA Reg. 5, as amended; Surplus Property Act of 1944, 58 Stat. 765; 50 U.S.C. App., Sup., 1611)

§ 706.702 Definitions—(a) Turpentine farm. The land and turpentine timber owned or leased, or operated on a sharecrop basis, and under one management and in one general locality, which is being operated for the production of gum naval stores.

(b) Turpentine tree. Any tree of either of the two species, longleaf pine (Pinus palustris) or slash pine (Pinus caribaea).

(c) Gum naval stores. Crude gum (oleoresin), gum turpentine, and gum rosin produced from living trees. Gum naval stores does not include naval stores produced from dead timber, stumps, knots, etc.

(d) Producer. Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other business enterprise, doing business as a single legal entity, producing gum naval stores from timber controlled for turpentine purposes through fee ownership, cash lease, percentage lease, share lease, or other form of control.

(e) Face. The whole wound or aggregate of streaks made by chipping, streaking, or pulling the live tree to stimulate the flow of crude gum (oleoresin), hereinafter referred to as gum.

(f) Cup. A container made of metal, clay, or other material hung on or below the face to accumulate the flow of gum.

(g) Tins. The gutters or aprons, made of sheet metal or other material, used to aid in conducting the gum from a face into a cup.

(h) Crop. 10,000 faces.

(i) Tract. A portion of a turpentine farm having a continuous stand of trees supporting faces of one age class or intermingled age classes.

(j) Drift. A portion or subdivision of a tract set apart for convenience of operation or administration.

(k) D. b. h. Diameter breast height; i. e., diameter of tree measured 4½ feet from the ground.

(l) Round tree. Any tree which has not been faced or scarred.

(m) Scarred tree. A tree having an idle face or similar scar which does not extend above 36 inches in vertical measurement from the ground.

(n) Worked-out face. A face which is 60 inches or more in vertical measurement between the shoulder of the first streak and the shoulder of the last streak, or a dry face.

(o) Turpentine season. The entire calendar year 1946, or, if a turpentine farm is operated less than the full calendar year, that period during which a producer is operating his farm for the production of gum naval stores.

(p) Work sheet. The prescribed form (NSCP–1002) for notifying the Forest Service of intention to cooperate in this program.

(q) Crop analysis. The prescribed form (NSCP–1004) outlining the plan of operation and showing the location and number of faces being worked on each turpentine farm.

(r) Application. The prescribed form (NSCP–1003) of application for payment for cooperating in this program.

§ 706.703 Eligibility; general provisions—(a) Loan and purchase programs. Only producers who are participating in this program will be eligible to participate in any loan or purchase programs which may be set up for producers during 1946, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Applicability. The provisions of this program are not applicable to any turpentining operations within the public domain of the United States, including the lands and timber owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership (such lands include, but are not limited to, lands owned by the United States which are administered by the Forest Service or the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture, or by the Division of Grazing or the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior): Provided, however, That producers having such operations shall have the privilege of participating in any loan or purchase program for naval stores producers which may be in operation during 1946.

This program is applicable to turpentine farms on lands owned by a State or a political subdivision or agency thereof or owned by corporations which are either partly or wholly owned by the United States provided such lands are temporarily under such Government or corporation ownership and are not acquired or reserved for conservation purposes. Only turpentine farms on lands that are administered by the Farm Security Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Home Owner's Loan Corporation, or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, Federal Land Banks or Production Credit Associations, shall be considered eligible unless the Forest Service finds that land administered by any other agency complies with all of the foregoing provisions for eligibility.

(c) Practices defeating purposes of programs. (1) If the Forest Service finds that any producer has adopted or participated in any practice which tends to defeat the purposes of this program or previous programs, it may withhold or require to be refunded all or any part of any payment which has been or otherwise would be made to such producer.

(2) If the Forest Service finds that the optional selective cupping, restricted cupping or good elevating practices carried out under previous programs are not maintained in accordance with good conservation practice or the effectiveness of any such practice is destroyed by the producer during this program, a deduction shall be made for the extent of the practice destroyed or not maintained. The deduction rate shall be the 1946 optional practice payment rate.

§ 706.704 Conditions of payment; performance required. In order to qualify for payment the producer shall, on every turpentine farm operated by him during the 1946 turpentine season, meet or exceed the following minimum requirements:

(a) Face installation requirements. In order to prevent damage to growing trees, the cupping method of face installation shall be used, and

(1) No face shall be installed or worked on any tree less than 9 inches d. b. h. and not more than one face shall be installed or worked on any tree less than 14 inches d. b. h. These requirements shall not apply to any tree having a worked-out face (60 inches or more in height, or a dry face) which remains idle during the 1946 turpentine season. However, if faces are unintentionally installed on undersized trees, or were so installed during the 1945 season, the producer shall detach all cups and tins from the faces on such undersized trees within time limits established by the Forest Service, and there shall be deducted from his earned payment ½ cent per face for each face on proper sized trees in each drift (or in each tract which is not subdivided into drifts) in which faces on undersized trees were so installed.

(2) The shoulder of the initial streak on any face installed on a round tree which is not deformed shall be not more than 18 inches from the ground: Provided, That when this requirement is not met the faces in the tract or drift may be worked without payment.

(3) No tree shall have any new (first-year) back face unless a live bark-bar on each side of the face is provided and maintained.

(4) Deviations from the face installation requirements may be authorized in writing in cases where a producer desires to experiment with various gum extracting methods. Such deviations will be limited to a total of not more than 1000 trees for any producer.

(b) Drift marking requirements. Any tract containing over 3000 faces installed during or after the 1945 turpentine season or other faces which are redrifted during the 1946 turpentine season shall be divided into drifts containing not less than 500 nor more than 3000 faces. Roads, fences, railroads, cleared rights-of-way, streams, and other easily followed landmarks may be used as drift lines. In the absence of such landmarks, all such drift lines shall be clearly marked by paint so that they can be followed in the field without a guide. On each side of all drift lines in such tracts at points of entrance, road crossings, corners, etc., and at intervals of not more than 450 yards along the drift line, the number or other identifying mark of the drift shall be clearly indicated, either by painted figures on a tree or on a board or other object attached to a tree. No payment will be made for faces installed during or after the 1945 turpentine season which are not subdivided into drifts and marked as required or for faces in redrifted tracts which are not marked as required. The drift lines in other tracts shall, in the absence of such above-mentioned landmarks, be marked either by paint or non-injurious blazes so that they can be followed in the field without a guide.

(c) Fire protection requirements. To promote natural reforestation on land which is not fully stocked and to prevent damage to established forest stands on (1) turpentine farms (owned or leased) and (2) all other commercially valuable or potentially valuable forest land owned by the producer, all fire control operations during the calendar year 1946 shall be conducted in a manner that will meet the applicable requirements, as follows:

(1) On fee-owned land the producer shall participate in any existing cooperative fire control system contiguous to such land, pay any assessment that may be levied against him for the purpose of forest fire protection and otherwise assist in the fire control work of the protection system. Where no such system exists, the producer shall exercise ordinary diligence in protecting such land from damage by fire.

(2) Areas being worked for naval stores may be burned but such burning shall be conducted in a manner that will prevent the destruction of established young growth and the escape of fire to adjacent land. On fee-owned land when the burning reduces the stand to less than 200 thrifty pine trees per acre or destroys any established pine reproduction in stands having less than 200 pine trees per acre before burning, a deduction of $1.00 per acre for each such acre in excess of 5 acres will be made. On lands supporting trees leased and operated for naval stores when any burning in any tract or drift reduces the stand to less than 200 thrifty pine trees per acre or destroys any established pine reproduction in stands having less than 200 pine trees per acre before burning a deduction of 40% of the payment earned for the faces in the tract or drift will be made. When fire set by the producer is allowed to escape to adjacent forest land and effective suppression action is not taken a deduction of 50¢ per acre will be made for each acre burned on adjacent land.

(3) On fee-owned land not being worked for naval stores, controlled (prescribed) burning may be practiced only on adequately stocked land (200 or more established pine trees per acre). When such burning reduces the stand to less than 200 thrifty pine trees per acre a deduction of $1.00 per acre for each such acre in excess of 5 acres will be made. When inadequately stocked fee-owned land not being worked for naval stores is burned and there is no evidence that effective suppression action was taken a deduction of 10¢ per acre for each acre so burned will be made. When fire is allowed to escape to adjacent land and effective suppression action is not taken a deduction of 50¢ per acre will be made for each acre burned on adjacent land.

(4) When requested the producer shall report all areas burned during the calendar year on his turpentine farm and on other timber land owned by him.

(5) Deviations from the above fire protection requirements may be authorized in writing in cases where the producer is following a plan of management which is designed to provide equivalent production of future stands or equivalent reforestation of desirable species.

(d) Timber cutting requirements. To promote continued production and to provide for restocking of timber upon which the naval stores, pulp and paper, lumber, and other wood-using industries are dependent, all cutting operations in timber stands owned by the producer and all cutting operations conducted in timber stands on leased areas of the producer's turpentine farm shall, during the calendar year 1946, meet the applicable requirements, as follows:

(1) In stands containing sufficient turpentine trees to justify their use in the production of gum, either at present or within the next 10 years, worked-out and defective turpentine trees and trees of other species may be cut. Round or scarred turpentine trees may be cut only for higher economic use or for thinnings. When round or scarred trees are to be utilized for high quality timbers, poles, piling or a similar higher economic purpose than the production of gum, at least 6 thrifty turpentine seed trees per acre, 10 inches or more d. b. h., shall be left uncut and undamaged. When the removal of worked-out and defective turpentine trees and trees of other species will not provide sufficient release for the remaining trees and additional thinnings are necessary, round or scarred turpentine trees may be cut, provided at least 150 turpentine trees per acre of approximately the same size as the trees which are cut are left uncut and undamaged and are well distributed over the cutting area.

(2) In stands on turpentine tree sites which contain insufficient turpentine trees to justify their use in the production of gum, either at present or within the next 10 years, worked-out, scarred, and defective turpentine trees and trees of other species may be cut. On areas containing less than 200 turpentine trees per acre which are 8 feet or more in height, at least 6 thrifty turpentine seed trees per acre, 10 inches or more d. b. h., shall be left uncut and undamaged. Areas containing more than 200 round turpentine trees per acre, 8 feet or more in height, may be thinned down to not less than 200 such trees per acre, provided trees of approximately the same size as the trees which are cut are left uncut, undamaged and well distributed on the cut-over area.

(3) In stands where other than turpentine trees predominate, or in stands of turpentine trees in areas where there is no active market for gum products, a selective cutting system by individual trees or groups of trees should be used. In immature stands at least 50 percent of the trees over 8 inches d. b. h. shall be left uncut and undamaged, and if group selection is used individual clear-cut areas shall not exceed 2½ acres in extent. Harvest cuttings with ample provision for restocking the cut-over area will be permitted on larger areas in mature stands: Provided, That at least 6 thrifty seed trees per acre, 10 inches or more d. b. h. for pine species, and 12 inches or more d. b. h. for other species, are left uncut and undamaged on the cut-over area.

(4) Deviations from the above timber cutting requirements may be authorized in writing in cases where the producer is following a plan of management which is designed to provide equivalent production of future stands of timber and equivalent restocking of cut-over areas.

(5) In clear-cutting forest lands to convert them from forest growing to other agricultural use, there must be satisfactory evidence on the ground not later than 6 months after such cutting to show that the land is being developed for the proposed use. Decision as to qualification will be made not later than June 30, 1947.

(6) When cutting operations on lands owned by the producer on any part or all of the cutting area do not meet the above timber cutting requirements or are contrary to good forestry practice, there shall be deducted from the payment earned by the producer $5.00 for each acre in excess of 5 acres on which these requirements are not met during the calendar year 1946, but the failure to meet such requirements shall not disqualify the producer from receiving the balance of the earned payment remaining after such deduction.

(7) When the timber cutting requirements of this section are not met in the tracts or drifts of faces on lands leased and operated for naval stores purposes, 40% of the earned payment for such tracts or drifts will be deducted.

(8) When any trees having faces worked under this program are to be cut, the producer shall notify the Forest Service at least 15 days before cutting begins. Payment may be made on faces on trees which are cut after October 15, 1946: Provided, That before such trees are cut the producer has received written permission for such cutting.

(9) The producer shall notify the Forest Service prior to the close of this program of all cutting operations conducted during the calendar year on his turpentine farm and in other stands owned by him. Any producer desiring advice from Forest Service representatives on his cutting problems should request the assistance of the local Inspector at least 15 days in advance of any cutting operations.

(e) Face working requirements. All faces worked must be on trees which meet the diameter requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(1) Streaks shall be made at no greater frequency than one per week; Provided, That during the months of May to September, inclusive, two streaks per week may be made.

(2) Faces must average, by tracts or drifts, at least 16 streaks by November 15, 1946; Provided, That where chemical stimulation is used a minimum of 10 streaks applied at intervals of at least two weeks will be acceptable.

(3) Total streaks per face, averaged by tracts or drifts, shall not exceed 18 inches in vertical measurement between shoulders of the first streak and shoulders of the last streak of the 1946 turpentine season; Provided, That in special cases heights up to 24 inches may be approved in writing.

(4) Faces in any tract or drift which average, at the beginning of the 1946 turpentine season, 90 inches or more in vertical measurement at the highest side between the shoulders of the first streak and shoulders of the last streak will not qualify for payment.

(f) General requirements. Each producer shall assist representatives of the Forest Service in the administration of this program by (1) giving them free access to his turpentine farm or farms, (2) counting all faces and keeping written records thereof separately by tracts and drifts, (3) furnishing count records and satisfactory evidence of control of faces to the local Inspector prior to the time the crop analysis form is executed, (4) declaring his interest in other turpentine farms and timber lands, (5) furnishing competent labor to assist the local Inspector in counting faces, (6) submitting a work sheet (Form No. NSCP–1002) and executing a crop analysis (Form No. NSCP–1004) and other prescribed forms, (7) keeping records of the number of streaks currently made on all faces in each tract or drift and furnishing such records upon request, (8) notifying the Forest Service promptly of any change in ownership or control after the crop analysis form is executed, and (9) otherwise facilitating the work of the Inspector in checking compliance with the terms and conditions of this program.

§ 706.705 Further conditions of payment; performance optional. Producers complying with the requirements of § 706.704 may elect to carry out during the 1946 turpentine season one or more of the following practices on any entire tract or drift of their turpentine farms and earn additional payments as set forth in § 706.706, if notice of such performance is indicated on the crop analysis form.

(a) Chemical stimulation tests. Turpentine farms located in areas where frequent observation by members of the Southern Forest Experiment Station is economical may be selected for the experimental application of chemical stimulants to a portion of the faces (not in excess of one crop) currently being worked. The experiments are to be carried out in accordance with conditions prescribed by the Forest Service, and such conditions may permit deviations from the requirements of § 706.704 (a). In such cases payment will be made on not more than one face on trees under 14 inches d. b. h. and on not more than 2 faces on trees 14 inches or more d. b. h.

(c) Restricted cupping practice. In areas containing 25 or more round turpentine trees 9 inches or more d. b. h. per acre, well distributed over the area, which are intermingled with trees having one or more worked-out faces, cupping shall be restricted to back faces on previously worked trees and pick-up faces on scarred trees. No one tract or drift will be considered as qualifying under both practices (b) and (c) of this section.

(d) Repayment for selective or restricted cupping practices. Faces installed and worked prior to this program in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b) or (c) of this section will qualify for additional payment, provided the face height at the beginning of the 1946 season is 30 inches or less. If there is a Naval Stores Conservation Program for 1947, such faces which are 30 inches or less in height at the beginning of the 1947 season may continue to earn additional payments.

(e) Conservative installation practice. Cups and tins for virgin faces shall be installed in a manner that will prevent the leakage of gum. If incisions are made they shall not penetrate into the wood more than one-half inch at the deepest point. Exposure of wood below the tins shall be limited to the seating of cups at the base of trees having burls, ridges or other deformities. If tins are fastened to the tree, cut tacks, hook nails, scaffold nails or similar easily removed devices shall be used unless all nails are 12 inches or less from the ground.

(f) Good elevating practice. Cups and tins shall be installed on the face in a manner that will prevent the leakage of gum. Incisions, if used, shall be shallow and tins shall be attached by cut tacks, hook nails, scaffold nails or similar easily removed devices. The distance from the peak of the face to the tins at the beginning of the season shall not exceed 12 inches. All nails and tins below the cup and over 12 inches from the ground shall be removed.

§ 706.706 General provisions relating to payments—(a) Rates of payment. In connection with the utilization of land devoted to growing turpentine trees used in the production of gum, payment will be made to each producer operating his turpentine farm in accordance with the following rates:

(1) 1 cent per face for each face worked in accordance with the provisions of § 706.704.

(2) 4 cents additional per face for each face in areas selected for chemical stimulation as prescribed in § 706.705 (a).

(3) 2 cents additional per face for each face installed under the selective cupping practice as prescribed in § 706.705 (b).

(4) 1 cent additional per face for each face installed under the restricted cupping practice as prescribed in § 706.705 (c).

(5) 1 cent additional per face for each face installed and worked as prescribed in § 706.705 (d).

(6) ¼ cent additional per face for each face installed under the conservative installation practice as prescribed in § 706.705 (e).

(7) ¼ cent additional per face for each face elevated under the good elevating practices as prescribed in § 706.705 (f).

(b) Increase in small payments. The total payment computed for any producer with respect to his turpentine farm shall be increased in accordance with the provisions of § 706.606 (c) of the 1945 Naval Stores Conservation Program Bulletin (10 F.R. 554).

(c) Assignments. Any producer who may be entitled to any payment in connection with this program may assign his payment, in whole or in part, as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1946. No assignment will be recognized unless it is made in writing on Form ACP–69 in accordance with the applicable instructions (ACP–70), witnessed, however, by an Inspector or the Program Supervisor of the Forest Service and filed with the Central Field Office of the Forest Service, Valdosta, Georgia.

(d) Administrative expenses. No part of the payment for any turpentine farm shall be deducted for administrative expenses.

§ 706.707 Payments limited to $10,000—(a) Individuals, partnerships, and estates. The total of all payments made in connection with the 1946 conservation programs to any individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine farms located within a single State, territory, or possession, shall not exceed the sum of $10,000.

(b) Others. The total of all payments made in connection with the 1946 conservation programs to any person other than an individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine farms in the United States (including Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico) shall not exceed the sum of $10,000.

(c) Evasion. All or any part of any payment which has been or otherwise would be made to any person under this program may be withheld or required to be refunded if he has adopted or participated in adopting any scheme or device designed to evade, or which has the effect of evading, the provisions of this section.

§ 706.708 Conservation materials and services—(a) Availability. The title to any materials furnished under this section, either directly or through purchase order, shall vest in the Forest Service until such materials are appropriately applied or used or until all charges for such materials are satisfied.

(b) Deductions for materials and services. Wherever materials or services are furnished, a deduction therefor shall be made in an amount determined by the Forest Service. If the producer misuses any such material or services, an additional deduction for the materials or services misused equal to the amount of the original deduction for the materials or services shall be made. The deduction for materials or services shall be made from any payment to the producer who obtained the materials or services, but if the amount of the materials or services exceeds the amount of payment for the producer, the amount of the difference shall be paid by the producer to the Treasurer of the United States.

§ 706.709 Appeals. Any producer may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the Regional Forester in writing to review the recommendation or determination of the Program Supervisor in any matter affecting the right to or the amount of payment with respect to the producer's turpentine farm. The Regional Forester shall notify the producer of his decision in writing within 30 days after the submission of the appeal. If the producer is dissatisfied with the decision of the Regional Forester he may, within 15 days after the decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the American Turpentine Farmers Association Cooperative in writing to appoint a committee of fellow producers to review the case. If the committee does not concur with the decision of the Regional Forester the producer may request the Chief of the Forest Service to review the case and render his decision, which shall be final.

§ 706.710 Application for payment—(a) Persons eligible to file applications. An application for payment may be made by any producer who is actively engaged in the production of gum naval stores during the 1946 turpentine season. If one producer conducts the operation of a turpentine farm during a portion of the 1946 turpentine season and another producer conducts the operation of the turpentine farm during the remainder of the season, the producer who last conducts the operation should make the application.

(b) Time and manner of filing applications and information required. Payments will be made only upon applications submitted on or before June 30, 1947, on the prescribed form (NSCP–1003), to the Central Field Office of the Forest Service, Valdosta, Georgia. Payment may be withheld from any producer who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any turpentine farm which is being operated by him.

§ 706.711 Administration. The Forest Service shall have charge of the administration of this program and is hereby authorized to make such determinations and to prepare and issue such bulletins, instructions, and forms as may be required to administer this program (subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942) pursuant to the provisions hereof, and the field work shall be administered by the Forest Service through the office of the Regional Forester, United States Forest Service, Glenn Building, Atlanta, Georgia. Information concerning this program may be secured from the Program Supervisor, Central Field Office of the Forest Service, Valdosta, Georgia, or from any local Inspector of the Forest Service.

Chapter VI—Solid Fuels Administration for War

[SFAW Reg. 27, Amdt. 7]

DISTRIBUTION OF BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCED IN U. S.

To make certain clarifications and revisions in those provisions of SFAW Regulation No. 27 added by Amendment No. 6, issued November 21, 1945 (10 F.R. 14418) the following amendment to the regulation is hereby issued:

1. Paragraph (d) of § 602.703 is amended to read as follows:

(d) (1) If you are a shipper of coal produced in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, or 6 (other than a commercial lake dock operator or a commercial tidewater dock operator), you are prohibited from shipping to any retail dealer during the period April 1, 1945 to October 1, 1945, more than 50 percent (to the nearest carload or barge lot) of the total amount which he is entitled to receive under this second preference for the entire period April 1, 1945 to March 31, 1946.

If you are a shipper of coal produced in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 9, 10, 11 or 13, you are required to ship during the period April 1, 1945 to October 1, 1945, to each retail dealer entitled to this preference not less than 30 per cent (to the nearest carload or barge lot) of the total amount of coal which you are required to ship to such dealer during the entire period April 1, 1945 to March 31, 1946. Subsequent to October 1, 1945, you are required to ship in equal monthly amounts, to the maximum extent practicable, the balance of the coal which each retail dealer is entitled to receive under this preference.

(2) If you are a shipper of coal produced in Districts 7 or 8 (other than a commercial lake dock operator or a commercial tidewater dock operator), you are prohibited from shipping to any retail dealer during the period April 1, 1945 to December 1, 1945, more than 70 per cent (to the nearest carload or barge lot) of the total amount which he is entitled to receive under this second preference for the entire period April 1, 1945 to March 31, 1946.

Further, you are required to ship (to the nearest carload or barge lot) to each retail dealer not less than the minimum percentages and not more than the maximum percentages for the periods indicated in the following table:

Time of shipments	Minimum	Maximum
	Percent	Percent
April and May	12½	20
June and July	12½	15
August and September	12½	15
October and November	12½	20

Subsequent to December 1, 1945, you are required to ship in equal monthly amounts, to the maximum extent practicable, the balance of the coal which each retail dealer is entitled to receive under this preference.

2. Paragraph (j) of § 602.703 is amended to read as follows:

(j) Additional shipments to retail dealers. (1) If you are a shipper of coal (other than a commercial lake dock operator) and you have filled or arranged to fill your monthly obligations to each retail dealer entitled to this second preference, you may distribute among retail dealers of your own selection any coal not required to meet your obligations imposed by this regulation: Provided, That if you are shipping coal produced in Districts 1–4, inclusive, 6–8, inclusive, or 13,

(i) You shall report at the beginning of each calendar month the amount of coal which it is contemplated will be available for such additional shipments to retail dealers during the month, and

(ii) You shall report at the end of each calendar month the amount of such shipments made to each retail dealer.

Such reports shall be forwarded to the appropriate Area Distribution Manager specified in paragraph (f) of this section. Unless such reports are promptly filed when required, you are prohibited from making any shipments authorized by this paragraph.

NOTE: Under paragraph (d) of this section, shippers are required to ship, subsequent to December 1, 1945, in equal monthly amounts, to the maximum extent practicable, the balance of the coal which each retail dealer is entitled to receive up to March 31, 1946 under this second preference. Thus, if a shipper contemplates that he will have available for shipment to retail dealers, during any calendar month (December 1945 or January, February and March 1946), coal in excess of 25 per cent of the unfilled balance of his preference obligations to retail dealers, this tonnage must be reported before it may be furnished to retail dealers under this paragraph.

(2) If you are a commercial lake dock operator and you have filled or arranged to fill your obligations to each retail dealer entitled to this second preference, you must obtain permission from Mr. Milton Almer, SFAW Area Distribution Manager, 125 South 5th Street, Minneapolis 2, Minnesota, before distributing among retail dealers of your own selection any coal not required to meet your obligations imposed by this regulation. Mr. Almer is authorized to grant such permission when the contemplated shipments are not inconsistent with the purposes of this regulation and the SFAW distribution program.

This amendment shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Deputy Solid Fuels Administrator for War.

MANUFACTURERS' MAXIMUM AVERAGE PRICE FOR WOOL CIVILIAN APPAREL FABRICS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Supplementary Order No. 113 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 4 (a) (1) (i) (c) the word "trade" is inserted between the words "and" and "discounts".

2. Section 6 (c) (2) is amended by adding immediately after subdivision (viii), the following new subdivision, designated subdivision (ix).

(ix) He may separate greige goods from finished fabrics.

3. Section 6 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Change of election. A manufacturer's election of the class or category basis (and of the categories he desires to use, if he elects the latter basis) shall be indicated in his "new base period report" (see paragraph (a) of Section 14). That election shall become final on December 31, 1945, unless on or before that date the manufacturer shall have filed a new election (together with an appropriately changed "new base period report" reflecting his new election) with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. A new election may become effective only at or as of the beginning of the third or fourth quarter of 1945 or the first quarter of 1946. No new election shall become effective for the third quarter unless it is filed on or before September 10, 1945.

4. Section 7 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) A manufacturer shall have as his "base year" either 1944 or the 12-month period from April, 1941 through March 1942 during which he delivered fabrics subject to this order of which at least 5 per cent of a class were delivered in each quarter of that year: Provided, That if he cannot use 1944 as his base year, he may at his option apply under section 8 instead of using as his base year the 1941-1942 period previously mentioned. A manufacturer shall himself compute his "maximum average price" (or prices) in accordance with this section by reference to his base year unless since January 1, 1944 he has acquired the business or a predominant part of the production facilities of another manufacturer. Such a manufacturer, as well as a manufacturer who does not have a base year, must apply to the Office of Price Administration for establishment of a maximum average price (or prices), as provided in section 8.

5. Section 7 (b), except for the footnote 2a, is amended to read as follows:

(b) A manufacturer who must compute his maximum average price under this section and who chooses or has 1944 as his base year shall have as his maximum average price (or prices) for the class, or for each category within it, 96 per cent of the weighted average price at which all fabrics within the class or category were delivered by him during the base period.[2a]

6. Section 7 (c), except for the footnote 2a, is amended to read as follows:

(c) If the manufacturer chooses the 12-month period April 1941 through March 1942 as his base year, his maximum average price for the class or for each category within it shall be the weighted average price at which all fabrics within the class or category were delivered by him during his base period. In the case of Class I fabrics only, the weighted average price shall be computed after substituting for each price as invoiced the maximum price now applicable.[2a]

7. Section 7 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Any manufacturer whose year-'round maximum average price for a class, or for each category within a class, as computed under other paragraphs of this section, is or would be less than $1.50 per linear yard on a 56-58 inch width basis, may use as his maximum average price (or prices) for that class, or for each category within that class, the weighted average price (or prices) at which he delivered all fabrics within the class, or each category within the class, during the year, or the corresponding half or quarter (depending on whether he is operating on the year-'round, half-yearly, or quarterly basis) of 1944, but in no event more than $1.50 if he is operating on the year-'round basis or than prices which have a simple average of $1.50 for the class, or for each category within the class, if he is operating on a half-yearly or quarterly basis.

8. Section 7 is amended by adding immediately after paragraph (h), the following new paragraph, designated paragraph (i):

9. Section 10 (c) (2) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Description of the unavailable machinery, and of the fabrics (construction details) which this machinery could make.

10. Section 10 (c) (2) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Why this machinery can make only these fabrics.

11. Section 10 (d) (3) is amended by adding immediately at the end of the subparagraph the following two sentences:

Any adjustment which becomes effective in this manner shall be disregarded in determining whether a manufacturer has earned a credit; a manufacturer will earn a credit only if his weighted average price is less than his otherwise applicable maximum average price.

12. In section 14 (a) (3) the numeral "(vi)" is inserted before the words "the kind of quarters."

13. In section 14 the first sentence of paragraph (b) is amended by substituting the word "one" for the word "two".

14. Section 17 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to any maximum average price established by or pursuant to section 8 or to any maximum average price which has been based on paragraph (g) of section 7.

This amendment shall become effective as of July 1, 1945.

AUTHORITY: § 1334.51 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328; 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

SECTION 1. Maximum prices for direct consumption sugars established with prohibition of sales in violation. On and after March 31, 1942, or the effective date thereof as to any amendment to this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) No primary distributor shall sell, offer to sell, attempt to sell, deliver, transfer or import direct-consumption sugars at prices higher than the maximum prices established in this regulation.

(b) No person shall buy, offer to buy, attempt to buy or receive from a primary distributor in the course of trade or business direct-consumption sugars at prices higher than the maximum prices established in this regulation.

(c) Maximum prices are established in this regulation on the gross basis specifying prices as to grades and points of delivery. They include all commissions and other charges for such grades at such points. When by including amounts received from or reimbursed by the Commodity Credit Corporation or the Defense Supplies Corporation a specified maximum price is exceeded, the acceptance of or payment of such amounts in excess is not a violation of this regulation. The maximum prices specified in this regulation shall be reduced by any discounts customarily allowed for cash or prompt payment by the seller on sales of such sugars.

SEC. 2. Maximum prices for direct-consumption sugars. (a) (1) The maximum basis prices for the following direct-consumption sugars per one hundred pounds, f. o. b. United States seaboard can sugar refinery nearest freightwise to the point of delivery, shall be as follows:

(i) For sales of fine granulated cane sugar refined in Continental United States, $5.50.

(ii) For sales of fine granulated beet sugar processed in Continental United States, $5.40.

(iii) For sales of fine granulated cane sugar from off-shore areas, domestic or foreign, duty paid, $5.45.

(iv) For sales of turbinado, washed-white or similar sugar from offshore areas, domestic or foreign, for direct consumption, $5.25.

(v) For sales of direct-consumption sugars other than those provided for above, in this section, processed from United States mainland sugar cane including but not limited to turbinado, plantation white and high-washed sugars, $5.40.

(2) The respective maximum basis prices established in paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall each be adjusted for grade and package differentials in accordance with the seller's differential therefor published or in effect on December 1, 1941.

(i) Maximum prices for a primary distributor of direct-consumption sugar for grades and packages not provided for in the above paragraph (a) (1) shall be as follows:

(a) Maximum prices on sales to any Procurement Agency of the United States Government where the grade sold to such procurement agency is identical with one previously produced by the selling primary distributor, but where the packaging is different, shall be determined by the provisions of Supplementary Order 106 issued by the Office of Price Administration. Where the grade is not identical with one previously produced by the selling primary distributor, the maximum price shall be determined per 100 pounds net for such new grade and package by adding to his maximum basis price per 100 pounds net, packed in basis bag, granulated sugar, the difference in direct cost between manufacturing and packaging the new item and manufacturing and packaging the 100 pounds net, packed in basis bag granulated sugar. Each maximum price determined under the foregoing provisions shall be reported, with a detailed explanation of costs, to the Sugar Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 30 days after the first delivery.

(b) Maximum prices on sales of a new grade or new package for civilian consumption, which is identical in grade, net weight and packaging material with that of any other primary distributor, shall be determined by adjusting the selling primary distributor's maximum base price by the use of the same differential properly established on that date by the primary distributor with such differential located nearest freightwise to him.

If the new grade or package to be sold for civilian consumption is not so identical with that produced by another primary distributor he shall obtain a maximum price for it by application to the Sugar Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in which he shall give full data, with a description of grade and package, detailed production and selling cost differences f. o. b. refinery between the new grade and package and the basis bag per 100 pounds at the date of application, and corresponding figures for his most nearly like grades and packages figured currently and as of December 1, 1941, together with a request for a specific differential. On the basis of this information, the Price Administrator may issue an order establishing a differential for the new grade or package proportionately in line with previously existing differentials. After filing the application and pending authorization, sales may be made (i) on open billing or (ii) on pro forma collection price based on the requested differential with an agreement for refund to the purchaser of such sum as this price may exceed the maximum price when duly established or (iii) on the basis of differential at which sales have heretofore been made prior to the effective date of that amendment.

(3) Maximum delivered prices. (i) Except as specifically provided in subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph (3), the maximum delivered price for each of the sugars for which maximum basis prices are established in paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall be determined as follows:

(a) Add to the maximum basis price specified, which is per one hundred pounds f. o. b. United States seaboard cane sugar refinery nearest freightwise to the point of delivery (as adjusted for grade and package differentials), the transportation charges for the kind of transportation actually used which would be collectible on a shipment of identical quantity from the refinery from which the lowest established transportation rate to the point of delivery applies: Provided, however, That the charges so added shall not exceed those collectible for such a shipment if made entirely by rail; and Provided, Where deliveries are ex consignment, transportation charges added shall be on the basis of all-rail rates for the identical quantity but not to exceed the rail carload rate applicable to the lowest carload minimum weight.

(b) The point of delivery is the siding or dock or buyer's receiving platform in the vicinity of the buyer's warehouse or place of business where the sugar is to be used or resold.

(c) Where the buyer actually takes delivery f. o. b. seller's refinery or at some point other than the buyer's point of delivery, the total of the price paid to the seller, plus the cost of transportation paid by the buyer shall not exceed the maximum delivered price at the buyer's point of delivery, as determined by the provisions of this subdivision.

(d) In calculations under the provisions of this subdivision, the "kind of transportation" for sugars from offshore areas shall be that kind actually used after arrival at the point of entry in continental United States.

(ii) Where the buyer's warehouse or place of business at or from which the sugar is to be used or resold is within a refinery city metropolitan area and the transportation to such place is performed by means of a motor vehicle, owned, controlled, or hired by the seller, the maximum delivered price for each of the sugars provided for in paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall be determined by adding to the applicable maximum basis price as specified in said paragraph (as adjusted for grades and packages) a delivery charge per one hundred pounds based on the cartage rates employed by the seller on December 1, 1941.

(iii) Where the transportation to the buyer's warehouse or place of business at or from which the sugar is to be used or resold is performed by means of a motor vehicle, owned, controlled or hired by the buyer, the point of delivery shall be the place at which the sugar is loaded on such vehicle. Where such point of delivery is within a refinery city metropolitan area, the maximum delivered price at such place for each of the sugars provided for in paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall be the applicable maximum basis price as specified in said subparagraph (as adjusted for grades and packages). Where such point of delivery is outside a refinery city metropolitan area, the maximum delivered price shall be calculated and determined under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (3) using, however, the point of delivery specified in this subdivision (iii). Where the transportation is to be performed by means of a motor vehicle owned, controlled or hired by the buyer, no sale of sugar shall be made unless the seller shall have offered to sell and deliver the sugar at a price not in excess of the price as calculated and determined in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (3) and the buyer shall have refused such offer. All such sales shall be invoiced, and the invoices shall state as separate items the shipping point of the sugar, the location of buyer's warehouse or place of business at or from which the sugars are to be directly used or resold, the price charged, the amount of transportation charges as calculated and determined in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (3) and the fact that the seller offered to deliver at or at less than said maximum delivered price as calculated and determined in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (3) and the buyer rejected said offer.

(b) (1) The maximum price for direct-consumption raw cane sugar of 96 degrees polarization, of domestic or foreign origin, shall be $4.60 per one hundred pounds United States mainland shipping point, including all taxes and duty.

(2) The maximum price specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section shall be adjusted by making allowances per pound for each degree of polarization above or below 96 degrees (fractions of a degree in proportion) in accordance with the method customarily used prior to the effective date of Price Schedule 60.

(c) Sales to the Commodity Credit Corporation for the account of Lend-Lease and to the United States Army or Navy procurement agencies by refineries located on the Atlantic Seaboard and in the States of Louisiana and Texas shall be exempted from the provisions of paragraph (a) (3). On such sales the maximum f. o. b. basis price at seller's refinery may be collected regardless of the amount of further transportation costs paid by the buyer or the point to which the sugar may be moved.

(d) Notification to wholesalers and retailers of authorized change in maximum price. With the first delivery of direct-consumption sugar after the effective date of any provision in this regulation establishing a new maximum price, the primary distributor shall supply each purchaser with a written statement showing that price and for each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him, the statement shall be as follows:

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our OPA ceiling price for direct-consumption sugar (describe item by variety, grade, brand, if any, container type and size) has been established by the Office of Price Administration. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier with this notification on or after (insert effective date of the applicable amendment). You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, whichever is applicable to you.

For a period of 60 days after the primary distributor has established his maximum price under this section, and with his first shipment after the 60-day period to each purchaser who has not made a purchase within that time, the seller shall include the notice set forth above in each case or carton containing the item, or securely attach it to the case or carton, or insert it on or attach it to the invoice covering the shipment.

SEC. 3. Sales at wholesale and retail. Sales at wholesale and retail which are governed by Maximum Price Regulations 421, 422 and 423, as amended, are excepted from the operation of this regulation. Maximum prices on sales at retail by primary distributors to sugar cane and sugar beet farmers shall be the same as those specified in this regulation for other sales by primary distributors less the amount of the Federal excise tax.

SEC. 4. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established in this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 5. Evasion. The price limitations established by this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of direct-consumption sugars alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by a tying-agreement, or other trade understanding, or by making the discounts given or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on December 1, 1941, for purchasers from primary distributors.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. Every seller who makes sales of direct-consumption sugars after the effective date of this regulation shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a record of all sales made showing the quantity sold, terms of sale, price and name and address of the purchaser, as well as all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for any of such items sold after the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 7. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 8. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 9. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

SEC. 10. Definitions. When used in this regulation the term:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(c) "Primary distributor" means any person who manufactures direct-consumption sugars or the agent of any such persons, or any person who delivers to the continental United States from offshore areas or any person who takes such delivery or the agent of any such person who makes or takes such delivery. The term "agent" shall be deemed to include a broker, factor, commission merchant, or a person who takes title but actually performs functions commonly performed by agents, brokers, factors, or commission merchants.

(d) "At wholesale" means a sale other than a sale by a primary distributor or a sale at retail.

(e) "Sale at retail" means a sale to the ultimate consumer; Provided, No manufacturer, processor, purchaser for resale, or commercial user shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer.

SEC. 11. Provision with respect to direct-consumption sugar to be purchased or sold by Defense Supplies Corporation, Commodity Credit Corporation or the designees of either of them. (a) The maximum prices established by Section 1 shall be applicable for purchases and sales of direct-consumption sugar by Defense Supplies Corporation, Commodity Credit Corporation, the designee or designees of either of them or other United States Governmental agency duly authorized to perform functions in connection with sugar exercised by either of them except:

(1) In cases of purchases by any of the above-specified where such maximum prices are below the sellers' cost for such sugars, application may be made and the Administrator may grant maximum prices for the sale and purchase thereof in excess of the maximum prices set out in said section.

(2) In cases where the seller was not subject to the provisions of section 1 prior to March 31, 1942, the differentials for grades and packages, and the cartage rates of his nearest freightwise primary distributor shall be used.

(3) Application may be made and approval granted by the Administrator for sales by any of the above specified parties and the purchase from any of them at maximum prices in excess of the maximum prices established by said section, and

(4) The above-specified parties may enter into valid contracts providing for payment of a price to be adjusted not to exceed the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration effective at the time of shipment.

(b) All maximum prices with conditions and rights of designation established for purchases and sales of the Defense Supplies Corporation are hereby established for the Commodity Credit Corporation and shall henceforth apply to other United States governmental agencies duly authorized to perform functions in connection with sugar exercised by either of them.

SEC. 13. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. No person may deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward after delivery in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration except upon authorization by the Office of Price Administration. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. This authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated, by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 14. Taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use of direct-consumption sugars imposed after July 10, 1943 by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any State or subdivision thereof shall be treated in determining the seller's maximum price for direct-consumption sugar and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto as follows: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase in tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately collect and state it, the seller may receive in addition to the otherwise maximum price, the amount of such tax or increase in tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of such tax on direct-consumption sugars paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

SEC. 15. Export sales. The maximum price at which a person can export direct-consumption sugars shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective December 11, 1945.

(b) The maximum price for sales by a processor of smoked boneless herring packed in any container not listed in paragraph (a) shall be a price determined by the Office of Price Administration to be in line with the price established in paragraph (a). Such determination shall be made upon written request addressed to Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and accompanied by a statement showing costs and usual differentials.

3. A new Article VIII is inserted after Article VII to read as follows:

ARTICLE VIII—COOKED SHRIMP

SEC. 8.1 Processor's maximum prices. A processor's maximum price f. o. b. plant for a sale (including a sale to a retailer) of cooked shrimp is determined as follows:

(b) If the sale is not covered by paragraph (a) his maximum price is governed by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

SEC. 8.2 Maximum prices for sales by certain distributors. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1.9 (b), this section fixes maximum prices for sales of cooked shrimp by a distributor (other than a processor) whose sales are not covered by Maximum Price Regulations No. 421, 422 or 423 and who distributes cooked shrimp from a place of business (other than a public freezer) which is not in the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana or Texas within 75 air miles from the Gulf of Mexico or the Atlantic Ocean and at which he unloads and warehouses cooked shrimp and keeps two or more fulltime employees for the purpose of handling or packing cooked shrimp exclusively for him, and from the stock of which he distributes and sells such cooked shrimp to wholesalers, retailers and purveyors of meals.

(b) The maximum price for a sale by such a distributor is the appropriate processors' price listed in section 8.8 (a), plus transportation costs from the supplier's shipping point to his distribution point, plus 5 cents per pound. In accordance with the provisions of such paragraph his "net cost" is the appropriate price listed in section 8.8 (a) for processors' sales delivered to his usual receiving point. His maximum price is determined by adding the appropriate mark-up provided by Maximum Price Regulation No. 422 or Maximum Price Regulation No. 423, whichever is applicable, to his "net cost".

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 4001.101 Purpose. The purpose of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, is to carry out the policies established in Executive Orders 9599 (August 18, 1945) and 9651 (October 30, 1945) with respect to increases in wages and salaries and their relationship to price and rent ceilings and costs to the United States. Sections 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, supersede all previous regulations, directives or rulings of the Economic Stabilization Director or the Stabilization Administrator to the extent that they are inconsistent with them.[1]

§ 4001.102 "Approved" and "unapproved" wage and salary increases. As used in §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, an "approved" wage or salary increase means an increase which has been approved both by the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency (listed in § 4001.107) and by the Stabilization Administrator or in his behalf in accordance with § 4001.302. An "unapproved" wage or salary increase means any other wage or salary increase.

§ 4001.103 What wage and salary increases are lawful. (a) Subject to the exceptions stated in the succeeding paragraphs of this section, the payment of any wage or salary increase on or after August 18, 1945, is lawful under the wage stabilization laws. The fact that such a wage or salary increase is "unapproved" does not mean that it is unlawful under those laws or that it is disapproved by the Government. The consequences of approval or lack of approval of a wage or salary increase paid on or after August 18, 1945, have to do only with the extent, if any, to which the increase may be used in determining price or rent ceilings or in increasing costs to the United States.

(b) Pending provision to the contrary by the National War Labor Board, or any successor agency, a wage or salary increase subject to § 803.41 of Title 29 (General Order 41 (relating to the building construction industry)) or § 803.42 of Title 29 (General Order 42 (relating to certain wage adjustments in the basic steel industry)) is not lawful unless, before the increase is made, it has been approved as required by the applicable order.

(c) Pending provision to the contrary by the Secretary of Agriculture, a wage or salary increase subject to the wage or salary stabilization regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture is not lawful unless, before the increase is made, it has been approved as required by those regulations or unless the increase is permissible under the terms of those regulations.

[1] As hereafter used in §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, the term "Stabilization Administrator" includes also the Economic Stabilization Director in the case of actions taken before September 20, 1945.

§ 4001.104 What wage or salary increases are or may be approved. The classes of wage or salary increases which are or may be approved are set forth in Subpart C.

§ 4001.105 Effect of "unapproved" wage and salary increases. An unapproved wage or salary increase shall not be taken into consideration in determining price or rent ceilings or in increasing costs to the United States except to the limited extent authorized in Subpart B.

§ 4001.106 Effect of "approved" wage and salary increases. An approved wage or salary increase may be taken into consideration in determining price or rent ceilings or in increasing costs to the United States in accordance with the provisions of Subpart D.

§ 4001.107 List of designated wage or salary stabilization agencies. (a) The following, for the purpose of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, are designated wage and salary stabilization agencies:

(1) The National War Labor Board, or any successor agency, with respect to wages and salaries as to which the Board exercised jurisdiction on August 17, 1945.

(2) The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with respect to salaries as to which the Commissioner exercised jurisdiction on August 17, 1945.

(3) The Stabilization Administrator, with respect to wages and salaries as to which the National War Labor Board was precluded from exercising authority by the Lea Amendment to the National War Agencies Appropriation Act of 1946. (Such cases will be transmitted to the Stabilization Administrator by the Secretary of Agriculture.)

(4) The Secretary of Agriculture, with respect to wages and salaries as to which the Secretary exercised jurisdiction on August 17, 1945.

(b) The provisions of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, are also applicable, to the extent provided by Executive Order 9299 and section 4 of the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, to wages and salaries of employees who are subject to the provisions of the Railway Labor Act.

§ 4001.108 Application to suspended price or rent ceilings. For the purposes of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, the terms "price or rent ceilings" shall include price or rent ceilings which have been suspended by the Price Administrator.

§ 4001.109 Wage increases required by certain statutes. Nothing in §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, shall be construed to apply to any wage or salary increase required by the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Walsh-Healey Act, or the Davis-Bacon Act.

SUBPART B—UNAPPROVED WAGE OR SALARY INCREASES

§ 4001.201 Right to seek approval after making increase. The making of a wage or salary increase without obtaining prior approval shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the right to apply for approval thereafter. Approval shall be given or withheld on the same basis as if the employer had applied for it before putting the wage or salary increase into effect.

§ 4001.202 Extent of waiver by institution of unapproved increase. Except as provided in §§ 4001.203 to 4001.207, inclusive, the making on or after August 18, 1945, of an unapproved wage or salary increase shall be deemed to be a waiver, unless and until the increase is approved, of:

(a) Any right which the employer might have to use such increase in whole or in part as a basis for seeking or obtaining an increase in price or rent ceilings;

(b) Any right which the employer might have to use such increase in whole or in part as a basis for resisting an otherwise justifiable reduction in price or rent ceilings which, at the time the increase was made, had been announced by the Office of Price Administration as under consideration;

(c) Any right which the employer might have, in the case of products or services being furnished under contract with a federal procurement agency, to use such increase in whole or in part as a basis for increasing costs to the United States;

(d) Any right which the employer, if a public utility or common carrier, might have to use such increase in whole or in part as a basis for seeking or obtaining an increase in rates: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall in no event be held to impair the right of any public utility or common carrier to seek an increase in rates based in whole or in part upon an unapproved wage or salary increase after the expiration of the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 4001.203 When an unapproved wage or salary increase may not be taken into consideration in determining price or rent ceilings. (a) The Price Administrator shall not take into consideration any unapproved wage or salary increase in determining price or rent ceilings except in cases in which the conditions of § 4001.205 have been satisfied. Notwithstanding this provision, however, the Price Administrator may take an unapproved wage or salary increase into consideration in determining whether a reduction in price or rent ceilings is justifiable if the reduction had not been announced as under consideration at the time when the wage or salary increase was made.

(b) No seller or landlord may take any unapproved wage or salary increase into consideration in determining his price or rent ceilings except in accordance with regulations or orders of the Price Administrator issued pursuant to § 4001.205 (a) (5).

§ 4001.204 Method of excluding unapproved increases from costs. Whenever there is presented as a basis for an increase in price or rent ceilings an operating or financial statement which reflects, in whole or in part, the results of operations during a period in which an unapproved wage or salary increase was paid but which does not satisfy the requirements of § 4001.205, the Price Administrator shall:

(a) As a general rule, deduct from the costs as shown in the statement the amount of the increase in pay roll resulting from the unapproved increase, except to the extent that the employer affirmatively shows that the increase in labor costs attributable to the unapproved increase was less than the increase in payroll; but

(b) Accept, if otherwise proper, the costs as shown in the statement without correction on account of the unapproved increase, to the extent that the increase served only to maintain average hourly earnings after discontinuance of an established overtime schedule, and, therefore, presumptively did not increase costs.

§ 4001.205 When an unapproved wage or salary increase shall be taken into consideration in determining price ceilings. (a) The Price Administrator shall take an unapproved wage or salary increase into consideration in determining whether an increase in price or rent ceilings is then required under the provisions of any applicable maximum price or rent regulation or under the applicable statutory or administrative standards governing a change in price or rent ceilings if, but only if, the employer submits an operating or financial statement satisfying the requirements of this section.

(1) Such an operating or financial statement shall be prepared in such manner and form as the Price Administrator may by regulation or order require and shall reflect the effect of the increase on costs, or show the employer's profit position, for a representative period beginning on or after the date on which the increase was made and ending not less than six months after that date. For the purposes of this section and of Executive Order 9651, a wage or salary increase will be deemed to have been made on the date when it was first reflected in current pay rolls after having been announced as effective.

(2) The Price Administrator may, before taking into consideration any unapproved wage or salary increase in determining price or rent ceilings, require preparation or submission of an operating or financial statement covering a longer period than that specified in subparagraph (1) if he finds that, because of exceptional circumstances, such a statement is necessary in order to secure an adequate basis for judging whether the increase can be absorbed.

(3) In no case may any greater weight be given an unapproved wage or salary increase in determining price or rent ceilings than is justified by an operating and financial statement submitted in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(4) In no case may the Price Administrator take into consideration in determining price or rent ceilings any retroactive part of an unapproved wage or salary increase—that is, any part of a wage or salary increase paid on account of work done prior to the date when the increase was made, as defined in subparagraph (1).

(5) The Price Administrator shall issue appropriate regulations or amendments to existing regulations or orders, consistent with the requirements of this section, applicable to cases in which sellers or landlords determine their own price or rent ceilings without application to the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Nothing in this section nor in Executive Order 9651 shall be construed to direct any increase in price or rent ceilings, or an increase in any particular amount, unless such increase is required under the provisions of an applicable maximum price or rent regulation or under the applicable statutory or administrative standards governing changes in price or rent ceilings. Thus, neither this section nor Executive Order 9651 shall be construed to require the adjustment of any employer's price or rent ceilings on an individual-seller or individual-rental unit basis unless adjustment on this basis is authorized by the provisions of an applicable regulation or order. Nor shall the results of operations as disclosed in the operating or financial statement provided for in this section be taken as determinative of the need for an increase in price or rent ceilings, or the amount of any needed increase, if other grounds exist which, under the standards generally applied in cases not involving unapproved wage or salary increases, would warrant different action.

§ 4001.206 Use of unapproved increase as basis for seeking increase in utility rates. An employer, if a public utility or common carrier, shall not use any unapproved wage or salary increase as a basis, in whole or in part, for an application for an increase in rates, except on the basis of an operating or financial statement reflecting the effect of the increase on costs, or showing the employer's profit position, for a representative period beginning on or after the date on which the increase was made and ending not less than six months after that date. The employer shall specifically indicate, in any notice to the Price Administrator of an application for a rate increase, whether the application is based in whole or in part on an unapproved wage increase. If, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, an operating statement covering a longer period is necessary, because of exceptional circumstances, in order to secure an adequate basis for judging whether the increase can be absorbed, he is authorized in behalf of the Stabilization Administrator to make appropriate representations to the rate regulatory agency.

§ 4001.207 Use of unapproved increase as basis for increasing costs to the United States. (a) No unapproved wage or salary increase shall be used as a basis for increasing costs to the United States. No federal procurement agency shall agree to terminate any contract for the purpose of negotiating a new contract which will take account of the cost of an unapproved wage or salary increase. So far as practicable, no federal procurement agency shall take any unapproved wage or salary increase into account in negotiating a fixed price contract.

(b) In determining whether an unapproved wage or salary increase would increase costs to the United States, federal procurement agencies shall be guided by the provisions of § 4001.204 governing the exclusion of costs of unapproved increases from price or rent ceilings.

(c) Nothing in this section shall require exclusion of an unapproved wage or salary increase as an item of cost in any renegotiation proceeding under the Renegotiation Act of 1943, as amended.

SUBPART C—APPROVAL OF WAGE OR SALARY INCREASES

§ 4001.301 Wage or salary increases which are approved without further application to wage or salary stabilization agencies. Any wage or salary increase (including the institution of a new wage or salary rate) of a kind described in this section shall be deemed to be approved for the purposes of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, and may be taken into consideration in determining price or rent ceilings or in increasing costs to the United States in accordance with the provisions of Subpart D.

(a) Any wage or salary increase lawfully made without specific approval or approved by the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency before August 18, 1945.

(b) Any individual or other wage or salary increase made in accordance with the terms and conditions of a wage or salary schedule or plan (including a bonus plan) which was lawfully in effect before August 18, 1945.

(c) Any wage or salary increase made in accordance with the requirements of § 803.6 or § 803.38 of Title 29 (General Orders Nos. 6 or 38 of the National War Labor Board) or §§ 1002.13 and 1002.14 of Title 29 (Treasury Decision 5295).

(d) Any wage or salary increase satisfying the requirements of § 803.30 of Title 29 (General Order No. 30 of the National War Labor Board (relating to increases up to 55 cents an hour)).

§ 4001.302 Wage or salary increases approvable only on application to wage or salary stabilization agency. (a) A wage or salary increase which does not fall into one of the classes listed in § 4001.301 may be approved only on application to, and decision by, the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency. Such an increase shall be approved only if the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency finds that it falls within one or more of the classes of cases described in §§ 4001.303 to 4001.306, inclusive, and only to the extent to which it is found approvable under the terms of those sections. Upon the determination by the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency that a wage or salary increase is approvable under the terms of the applicable section, the increase shall be deemed to be approved also by the Stabilization Administrator.

(b) The Stabilization Administrator may modify or add to the classes of cases described in this subpart. As a general rule, he will consider the need for such modification or addition only upon recommendation of one or more of the designated wage or salary stabilization agencies. The Stabilization Administrator will broaden the standards for approvable increases only if he finds that such action is consistent with the overriding policy of Executive Orders 9599 and 9651 to continue the stabilization of the economy.

§ 4001.303 Increases falling within standards in effect prior to August 18, 1945. The appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency may approve any wage or salary increase which it finds falls within one of the standards in effect on August 17, 1945, (except the standards relating to "rare and unusual" cases) under which applications for wage or salary increases were approved.

§ 4001.304 "Cost of living" increases. The appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency may approve a wage or salary increase which it finds, on the facts of the particular case, is necessary to correct a maladjustment which would interfere with the effective transition to a peacetime economy and is further necessary to make the percentage increase in average straight-time hourly earnings in the appropriate unit since January 1, 1941, equal the percentage increase in the cost of living between January 1941 and September 1945. For the purposes of this section this percentage increase in the cost of living shall be deemed to be 33 percent. The National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue will issue appropriate regulations or orders describing to the fullest practicable extent the standards to be applied in passing upon applications for approval under this section.

§ 4001.305 Increases to correct inter-plant inequities. The appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency may approve a wage or salary increase which it finds on the facts of the particular case, giving due consideration to normal competitive relationships, is necessary to correct an inequity in wage rates or salaries among plants in the same industry or locality which would interfere with the effective transition to a peacetime economy. The National War Labor Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue will issue appropriate regulations or orders describing to the fullest practicable extent the standards to be applied in passing upon applications for approval under this section.

§ 4001.306 Increases necessary to insure full production in a "bottleneck" industry. (a) The Stabilization Administrator may, by order issued under this section, authorize approval of any wage or salary increases found necessary to insure full production in an industry which is essential to reconversion and in which existing wage or salary rates are inadequate to the recruitment of needed manpower.

(b) The Stabilization Administrator will take action under this section only upon recommendation of an interested Government agency and only if he finds, on the facts of the particular case, that the action would be consistent with the purposes of the stabilization laws. In no case will he take such action unless he finds, first, that adequate production in the industry in question is of critical importance to the reconversion program and to adequate production in other essential industries; second, that present and anticipated production is seriously short of the needed amount; third, that inability to recruit manpower is a controlling factor in preventing the needed production; and, fourth, that the circumstances justify an inquiry to determine whether an increase in wage rates is necessary to make possible, and would be effective in making possible, the recruitment of needed manpower.

§ 4001.307 Special provision for cases involving costs to the United States. The appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency may refer to the Stabilization Administrator any wage or salary increase which is not approvable under the provisions of §§ 4001.301 to 4001.306, inclusive, if the increase involves only increased costs to the United States and if, in the agency's opinion, approval of the increase would be consistent with the policy of the stabilization laws and of Executive Orders 9599 and 9651.

§ 4001.308 Agreements for conditional wage or salary increases. No wage or salary stabilization agency shall consider or act upon an application for approval of any wage or salary increase which appears to be conditioned in whole or in part upon the granting of an increase in price or rent ceilings. This provision however, shall not be a bar to consideration of an increase which is conditioned upon approval by the appropriate wage or salary stabilization agency nor of an increase which is not to be put into effect until a determination has been made by the Office of Price Administration as to whether an increase in price ceilings is required.

SUBPART D—EFFECT OF APPROVED WAGE OR SALARY INCREASES

§ 4001.401 Effect of approved increases in determining price or rent ceilings. (a) In determining price or rent ceilings, the Price Administrator shall take into consideration, on the same basis as other factors affecting costs, any wage or salary increase which is approved under the provisions of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive. In so doing, however, the Price Administrator shall exclude from consideration any retroactive part of any such increase—that is, any part paid on account of work done prior to the date when the increase was made, as defined in § 4001.205 (a) (1).

(b) Nothing in §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, shall be construed as directing any increase in price or rent ceilings which is not required under the provisions of an applicable maximum price or rent regulation or under the applicable statutory or administrative standards governing changes in price or rent ceilings.

§ 4001.402 Prohibition against adjustment of price or rent ceilings before approved increase has been put into effect or agreed to. The Price Administrator shall not, in the absence of specific approval by the Stabilization Administrator, authorize any increase in price or rent ceilings or make any commitment to authorize any such increase on the basis of any increase in wages or salaries unless such wage or salary increase has been put into effect or a firm agreement exists to put it into effect.

§ 4001.403 Price increases to be limited to employers who have instituted wage or salary increases. To the fullest practicable extent the Price Administrator shall provide that no employer shall be eligible for the benefits of any increase in price or rent ceilings based upon a wage or salary increase except to the extent to which he himself has put into effect such wage or salary increase.

§ 4001.404 Use of estimates as to effect of approved wage or salary increases on price or rent ceilings. If in the judgment of the Price Administrator the effect of an approved wage or salary increase on costs cannot be estimated within a reasonable margin of error, he shall not authorize any price increase based thereon until he can obtain cost information based on experience during a representative period subsequent to the wage or salary increase. In other cases the Price Administrator may estimate the effect of an approved wage or salary increase on costs without requiring data showing the operating effect of the wage or salary increase. In such cases he may thereafter review and revise the action in the light of actual experience during a representative period subsequent to the increase.

§ 4001.405 How the Price Administrator will estimate the effect of approved wage or salary increases. In estimating the effect on costs attributable to an approved wage or salary increase, the Price Administrator shall give due consideration to: (a) Other factors resulting in reductions in labor costs; (b) seasonal, non-recurring, temporary or other non-representative factors; (c) any finding made by an appropriate Federal agency with respect to the effect of the wage or salary increase on costs; and (d) any other relevant evidence of the effect of the wage or salary increase on costs.

§ 4001.406 Effect of approved increases in determining costs to the United States. In the case of products or services being furnished under contract with a federal procurement agency, such agency may take into consideration, on the same basis as other factors affecting costs, any wage or salary increase which is approved under the provisions of §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive. Nothing in §§ 4001.101 to 4001.407, inclusive, however, shall be construed as authorizing or requiring any increase in costs to the United States which is not required by the applicable procurement contract.

§ 4001.407 Increased costs to the United States to be limited to employers who have instituted wage or salary increases. To the fullest practicable extent federal procurement agencies shall provide that no employer shall be eligible for the benefits of any increase in payments by the United States based upon an approved wage or salary increase except to the extent to which he himself has put into effect such wage or salary increase.

JOHN C. COLLET,
Stabilization Administrator.

PART 13—RULES GOVERNING COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

SUSPENSION OF REQUIREMENTS

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of November 1945;

The Commission having under consideration its rules governing amateur radio stations and operators and its rules governing commercial radio operators, with particular reference to the provisions concerning renewals; and

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

KOIN, INC.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL

The Commission hereby gives notice that on November 16, 1945, there was filed with it an application (B5–TC–470) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 U.S.C.A. 310) to the proposed transfer of control of KOIN, Inc., (licensee of standard broadcast station KOIN, Portland, Oregon) from C. W. Myers, Josephine Hunt, Gertrude E. Myers and KOIN, Inc., Trustee, to Field Enterprises, Inc., 400 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. The proposed transfer of control of the above licensee is based upon a contract entered into between the selling stockholders and the licensee acting as trustee (sellers) and Field Enterprises, Inc. (buyer), on November 6, 1945, pursuant to which it is proposed to sell to the proposed purchaser all of the 1,000 shares of Class A common stock, and all of the 1,000 shares of Class B common stock not under contract of sale to others, plus the shares of Class B stock which sellers can reacquire at the same price per share which sellers will receive for Class B shares not under contract of sale. Sellers agree to deliver not less than 950 shares of the Class B stock free and clear of liens. The total purchase price is stated to be $943,967 which is to be increased by the amount of increase in the net worth of licensee between August 31, 1945, and the accounting date (the first or last day of the month in which the transfer is approved) subject to certain adjustments detailed in the contract. The purchase price is also to be decreased to the extent of any sum credited on the purchase price of any Class B stock remaining subject to contract of sale to others. The purchase price is to be increased by the aggregate of certain expense in connection with applications being prosecuted by licensee before the Commission. Of said purchase price, $100,000 in the form of a United States Treasury note has been deposited in escrow with the LaSalle National Safe Deposit Corporation, Chicago, Illinois. The remainder of the purchase price is to be paid upon delivery of the stock on the closing date to be fixed by buyer within ten days after Commission consent to the application has been publicly announced. Further details as to the arrangements between the parties or pertaining to the application may be determined from an examination of the application and associated papers on file at the offices of the Commission.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945, granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider proposed new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and the Commission of the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter, on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave public notice (10 F.R. 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, consideration of such applications would be deferred unless applicants desires to follow the procedure proposed in the WLW decision, and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto, the Commission was advised on November 16, 1945, that notice would be inserted in a Portland, Oregon, daily newspaper of general circulation, of the proposed transfer of control of the licensee.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the WLW decision and that announced in the Commission's release, no action will be had upon the KOIN application for a period of 60 days from November 16, 1945, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

Southwestern will purchase, pursuant to the preemptive rights attaching to its holdings of the common stock of Gas Pipeline, 242,776.68 shares out of an aggregate of 1,700,000 shares of new common stock to be sold by Gas Pipeline at $10 a share;

(2) Southwestern proposes to surrender for redemption, at the principal amount plus accrued interest, $4,552,000 principal amount of Gas Pipeline's First Mortgage 6% Bonds, Series A, and $286,000 principal amount of its 6% Debentures;

THE POTOMAC EDISON CO. AND POTOMAC LIGHT AND POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDMENT AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 4th day of December, A. D. 1945.

Notice is hereby given that The Potomac Edison Company ("Potomac"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of American Water Works & Electric Company, Incorporated, also a registered holding company, and Potomac Light and Power Company ("Light"), a direct subsidiary of Potomac, have filed a joint application-declaration under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 as an amendment in the above captioned proceeding.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions proposed therein which are summarized below:

Potomac proposes to offer to the holders of its outstanding 29,182½ shares of 7% Preferred Stock and 34,602 shares of 6% Preferred Stock, par value $100 per share, the right to exchange their present holdings on a share for share basis for a new issue of Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value of $100 per share, together with a cash adjustment for dividends to the date of redemption in each case and with a further cash payment in each case representing the difference between the price to be paid to Potomac for the shares of new Cumulative Preferred Stock not issued pursuant to this exchange offer and the redemption prices of the old preferred stock exclusive of accrued dividends. The dividend rate on the new Cumulative Preferred Stock, and the price per share to Potomac, are to be determined at competitive bidding.

All of the unexchanged 7% and 6% Preferred Stocks are to be called for redemption and retirement on May 1, 1946, at their respective redemption prices. The 6% Preferred Stock is redeemable at $110 per share plus accrued dividends to the date of redemption, and the 7% Preferred Stock is redeemable at $115 per share plus accrued dividends to the date of redemption. All shares of presently outstanding preferred stock now held by Potomac or acquired pursuant to the exchange offer are to be retired.

The exchange offer, which is to be open for acceptance for a period of approximately ten days, is to provide that the outstanding fractional certificates of 7% Preferred Stock (the only stock having fractional certificates outstanding) will be accepted for exchange only in combinations equalling full shares.

Potomac proposes to invite, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, written proposals for services in obtaining exchanges of shares of old Preferred Stock and for the purchase of such of the 63,784 shares of new Cumulative Preferred Stock as are not required to effect exchanges.

At the present time, Light has outstanding 3,500 shares of 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value of $100 per share, of which 2,178 shares are held by the public and 1,322 shares are held by Potomac. Potomac also owns all of the common stock of Light (21,500 shares, par value $100 per share), $89,802.63 principal amount of open account indebtedness of Light and $613,330.94 face amount of demand notes of Light. The stock and indebtedness of Light now owned by Potomac are presently pledged under the indenture of Potomac securing its First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds.

The preferred stock of Light is redeemable on any dividend date on 60 days prior notice at its par value and accrued dividends, dividends being payable on February 1 and August 1. Light proposes to redeem on August 1, 1946, all of its outstanding 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock. In connection with this redemption Potomac proposes to transfer to Light in exchange for 10,500 shares of new common stock of Light, par value $100 per share, $700,000 principal amount of the indebtedness of Light, all of Potomac's holdings of preferred stock of Light and $217,800 in cash. It is stated that this cash will be sufficient together with available treasury funds of Light to effectuate the proposed redemption. The shares of new common stock of Light to be acquired by Potomac are to be pledged under Potomac's indenture.

The filing has designated sections 6, 7, 9, 10 and 12 (c) of the act and Rules U-42 and U-50 promulgated thereunder as being applicable to the proposed transactions.

Public hearings have heretofore been held in this proceeding in respect of prior filings by Potomac, and have been continued subject to reconvening by the call of the Trial Examiner or by further order of the Commission.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the hearing herein be reconvened with respect to said matters and that the joint application-declaration should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That the hearing herein be reconvened under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission promulgated thereunder at 10:00 a. m. e. s t., on the 19th day of December, 1945, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On that date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which the hearing is to be held. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or otherwise wishing to participate should file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before December 14, 1945, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing is hereby given to Potomac, Light, Public Service Commission of Maryland, Public Service Commission of West Virginia, and all interested persons, notice to be given to Potomac, Light, Public Service Commission of Maryland and Public Service Commission of West Virginia by registered mail and to all other persons by a general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to all persons on the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and by publication of a copy of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing. The officer so designated to preside at the hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented in this proceeding, particular attention be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the issue, exchange, and sale of the proposed new preferred stock by Potomac are solely for the purpose of financing the business of Potomac and have been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of Maryland;

(2) Whether the issue, exchange, and sale of new preferred stock by Potomac are entitled to an exemption from the provisions of section 6 (e) of the act or in the alternative whether the proposed issue, exchange, and sale satisfy the requirements of sections 7 (c) and 7 (d) of the act;

(3) Whether the provisions of the exchange offer are detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers;

(4) Whether the proposed redemption of the outstanding Preferred Stock not exchanged requires adverse findings under section 12 (c) of the act;

(5) Whether the proposed issue of new common stock by Light is solely for the purpose of financing the business of Light as a public utility company and has been expressly authorized by the State Commission of West Virginia;

(6) Whether the consideration proposed to be paid by Potomac for the shares of common stock proposed to be issued by Light is reasonable and bears a fair relation to the sums invested in and the earning power of the utility assets underlying the common stock of Light;

(7) Whether the accounting entries to be made in connection with the proposed transactions are proper;

(8) Whether the fees, commissions or other remunerations to be paid directly or indirectly in connection with the proposed transactions are reasonable;

(9) Generally, whether the proposed transactions comply with all the applicable provisions and requirements of the act and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers or to prevent the circumvention of any provisions of the act or rules, regulations or orders thereunder to impose terms and conditions in connection with any of the proposed transactions.

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[Quarantine 72]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE QUARANTINE

Introductory note. This revision of the quarantine and regulations is made primarily for the purpose of extending the regulated areas to include additional areas in which white-fringed beetle infestations have been located. New counties, parts of which are included for the first time, are: Coffee County, Alabama, and Bladen, Robeson, and Union Counties, North Carolina. Minor additions to the regulated area have been made in several other counties of Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and North Carolina. No change in the regulated area of Louisiana is made by this revision. This revision also places under regulation, straw, plant crowns or roots for propagation, and uncleaned grass, grain, and legume seed.

Notice of Determination of the Secretary of Agriculture

The Secretary of Agriculture has determined that it is necessary further to revise the white-fringed beetle quarantine and regulations supplemental thereto which were last revised effective November 25, 1944, 7 C. F. R., 1944 Supp., 301.72; B. E. P. Q.—Q. 72, in order to place under regulation additional areas found to be infested with white-fringed beetles and to make other modifications. The quarantine and regulations are therefore hereby revised to read as follows:

Sec.

(b) Regulated movement. Except as provided in administrative instructions, the interstate movement of the following articles from any regulated area is regulated throughout the year:

(1) Soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, or muck, whether moved independently or in connection with or attached to nursery stock, plants, products, articles, or things.

(2) Compost, manure, moss, and leafmold.

(3) Nursery stock.

(4) Grass sod.

(5) Plant crowns or roots for propagation.

(6) Uncleaned grass, grain, and legume seed.

(7) Potatoes (Irish), when freshly harvested.

(8) True bulbs, corms, tubers, and rhizomes of ornamental plants, when freshly harvested or uncured.

(9) Hay and straw.

(10) Peanuts in shells.

(11) Seed cotton, cottonseed, and baled cotton lint and linters.

(13) Forest products such as cordwood, stump wood, logs, lumber, timbers, posts, poles, and cross ties.

(14) Brick, tile, stone, and cinders.

(15) Concrete slabs, pipe, and building blocks.

(16) Implements, machinery, equipment, and containers.

CONDITIONS OF INTERSTATE MOVEMENT

§ 301.72–4 Conditions governing interstate movement of regulated articles—(a) Certification required. Regulated articles shall not be moved interstate from a regulated area to or through any point outside thereof unless accompanied by a valid inspection certificate issued by an inspector: Provided, That certification requirements as they relate to part or all of any regulated area or regulated products may be waived during part or all of the year, by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, on his finding and giving due notice thereof, in administrative instructions, that the State concerned has promulgated and enforced adequate sanitary measures on and about the premises on which regulated articles originate or are retained, or that adequate volunteer sanitary measures have been applied, or that other control or natural conditions exist which have eliminated the risk of contamination by the pests in any stage of development.

(b) Use of certificate on shipments. Unless exempted by administrative instructions, and except as provided in § 301.72–5 (b) for movement of uncertified shipments under limited permits to designated destinations, every container of regulated articles moved interstate from any regulated area shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a certificate issued in compliance with these regulations, except that in the case of shipments in bulk by rail a master permit attached to the waybill will be sufficient. In the case of shipments in bulk by road vehicle a master permit shall accompany the vehicle and be surrendered to the consignee on delivery.

(c) Movement within continuous areas not regulated. No certificates are required for interstate movement of regulated articles when such movement is wholly within continuous regulated areas.

(d) Articles originating outside the regulated areas. No certificates are required for the interstate movement of regulated articles originating outside of the regulated areas moving through or from a regulated area, when the point of origin is clearly indicated, when their identity has been maintained, and when the articles are protected, while in the regulated area, in a manner satisfactory to the inspector.

CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION

§ 301.72–5 Conditions governing the issuance of certificates and permits—(a) Approved methods. Certificates authorizing the interstate movement of soil, earth, sand, gravel, clay, peat, muck, or compost originating in noninfested parts of the regulated areas, and of all other regulated articles from any part of the regulated areas may be issued upon determination by the inspector that the articles are (1) apparently free from infestation; or (2) have been treated, fumigated, sterilized, or processed under approved methods; or (3) were grown, produced, manufactured, stored, or handled in such a manner that, in the judgment of the inspector, no infestation would be transmitted thereby. Certificates authorizing the interstate movement of soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, muck, or compost, originating in an infested area may be issued only when such materials have been treated or handled under methods or conditions approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Limited permits. Limited permits may be issued for the movement of noncertified regulated articles to destinations and consignees as may be authorized and designated by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine for processing or other handling. As a condition of such authorization and designation, persons or firms shipping, receiving, or transporting such articles may be required to agree in writing to maintain such sanitary safeguards against the establishment and spread of infestation and to comply with such conditions as to the maintenance of identity, handling, or subsequent movement of regulated products and cleaning of railway cars, trucks, or other vehicles used in the transportation of such articles as may be required by the inspector.

(c) Dealer-carrier permit. As a condition of issuance of certificates or permits for the interstate movement of regulated articles, persons or firms engaged in purchasing, assembling, exchanging, processing, or carrying such regulated articles originating or stored in regulated areas, may be required to execute a signed agreement stipulating that the permittee will carry out any and all conditions, treatments, precautions, and sanitary measures which may be deemed necessary.

PROCEDURE FOR APPLICANTS

§ 301.72–6 Assembly of regulated articles for inspection. Persons intending to move regulated articles, the certification of which is required, interstate from regulated areas shall make application for certification as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment. Applications must show the nature and quantity of articles to be moved, together with their exact location, and if practicable, the contemplated date of shipment. Applicants for inspection may be required to assemble or indicate the articles to be shipped so that they may be readily examined by the inspector.

The United States Department of Agriculture will not be responsible for any cost incident to inspection or treatment other than the services of the inspector.

CERTIFICATES AND PERMITS MAY BE CANCELED

§ 301.72–7 Cancellation of certificates or permits. Certificates or permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled and further certification refused whenever, in the judgment of the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, the further use of such certificates or permits might result in the dissemination of infestation.

CLEANING OF VEHICLES

§ 301.72–8 Cleaning of freight cars, trucks and other vehicles. When in the judgment of the inspector a hazard of spread of infestation is involved, thorough cleaning of freight cars, trucks, and other vehicles may be required before movement interstate to points outside the regulated areas.

SHIPMENTS FOR EXPERIMENTAL OR SCIENTIFIC PURPOSES

§ 301.72–9 Shipments for experimental or scientific purposes—(a) Articles for experimental or scientific purposes. Articles subject to regulation may be moved interstate for experimental or scientific purposes, on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of articles so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Beetles for experimental or scientific purposes. Live white-fringed beetles, in any stage of development, may be moved interstate for scientific purposes only under conditions prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of white-fringed beetles so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

This revision of the quarantine and regulations shall be effective on and after December 12, 1945, and shall supersede the quarantine and regulations issued November 23, 1944.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 725.212 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. All acreages shall be calculated to the nearest one-tenth acre. All excess acreage percentages shall be expressed in whole percents and any fractions shall be dropped.

§ 725.213 Instructions and forms. The Director, Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration shall cause to be prepared and issued such instructions and forms as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying out these regulations.

§ 725.214 Applicability of regulations. These regulations shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for tobacco in connection with farm marketing quotas for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1946, in the case of flue-cured tobacco and October 1, 1946, in the case of Burley tobacco.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 725.216 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year. If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in any marketing year as having been produced on any farm which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotment established for both such farms for 1946 shall be reduced by the amount of tobacco so marketed: Provided, That such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if the Secretary, through the county committee, determines that no person connected with such farm caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing. If proof of the disposition of any amount of tobacco produced on a farm is not furnished as required by the Secretary, the acreage allotment shall be reduced by such amount of tobacco. This section shall not apply if the allotment for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

The amount of tobacco involved will be converted to an acreage basis by dividing such amount of tobacco by the actual yield for the farm during the year in which such tobacco was produced, or if the actual yield cannot be determined, by the estimated yield for the farm for such year.

§ 725.217 Adjustments of allotments for old farms. An old farm shall be eligible for adjustment as provided hereunder if the county committee finds that the 1945 allotment for the farm is relatively smaller in relation to the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco on the farm than the average of the allotments in relation to such factors on other old farms in the county. In making the adjustment in the farm acreage allotment, the county committee shall consider the past acreage of tobacco (harvested and diverted), the land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, and crop rotation practices. Without prior approval of the State committee, the acreage allotted under this section shall not exceed one percent of the total acreage allotment on all farms in the county in 1940. The total acreage allotted hereunder to all farms in each State shall not exceed two percent of the total acreage allotted to all farms in each State in 1940.

§ 725.218 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the tobacco allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency for any purpose shall be available to the State committee for use in providing equitable allotments for farms on which tobacco was grown in one or more of the past five years, and which are owned in 1946 by persons who owned land so removed from agricultural production. Insofar as possible the allotments for farms owned by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other old farms in the same community which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco, taking into consideration the allotment for the land removed from agricultural production. The allotment so determined shall not exceed the 1946 allotment which was or would have been determined for the land removed from agricultural production, nor shall it exceed the larger of (1) 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of flue-cured tobacco and 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of Burley tobacco, or (2) three acres.

(b) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land acquired on or since January 1, 1940, by any Federal agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used in determining equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farm by a Federal agency for national defense purposes. Upon application to the county committee within five years from the date of the acquisition of the farm by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any one of the other farms owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm acquired by the Federal agency: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of flue-cured and 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in the case of Burley tobacco. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal agency; (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary; or (3) the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 725.219 Farms subdivided or combined. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1945 has been subdivided and will be operated in 1946 as two or more farms the 1946 tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland suitable for the production of tobacco on each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland suitable for the production of tobacco on the entire farm in such year unless otherwise recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee: Provided, however, That when a farm is to be subdivided in 1946 into two or more farms which were separate and distinct prior to a combination in 1941 or any subsequent year, the allotment shall be divided among such farms in the same proportion that each contributed to the farm acreage allotment, unless otherwise recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1945 have been combined and will be operated in 1946 as a single farm, the 1946 allotment shall be the sum of the 1946 allotments determined or which otherwise would have been determined for each of the farms composing the combination.

§ 725.220 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for any old farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (a) the yields obtained on the farm during the years 1940–44; (b) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm; and (c) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors. The weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in each county shall not exceed the normal yield established for the county in 1945.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 725.221 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 725.218 (b), for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration the land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed the smaller of (a) 50 percent of the allotments established pursuant to Section 725.215 for old farms which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco, or (b) 25 percent of the cropland in the farm.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience in growing the kind of tobacco for which an allotment is requested, either as a sharecropper, tenant or as a farm operator, during two of the past five years in the case of Burley tobacco and during one year in the past five years in the case of flue-cured tobacco; except, that a farm operator who has been in the armed services shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this paragraph if he has had such experience during one year within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services.

(2) The farm operator shall be largely dependent on the farm covered by the application for his livelihood;

(3) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator on which any flue-cured or Burley tobacco is produced; and

(4) No kind of tobacco other than the kind for which application for an allotment is made will be grown on such farm in 1946.

The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. The acreage available for establishing allotments for new farms shall be five percent of the national acreage allotment for 1946 in the case of flue-cured tobacco and two percent of the national acreage allotment for 1946 in the case of Burley tobacco.

§ 725.222 Time for filing application. An application for an allotment for a farm for which no allotment was established in 1945 shall be filed with the county committee prior to February 1, 1946, unless the farm operator has been in the armed services, in which case such application shall be filed prior to February 1, 1946 or not later than sixty days following the date of his discharge, whichever is later.

§ 725.223 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

§ 725.224 Determination of acreage allotments and normal yields for farms returned to agricultural production. (a) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of these regulations, the acreage allotment for any farm which was acquired by a State or Federal agency for any purpose but which is returned to agricultural production in 1946 shall be determined by one of the following methods:

(1) If the land is acquired by the original owner, any part of the acreage allotment which was or could have been established for such farm prior to its retirement from agricultural production which remains in the State pools (plus such increases as have been applicable for old farms) may be established as the 1946 allotment for such farm by transfer from the pools, and if any part of the allotment for such land was transferred by the original owner through the State pools to another farm now owned by him, such owner may elect to transfer all or any part of such allotment (as increased) to the farm which is returned to agricultural production in 1946.

(2) If the land is acquired by a person other than the original owner, or if all of the allotment was transferred through the State pools to another farm and the original owner does not now own the farm to which the allotment was transferred, the farm returned to agricultural production shall be regarded as a new farm.

(b) The normal yield for any such farm returned to agricultural production in 1946 shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

§ 725.225 Approval of the State committee. All farm acreage allotments and normal yields established pursuant to these regulations shall be subject to the approval of the State committee.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of December 1945. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

DIRECTION TO PRODUCERS OF COAL IN DISTRICTS 7 AND 8

To assure the equitable distribution of any surplus coal produced in Districts 7 and 8, it is necessary, pursuant to SFAW Regulation No. 1, as amended, to issue the following direction:

1. Every producer of coal in Districts 7 and 8, whose coal is shipped from the mine by rail or river, is prohibited, notwithstanding the provisions of SFAW Regulation No. 27, as amended, from shipping any surplus coal, except in conformity with the provisions of this direction.

2. Producers having surplus tonnage available for distribution to consumers or to retail dealers shall, before arranging for the distribution of such coal, immediately notify the appropriate SFAW representative (Mr. Joseph E. Parker, Solid Fuels Administration for War, Washington 25, D. C., in the case of District 7 and Mr. George F. Kisker, Jr., 610 Transportation Building, Cincinnati 2, Ohio, in the case of District 8), of the amount and sizes of such tonnage. If the producer does not receive, within ten days of the postmark date of his letter of notification to SFAW or the date on which telephonic or telegraphic notification was given, instructions from the appropriate SFAW representative for the distribution of such coal, he is free to ship such coal to consumers or retail dealers of his own selection. The producer shall report at the end of each calendar month the names of the persons to whom any shipments of surplus coal were made, the destination and the amount, by sizes, of each shipment.

3. This direction does not relieve producers in Districts 7 and 8 from filing any data required by Form SFA No. 79. It does relieve them from the reports required to be furnished by § 602.703 (j) of SFAW Regulation No. 27, as amended.

This direction shall become effective immediately.

Chapter IX—Civilian Production Administration

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this chapter unless otherwise noted at the end of documents affected, issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236, 56 Stat. 177, 58 Stat. 827; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155; E.O. 9638, 10 F.R. 12591; CPA Reg. 1, Nov. 5, 1945, 10 F.R. 13714.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 28, Direction 4 as Amended Dec. 5, 1945]

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR ASSIGNMENT OF CC RATINGS IN ORDER TO INCREASE PRODUCTION OF MALLEABLE IRON CASTINGS AND GREY IRON CASTINGS, INCLUDING CAST IRON SOIL PIPE AND RAILROAD CAR BRAKE SHOES

The following amended direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Reg. 28:

(a) The supply of malleable iron castings and grey iron castings, including cast iron soil pipe and railroad car brake shoes is substantially less than present and anticipated requirements; and this shortage is so serious as to threaten increased production of peacetime products. This shortage is therefore a serious threat to the economy of the country during the reconversion period. Consequently, CPA will assign CC ratings as provided in paragraph (d) (1) (iii) of Priorities Regulation 28 in accordance with the conditions of this direction where necessary to maintain or expand the production of malleable iron castings and grey iron castings, including cast iron soil pipe and railroad car brake shoes.

(b) Producers of castings—(1) Capital equipment. CC ratings may be assigned to producers of malleable iron castings and grey iron castings, including cast iron soil pipe and railroad car brake shoes for their purchase of capital equipment where the producer is unable to obtain delivery without a rating, and

(i) The equipment will result in a substantial increase in production, or

(ii) The equipment is needed to replace present operating equipment which is in danger of imminent breakdown.

(2) Construction. CC ratings may be assigned for materials which cannot be obtained without ratings, and where required for construction of new foundries or expansion or modernization of existing foundries where increased production will result. However, CC ratings will not be assigned for construction in areas where other foundries in the same area are curtailed due to lack of labor, unless the applicant can demonstrate that he will operate the new facility without increase in labor requirements. In other cases, CC ratings will be assigned for construction materials only under the conditions of Priorities Regulation 28.

(3) Production materials and MRO. CC ratings may be assigned for production materials and MRO needed by foundries where the foundry demonstrates that it is unable to obtain the item without priorities assistance and regardless of whether the item is needed to maintain minimum economic production in the foundry.

(d) Denials of CC ratings. The CC rating will be denied where it appears that the item for which a CC rating will be used is available, but under different terms of sale or from a supplier other than the applicant's customary supplier.

(e) Definition. The term "foundry" as used in this direction includes any producer of malleable iron castings or grey iron castings, including cast iron soil pipe and railroad car brake shoes.

(f) PR 28 still applies. In any case not covered by the above, CC ratings will be assigned only as provided in Priorities Regulation 28.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

APPEALS PROCEDURE

§ 944.37 Priorities Regulation 16—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation explains the procedure for appealing from orders, regulations and administrative actions of the Civilian Production Administration, except suspension orders issued on the recommendation of Compliance Commissioners. It also explains how the appeals will be handled by CPA.

(b) Definitions. For purposes of the regulation: "An appeal" means a request for individual relief on the grounds that compliance by the appellant or another would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship which is not suffered generally by others in the same industry or activity, or on the grounds of improper discrimination. It does not include an initial application or initial request for an authorization, a preference rating, an allocation or any other administrative action expressly contemplated by the orders and regulations of CPA. In the absence of exceptional and unreasonable hardship not suffered generally by others or in the absence of improper discrimination an appellant may expect his appeal to be denied. There are two kinds of appeals, and they are defined below:

(1) "Appeal from an order or regulation" means an initial appeal for individual relief from any provision of a published order or regulation (including any published direction, schedule or other supplement to an order or regulation) which applies generally to all persons or to a class of persons described in the order or regulation.

(2) "Appeal from administrative action" means an appeal for reconsideration or modification of CPA action taken with respect to a particular person. Such administrative actions include the issuance of or refusal to issue individual authorizations, directives, preference ratings or quotas. The action of the CPA in granting or denying an initial "appeal from an order or regulation", or in granting or denying an application for an authorization under an order, is an administrative action; so a request for reconsideration of such action on the grounds of hardship or improper discrimination is an "appeal from administrative action".

(c) How appeals are prepared and filed. An appeal not prepared and filed as required below may be returned to the appellant without action.

(1) Number of copies. Unless otherwise specified, all appeals must be filed in triplicate.

(2) Form of appeal. An "appeal from an order or regulation" should refer to the provision appealed from, and must be filed on Form WPB-1477 unless the order or regulation specifies filing upon some other particular form or by letter. An "appeal from administrative action" must (unless otherwise stated in specific instructions) be filed by letter referring to the action appealed from and identifying the initial request by WPB or CPA form number and case number, if any.

(3) Statement of grounds for appeal. The fact that a person is appealing must be stated, and the grounds for claiming exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination should be clearly set out.

(4) [Deleted Nov. 27, 1945.]

(5) Request for consideration by the Appeals Board. If the appellant, in the case of an "appeal from administrative action", wants consideration of his appeal by the Appeals Board, he should expressly request in writing its referral to the Appeals Board as further explained in paragraph (e) below.

(d) Where appeals are filed. (1) "Appeals from orders or regulations" must be filed where indicated in the orders or regulations, except that no appeal is to be filed with a CPA field office. If the order or regulation does not indicate a place of filing, or if it specifies filing with the field office, such appeals should be addressed to the Routing Service, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) An "appeal from administrative action" should be addressed to the Routing Service, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C. However, any request to reopen a case granted or denied on the recommendation of the Appeals Board may be filed with that Board. Appeals should never be addressed to the Recording Secretary who attests the execution of Civilian Production Administration actions.

(e) Appeals Board. (1) The Appeals Board of the Civilian Production Administration is established as an impartial body primarily to consider "appeals from administrative actions" in cases in which exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination is claimed. Any person complaining of administrative action on these grounds may have an "appeal from administrative action" submitted to the Appeals Board for final action if he expressly requests it in writing. On the other hand, the Appeals Board will not normally consider any cases which do not involve these factors or which are not "appeals from administrative actions". It is not its ordinary function to review actions involving judgment as to the proper distribution of materials, programming of military or civilian production and their relative essentiality. If the basis for the appeal is relative essentiality and not a claim of exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination no request for referral to the Appeals Board should be made. For further information concerning proceedings before the Appeals Board see Direction 1 to this regulation.

(2) Any "appeal from administrative action" in which exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination is claimed, if not granted promptly on the recommendation of the official who took the action appealed from (or an official superior to him) will be referred to the Appeals Board: Provided, That the referral has been expressly requested in writing by the appellant. However, the referral to the Appeals Board will preclude further consideration of the case by such officials on the above grounds, and the decision of the Appeals Board will be final.

(3) [Deleted Oct. 12, 1945.]

(f) Grants and denials of appeals. (1) An "appeal"from an order or regulation" will generally be granted or denied on the recommendation of the official administering the order or regulation. Any "appeal from administrative action" may be granted or denied on the recommendation of the official who took the original action unless referral to the Appeals Board has been requested in writing by the appellant. Any "appeal from administrative action" may be granted or denied on the recommendation of the Appeals Board.

(2) The grant or denial of any appeal in whole or in part will be valid only when issued in the name of the Civilian Production Administration, countersigned or attested by the Recording Secretary, or in accordance with CPA Regulation No. 1 (§ 903.0). The grant or denial of an appeal referred to the Appeals Board will be indicated by a phrase such as "on the recommendation of the Appeals Board".

(3) The denial of any appeal, in whole or in part, on the recommendation of the Appeals Board, is final unless the Appeals Board elects to reopen the matter.

(g) Public files. Whenever an order or another regulation of the Civilian Production Administration expressly so provides, public files containing records relating to the appeals from such orders or regulations or from administrative actions taken under them shall be set up and shall be available for public inspection during the business hours of the Civilian Production Administration.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 7th day of December 1945.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

RESTRICTED PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR NON-MILITARY PURPOSES

§ 944.49 Priorities Regulation 28—(a) What this regulation does. As a result of the drastic reduction in military procurement the supply of materials for non-military use is expected to increase rapidly so as to be adequate to meet all demands. There is consequently no further need for general priorities assistance for essential non-military needs, and the AA rating system and Controlled Materials Plan were terminated at the end of September. It is CPA's general policy not to grant further priorities assistance for non-military purposes. However, a CC rating, which is ordinarily non-extendible, may be assigned for limited priorities assistance where required in individual cases to assist reconversion or insure the continued fulfillment of essential civilian or export needs. This includes preference ratings for all purposes other than military procurement including production, construction, capital equipment, maintenance, repair, operating supplies, and export materials. This regulation explains the conditions under which CPA will assign the CC rating.

(b) Other procedures for assigning ratings replaced. Preference ratings for non-military purposes will be assigned from now on only in the way and under the conditions described in this regulation which supersedes previous procedures.

(c) Applications—(1) How to apply for a CC rating. Ordinarily, application for a CC rating under this regulation will be made on Form WPB-541A or CPA-541A addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: P. R. 28. In a few cases, CPA may announce that a form other than WPB-541A or CPA-541A may be provided. For instance, applications for textiles and related items for certain end uses should be made as explained in the orders in the M-317 series, and the M-328 series, and their schedules and directions.

(2) [Deleted Dec. 7, 1945.]

(d) When the CPA may assign a CC rating. It is the general policy of the CPA not to grant further priorities assistance for non-military purposes. However, the CPA may in limited cases grant CC preference ratings for specific items and quantities of materials or equipment under the following conditions:

(1) The applicant is not able, without preference rating assistance, to get the item in the minimum quantity and on the latest date practicable, and the item is required for at least one of the following reasons:

(i) In cases other than capital equipment or construction, it is a bottleneck item, a great majority of materials being obtainable without priorities assistance, and it is needed to maintain or begin operations of a plant at the minimum economic rate, or

(ii) The item is needed to prevent a delay in the completion on time of military procurement production or construction, or

(iii) The item is needed to sustain or increase production of an item or a service which CPA has determined is in such tight supply that it is a serious threat to the economy (do not apply for a CC rating on this ground unless your product has been declared critical by a direction to this regulation or other formal action of CPA), or

(iv) The item is needed to eliminate serious hazard to life, health, or safety of a large number of people, or to maintain essential public or other community services, or

(v) The item is needed to replace an item which has been destroyed by flood, fire, tornado, or other act of God, and the item is essential to the continued operation of the plant, facility, service, or the item is to be used on a farm, or

(vi) The item is needed for construction on a home to be occupied by a World War II veteran; and the application is made by the veteran. (In such cases, priorities assistance will be granted without a showing that the veteran is unable to get other suitable accommodations in accordance with the policy established by Congress in the Independent Offices Appropriation Act of 1946), or

(vii) In the case of machinery and equipment, other than as provided above, the item is essential to the continued operation of the plant, facility, or service, and is needed in an emergency to replace equipment which is actually broken down and is not repairable, or to replace equipment which has been condemned by public authority or by insurance underwriters as unsafe, which is not repairable and must be replaced under requirements of law or insurance contracts; or the item is a "bottleneck item", most of the equipment being present or obtainable without priorities assistance, and it is needed to maintain or begin operations in a plant at the minimum economic rate, or

(viii) In the case of construction, other than veterans' homes under (d) (1) (vi), the material or item is a bottleneck item, a great majority of materials being obtainable without priorities assistance, and it is needed to complete construction required for reconversion or other essential needs, or

(ix) The item is a repair part needed to prevent imminent breakdown of equipment which is essential to the continued operation of the plant, facility or service, or

(x) The item is needed to incorporate into a product to be delivered on a CC rating; and the item is not on hand or available on order, or

(xi) Where for other reasons, failure to obtain delivery of the item would result in unreasonable and exceptional hardship.

(2) Special consideration will be given to the needs of small business, and to the business needs of World War II veterans.

(3) CPA will not grant a CC rating in cases where it would preempt an undue proportion of the limited amounts available. If a material is in such short supply that it is generally hard to obtain, CPA may provide other procedures rather than a rating under this regulation.

(4) In addition to the above, CC ratings may be granted for textile and related items for certain uses as provided in orders in the M-317 series and the M-328 series, and their schedules and directions.

(e) CC ratings for export—(1) In general. In the case of materials for export (other than those textiles and related items referred to in paragraph (f) (2) below), applications from Canada should be filed with the Priorities officer of Canada, and will be handled on the same basis as United States applications. In the case of other exports, CPA will assign a CC rating to materials where it is demonstrated that a rating is necessary for procurement of materials in this country to prevent serious injury to the minimum essential civilian economies of friendly foreign nations or to obtain vitally needed supplies from foreign sources, or for other reasons of high public policy. Applications for such rating should be made to the Office of International Trade Operations of the Department of Commerce on the forms prescribed by that agency.

(2) Certain textiles and related items. For exports, including shipments to Canada, of cotton broad woven fabrics for which set-asides are provided in the distribution schedules of Order M-317A, seine twine, fish netting, and cotton yarn, CC ratings may be granted, on specific applications only, to the extent of the export programs fixed by the WPB or CPA. Applications for such rating should be made to the Office of International Trade Operations of the Department of Commerce, on the forms prescribed by that agency; except that for shipments to Canada applications should be filed with the Cotton Administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and will be acted on by the CPA.

NOTICE OF AMENDED APPLICATION

DECEMBER 4, 1945.

Notice is hereby given that El Paso Natural Gas Company ("applicant"), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at El Paso, Texas, first having obtained leave so to do,[1] filed with the Federal Power Commission as of October 29, 1945, its first amended application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize applicant to construct and operate certain facilities hereinafter described.

In its first amended application, applicant states that it files such application in lieu of its original application filed herein August 10, 1945, and requests the Commission to set a hearing on the amended application.

Applicant owns and operates a natural-gas transmission pipeline system extending from Jal, Lea County, New Mexico, in a general westerly direction across portions of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona to Phoenix and Ajo, Arizona. Among other operations, it purchases natural gas in the Lea County field in New Mexico and delivers the same to other companies for distribution in numerous communities in Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, and to industrial customers in said States.

The project or facilities, for which a certificate is sought are as follows:

(1) A 24-inch transmission line beginning at a point near Dumas in Moore County, Texas, and proceeding southwesterly a distance of 272 miles to applicant's Jal No. 1 plant which is located approximately four miles south of the Town of Jal, in Lea County, New Mexico. This 24-inch pipe line will have an initial capacity of 55,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

(2) A 26-inch transmission line beginning at applicant's Jal No. 1 plant which is located approximately four miles south of the Town of Jal, in Lea County, New Mexico, and proceeding thence in a westerly direction a distance of approximately 720 miles to the border-line between California and Arizona near Blythe, California. This 26-inch transmission line will have an initial delivery capacity of 125,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day the first year and 175,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day the second year, and ultimately a delivery capacity of 305,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

(3) 29 miles of 18-inch spiral welded pipe line for the purpose of transporting gas from the TXL-Wheeler Field in Ector and Winkler Counties, Texas, to applicant's proposed compressor station which will be constructed at applicant's Jal No. 1 plant located approximately four miles south of the Town of Jal, in Lea County, New Mexico. It is contemplated that said line will have an initial capacity of 20,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

(4) 37 miles of 30-inch spiral welded pipe line for the purpose of transporting gas from the Fullerton Field in Andrews County, Texas, to applicant's proposed compressor station which will be constructed at applicant's Jal No. 1 plant in Lea County, New Mexico. It is contemplated that said line will have an initial capacity of 27,500,000 cu. ft. per day.

(5) 4.1 miles of 12¾-inch pipe line for the purpose of transporting gas from the Keystone-Ellenberger Field in Winkler County, Texas, to join onto applicant's present 10¾-inch gathering line in Winkler County, Texas. This 12¾-inch pipe line will have an initial capacity of 25,000,000 cu. ft. per day.

(6) The following compressor stations:

(a) A compressor station with five 1,000-horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of same, which is to be located within two miles of the southeast corner of Section 198, Block 44, H. & T. C. R. R. Company Survey, in Moore County, Texas. It is contemplated that said station will have a capacity of 55,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

(b) A compressor station with five 800-horsepower units, and fourteen 1,000-horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located near applicant's Jal No. 1 plant. It is contemplated that said station will have a capacity of 176,880,000 cu. ft. of gas per day output.

(c) An addition to applicant's Eunice compressor station located in Section 5 Township 21 South of Range 36 East, N. M. P. M., in Lea County, New Mexico, of nine 1,200-horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of same. It is contemplated that said addition will add 55,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day to the present capacity of said compressor station.

(d) A compressor station with seven 1,200-horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located approximately thirteen miles southeast of the Town of Lordsburg, in Hidalgo County, New Mexico. It is contemplated that said station will have a capacity of 175,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day output.

(7) The following gas purification and dehydration plants:

(d) Construct and place in operation a dehydration plant with a capacity of 55,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day to be located on the discharge side of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (a) above.

(8) The following compressor stations:

(a) A compressor station with 1,200-horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located on the aforesaid 26-inch pipe line 115.7 miles west of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (d) above.

(b) A compressor station with eleven 1,200-horsepower units together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located on the aforesaid 26-inch pipe line 233.7 miles west of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (d) above.

(c) A compressor station with twelve 1,200 horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located on the aforesaid 26-inch pipe line 113.2 miles east of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (d) above.

(d) A compressor station with fifteen 1,000 horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located on the aforesaid 26-inch pipe line 223.9 miles east of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (d) above.

(h) A compressor station with nine 1,000 horsepower units, together with the necessary equipment for the operation of the same, which is to be located on the aforementioned 24-inch pipe line 133 miles south of the compressor station mentioned in subparagraph (6) (a) above.

(9) The following additions to the purification and dehydration plants:

(a) An increase in the capacity of the dehydration plant mentioned in subparagraph (7) (d) above from 55,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day to 193,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

The first amended application states that applicant intends to begin construction of the above-described facilities as soon as materials can be secured, and to complete the same with all reasonable dispatch for delivery of gas in California in 1947, except as to the facilities described in subparagraphs (8) and (9) above and as to such facilities it is contemplated that construction thereof will be started prior to March 1, 1950, and completed in time to make delivery of gas to Southern California Gas Company and Southern Counties Gas Company of California[2] in 1951 and 1952 in compliance with a contract between applicant and the said companies.

The first amended application asserts that it is anticipated that there will be a shortage of gas available to the gas companies in southern California in 1947 of approximately 125,000,000 cu. ft. per day and that said shortage will be approximately 175,000,000 cu. ft. per day in 1948, and that such shortage will increase over the succeeding five years to a total of approximately 305,000,000 cu. ft. per day. Applicant states that the proposed pipeline is to meet this expected shortage, and that it is designed to deliver at its western terminus on the Colorado River 175,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day with the use of the compressor stations above-described and by the addition of compressor stations along the proposed line the total delivery capacity of the line can be increased to 305,000,000 cu. ft. per day.

Applicant estimates the initial capital costs of facilities to deliver 125,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day would be $27,822,000; additional capital costs to increase deliveries to 175,000,000 cu. ft. per day would be $9,365,000; and further additional capital costs to increase delivery capacity to 305,000,000 cu. ft. per day $14,038,000.

Applicant proposes to issue and sell $22,000,0000 of 3% bonds at $102.00 plus accrued interest, which bonds will be an obligation on all of applicant's property. Applicant proposes to issue $6,000,000 of additional preferred stock (4.5%) at par.

Applicant proposes to offer 100,000 shares of common stock at $30.00 per share to its present stockholders. Applicant states that a bank (unnamed) has agreed to lend applicant any additional money required to construct the facilities herein described up to $7,500,000 at 2% interest, with principal payable at the rate of $750,000 per year for six years and the unpaid balance of said loan of $3,000,000 being payable in seven years.

The first amended application recites that the agreed rate at which gas is to

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (DEL.) ET AL.

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO RECONSIDER FINDING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1945.

In the matter of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), File Nos. 43-156 and 56-4; and Northern States Power Company (Wisconsin), File No. 32-94; and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), File No. 46-102.

On December 27, 1938, this Commission approved a series of transactions constituting a plan of recapitalization of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), a holding company registered under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and provided that the Class B common stock of said company be cancelled unless, by January 1, 1944, certain conditions relating to system income had been met (File No. 43-156, et al., 4 S.E.C. 320).

On April 26, 1945, this Commission approved a plan of liquidation of the said company, and, having found after due notice, hearing, and full consideration of the merits that the aforementioned condition had been satisfied, permitted the participation of the said stock in the liquidation (File No. 54-54, et al., — S.E.C. —; Holding Company Act Releases Nos. 5745, 6173).

Paul Christopherson, a holder of Class A stock of the said company, has filed a motion requesting that we find that the condition respecting the cancellation of the Class B common stock has not been fulfilled and that we order cancellation thereof. As grounds for said motion it is alleged that, since the finding permitting the participation of the Class B common stock was made in the proceeding respecting the liquidation and not under a caption in the prior proceeding relating to the recapitalization, the said finding was not made in the proper proceeding. It is alleged further that the said finding was not a finding as to earnings but a mere conclusion.

The Commission having considered the said motion, having had due regard for the facts that fulfillment of the condition respecting cancellation of the Class B common stock was a necessary issue in determining the fairness and equitableness of the liquidation plan, that the said issue was fully tried as an issue in said liquidation proceeding, the moving party herein having himself participated in said trial, the Commission having by order expressly amended the aforesaid condition to extend the period thereof until determination of the liquidation plan (Holding Company Act Release No. 4719), the issue of fulfillment of the condition having been the subject of specific evidence, argument and consideration in trying and determining the fairness and equitableness of the plan of liquidation, and the Commission having concluded therefore that the motion is without merit;

It is ordered: That the motion of Paul Christopherson be, and it is hereby, denied.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

The Commission having, on April 14, 1944, entered its findings and opinion and order (Holding Company Act Release No. 4985) approving such plan, as amended, subject, among other things, to the reservation of jurisdiction with respect to the new debentures of the surviving company provided for in said plan; and

Post-effective amendments to said plan having now been filed wherein it is proposed that the plan be amended so as to (a) increase the authorized principal amount of new debentures from $8,000,000 to $8,400,000, (b) increase the estimated principal amount of such new debentures to be outstanding upon consummation of the plan from $7,400,000 to $8,000,000, (c) provide a form of trust indenture under which the new debentures are to be issued, and (d) indicate the conversion rate, pursuant to the formula set forth in the plan, as amended, whereby the new debentures are to be convertible into shares of the new common stock of the surviving company on the basis of 2.95 shares of such common stock per $50 principal amount of new debentures; and

The Commission having considered such post-effective amendments to the plan and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers to approve and permit said amendments to become effective and to release the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the new debentures to be issued by the surviving company;

It is hereby ordered, That said post-effective amendments be, and hereby are, approved and permitted to become effective and that jurisdiction with respect to the new debentures of the surviving company be, and hereby is, released.

In the Matter of Bonded Products Corporation, a Corporation, and A. Edward Beldner, and Joseph Blau, Individually and as Officers of Bonded Products Corporation

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of the respondents admitting all of the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and waiving all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Bonded Products Corporation, a corporation, and its officers, and A. Edward Beldner and Joseph Blau, individually and as officers of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of respondents' coal combustion device designated "Burn-Rite", or any other device of substantially similar nature, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

1. That the use of respondents' device in coal or coke burning furnaces results in savings in fuel of up to 35%, or of one ton of fuel in every seven used, or any other substantial saving in fuel.

2. That the use of said device results in better heating, or better combustion of fuel.

3. That said device eliminates gases, saves labor in firing, lengthens the firing period, reduces clinkers or ash content, produces clean heat, reduces smoke, soot, or dirt, or lengthens the life of boilers or grates.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

§ 3.45 (c) Discriminating in price—Direct discrimination—Charges and prices: § 3.45 (d) Discriminating in price—Functional Classification. Discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of gasoline of like grade and quality as among purchasers, prohibited in connection with the sale of gasoline in commerce, (1) by selling such gasoline of like grade and quality to competing purchasers at different prices in the manner and under the circumstances found in paragraph four of the findings as to the facts and conclusions: [i. e., as there set forth, discriminating in price by selling its gasoline for resale direct to the purchasing public to four concerns, classified as jobbers, at prices which were substantially lower than the prices charged its other retailer-customers in the Detroit metropolitan area for gasoline of the same grade and quality, when said jobbers owned or operated one or more gasoline stations in said area where said gasoline was resold to consumers thereof in competition with other retailers purchasing from the respondent or from other manufacturers, including the sale to such jobbers of respondent's Red Crown gasoline at 1½ cents per gallon lower than the prices charged by it for the same gasoline to its other retail dealers in said area]; (2) by continuing or resuming the discriminations in price referred to and described in paragraph four of the Commission's findings as to the facts herein; (3) by otherwise discriminating in price between purchasers of gasoline of like grade and quality in a manner and degree substantially similar to the manner and degree of the discriminations referred to in paragraph four of the Commission's findings as to the facts herein, and in any other manner resulting in price discriminations substantially equal in amount to such discriminations; (4) by selling such gasoline to some retailers thereof at prices different from the prices charged other retailers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline; (5) by allowing to any dealer, jobber, or wholesaler on gasoline sold by such dealer, jobber, or wholesaler at retail, a lower price than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers, who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers in their retailing activity; or (6) by selling such gasoline to any dealer, jobber, or wholesaler at a price lower than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with the retailer-customers of such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers, where such dealers, jobbers or wholesalers resell such gasoline to any of its (sic. their?) said retailer-customers at less than respondent's posted tank-wagon price or who directly or indirectly grant to any such retailer-customer any discounts, rebates, allowances, services or facilities having the net effect of a reduction in price to the retailer; it being provided that for the purpose of comparison the term "price" as used in the order takes into account discounts, rebates, allowances, and other terms and conditions in sale, and it being further provided as respects prohibition (4) that the same shall not prevent price differences of less than .5 cents per gallon which do not tend to lessen, injure, or destroy competition among such retailers; and as respects prohibition (5), that the same shall not prevent price differences of less than .5 cents per gallon which do not tend to lessen, injure, or destroy competition with such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers in the sale of gasoline direct to the consuming public. (Sec. 2 (a), 49 Stat. 1526; 15 U.S.C. Sec. 13 (a)). [Cease and desist order, Standard Oil Company, Docket 4389, October 9, 1945]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of October A. D. 1945.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission as amended, answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of the allegations of said complaint as amended and in opposition thereto taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence and exceptions filed thereto, briefs in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto, and oral argument of counsel; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondent has violated the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2 of an act of Congress entitled, "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (Clayton Act), as amended by Act approved June 19, 1936 (Robinson-Patman Act);

It is ordered, That the respondent, Standard Oil Company, a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the sale of gasoline in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of such gasoline of like grade and quality as among purchasers:

1. By selling such gasoline of like grade and quality to competing purchasers at different prices in the manner and under the circumstances found in paragraph four of the aforesaid findings as to the facts and conclusion.

2. By continuing or resuming the discriminations in price referred to and described in paragraph four of the Commission's findings as to the facts herein.

3. By otherwise discriminating in price between purchasers of gasoline of like grade and quality in a manner and degree substantially similar to the manner and degree of the discrimination referred to in paragraph four of the Commission's findings as to the facts herein, and in any other manner resulting in price discriminations substantially equal in amount to such discriminations.

4. By selling such gasoline to some retailers thereof at prices different from the prices charged other retailers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline; Provided, however, That this shall not prevent price differences of less than .5 cents per gallon which do not tend to lessen, injure, or destroy competition among such retailers.

5. By allowing a lower price to any dealer, jobber, or wholesaler on gasoline sold by such dealer, jobber, or wholesaler at retail, than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers in their retailing activity; Provided, however, That this shall not prevent price differences of less than .5 cents per gallon which do not tend to lessen, injure, or destroy competition with such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers in the sale of gasoline direct to the consuming public.

6. By selling such gasoline to any dealer, jobber, or wholesaler at a price lower than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with the retailer-customers of such dealers, jobbers, or wholesalers, where such dealers, jobbers or wholesalers resell such gasoline to any of its said retailer-customers at less than respondent's posted tank-wagon price or who directly or indirectly grant to any such retailer-customer any discounts, rebates, allowances, services of facilities having the net effect of a reduction in price to the retailer.

For the purpose of comparison the term "price" as used in this order takes into account discounts, rebates, allowances, and other terms and conditions of sale.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Subchapter D—Electrical Equipment, Lamps, Methane Detectors; Tests for Permissibility; Fees

[Schedule 12D]

PART 24—SINGLE-SHOT BLASTING UNITS

Abstract of manuscript for Schedule 12D, Single-Shot Blasting Units. Schedule 12D, issued by the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, gives the requirements as construction of single-shot blasting units under which satisfactory units may be approved for use in gassy mines.

These requirements provide that the unit to be approved shall not give electric sparks that can ignite explosive mine atmospheres; shall have adequate capacity to insure firing a single shot; be designed to minimize the possibility of accidental contact to the firing circuit; have adequate strength consistent with a reasonable length of service, and shall not spill or leak electrolyte under conditions of use.

Instructions are given concerning applications for approval, the conditions under which the tests are made, and the fees charged.

25.1 Fees charged.
25.2 Application for approval.
25.3 Conditions governing investigations.
25.4 Requirements for approval.
25.5 Materials required for Bureau of Mines records.
25.6 Approval.
35.7 Approval plate.
25.8 Withdrawal of approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 25.0 to 25.9, inclusive, issued under 47 Stat. 410; 30 U. S. C. 7.

§ 24.0 Authorization and purpose. Investigations conducted under this part are authorized by the act of Congress (37 Stat. 681) approved February 25,

1913. This act, as amended June 30, 1932 (47 Stat. 410), contains the following provisions in regard to fees charged for investigations by the Bureau of Mines:

For tests or investigations authorized by the Secretary of the Interior under the provisions of this act, as amended and supplemented, except those performed for the Government of the United States or State Governments within the United States, a fee sufficient in each case to compensate the Bureau of Mines for the entire cost of the services rendered shall be charged according to a schedule prepared by the Director of the Bureau of Mines and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, who shall prescribe rules and regulations under which such tests or investigations may be made. All moneys received from such sources shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

The purpose of investigations under this part is to promote the development of safe types of single-shot blasting units that may be used in mines, especially in mines that may contain methane or inflammable dust in dangerous proportions. Lists of such units will be published from time to time so that State mine-inspection departments, compensation bureaus, mine operators, miners, and others interested in safe equipment for mines may have information regarding permissible blasting units. This part supersedes Schedule 12C issued under date of July 16, 1940 (30 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 24), and goes into effect when approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Any blasting unit that meets the requirements set forth in this part will be termed "permissible" by the Bureau of Mines.

§ 24.1 Fees charged. (a) The fee for a complete investigation under this part is $25 for a unit of the dry-cell type and $50 for units of the storage-battery and magneto types. A certified check or bank draft for the amount, payable to the Treasurer of the United States, should be submitted for deposit at the time the application is made.

(b) The fee for tests covering less than a complete investigation shall be based upon the following charges:

Test	Charge
	Dry-cell battery unit	Storage-battery unit	Magneto unit
Safety (sparking) test	$5	$5	$10
Spilling test		5
Life test	3		10
Discharge-voltage test		10
Firing-capacity test	10	20	20
Dropping test	5	5	5

Application for retests that may be equivalent to more than one-half of a complete investigation should be covered by a deposit for the full fee. Application for tests covering other changes in design that may require less than one-half of a complete investigation should be covered by a deposit for one-half of the full fee. Any surplus will be refunded at the close of the investigation.

(c) Under the present provisions of this part extensions of approvals that do not require tests will be made without charge.

(d) Tests to assist a manufacturer in the development of his unit may be made upon request to the Director of the Bureau of Mines and will be charged for in amounts proportionate to the work involved.

(e) If the blasting unit is in combination with an electric lamp not previously approved, the tests of the lamp parts shall be made under the current lamp schedules [1] and charged for accordingly.

§ 24.2 Application for approval. Before the Bureau of Mines will undertake the active investigation leading to approval of any blasting unit, the manufacturer shall make application by letter for an investigation of that unit.

A suggested form of application follows:

THE DIRECTOR OF THE BUREAU OF MINES,
Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR: We hereby make application for approval of the _____ single-shot blasting unit, under the provisions of Schedule 12D. Attached is a certified check for _____ dollars ($_____), made payable to the Treasurer of the United States, to cover the fee for the investigation of this unit.

A copy of this application, one set of drawings and one complete unit are being sent to this Central Experiment Station, 4800 Forbes St., Pittsburgh, Pa., marked for the "Attention of the Supervising Engineer, Electrical-Mechanical Section."

(Signature of Applicant)

§ 24.3 Conditions governing investigations. (a) One complete blasting unit, with drawings that show the construction of the device and the materials of which it is made, should be forwarded to the Central Experiment Station at the time the application for tests is made.

(b) When this has been inspected by the Bureau's engineers, the applicant will be notified as to the amount of material that will be required for the tests.

(c) The applicant will be notified of the date on which the tests will be started and will be given an opportunity to witness the tests.

(d) No one is to be present at the time the tests are made, except the necessary Bureau of Mines engineers, their assistants, a representative of the applicant, and such other persons as may be mutually agreed upon by the applicant and the Bureau.

(e) Permissibility tests will not be made unless the unit has been completely developed and is in a form that can be marketed.

(f) The results of the tests shall be regarded as confidential by all present at the tests and shall not be made public in any way before the shot-firing unit is formally approved by the Bureau of Mines.

(g) No verbal report of approval or disapproval will be made to the applicant. After the Bureau's engineers have considered the results of the tests, a formal report of the approval or disapproval will be made to the applicant in writing by the Director of the Bureau of Mines. The applicant shall not advertise the unit as being permissible or as having passed the tests before he receives formal notice of approval.

§ 24.4 Requirements for approval. Single-shot blasting units approved under this part shall be practical in construction and operation as well as suitable for service conditions underground. They shall offer no probable ignition hazard when used in gassy mine atmospheres. They shall meet, under laboratory test conditions, the following requirements of minimum performance:

(a) The unit shall fire consistently single electric blasting caps through a total resistance of 4½ ohms.

(b) The unit shall not produce sparks capable of igniting explosive mixtures of methane and air.[1]

(c) Units of the battery type shall be designed to prevent accidental connection to the firing circuit.

Batteries (whether of the storage type, or dry cells) having a short-circuit current greater than 10 amperes, shall be enclosed in an effectively locked or sealed housing.

(d) Storage batteries supplying current for both blasting and illumination at the same time shall have ample capacity for the combined service or shall be equipped with an automatic device that cuts off the lamp during shot firing. The lamp part of the unit shall meet the requirements of the current lamp schedules.

(e) Magneto units shall be operable only by a special key or handle.

(f) A unit that depends on some special modification, such as a shunt resistance, to prevent igniting sparks, shall have its housing sealed or locked to prevent removal or disturbance of this safety feature.

(g) Dry cell units shall be marked or stamped with a date to indicate the limit of the time when the unit shall be put in service. This marking should be on the outside wrapper of package type units and on the individual cell wrappers of refill type units.

§ 24.5 Materials required for Bureau of Mines records. In order that the Bureau may know exactly what it has tested and approved, it keeps detailed records covering each investigation. These records include drawings and actual equipment, as follows:

(a) Drawings. The original drawings submitted with the application for approval and any drawings that are needed to show changes in design. These drawings are used to identify the unit in the approval and to check the future product of the manufacturer.

(b) Actual equipment. If the Bureau so desires, parts of the units that are used in the tests will be retained as records of the equipment submitted. If the unit is approved, the Bureau will require the manufacturer to submit one of his units, with the approval plate attached, as a record of his future commercial product.

§ 24.6 Approvals. All approvals are granted by letter through the office of the Director of the Bureau of Mines at Washington, D. C. A blasting unit will be approved under this part only when the testing engineers shall have judged that it has met the requirements of the schedule and the Bureau's records are complete, including drawings from the manufacturer that show the unit as it is to be made. No verbal reports of the investigation will be given, and no informal approval will be granted. The manufacturer shall not advertise his blasting unit as permissible or approved until he has received the formal notification of approval from Washington.

§ 24.7 Approval plate—(a) Design. Manufacturers shall attach, stamp, or mold an approval plate on each permissible single-shot blasting unit. The plate shall bear the seal of the Bureau of Mines, United States Department of the Interior, and be inscribed as follows:

Permissible Single-shot Blasting Unit.
Approval No. _____ issued to the _____ Co.

When deemed necessary, an appropriate cautionary statement shall be added. A photograph of the approval plate design will be supplied to the manufacturer with the approval letter. The size and position of the approval plate adopted shall be satisfactory to the Bureau.

(b) Purpose. The approval plate is a label that identifies the device so that any one can tell at a glance whether or not it is of the permissible type. By the plate, the manufacturer can point out that his blasting unit complies with the Bureau's requirements, and that it has been approved for use in gassy mines.

(c) Significance. Permission to place the approval plate on his unit obligates the manufacturer to maintain the quality of his product and to see that each unit is constructed according to the drawings that have been accepted and placed on file by the Bureau. Blasting units exhibiting changes in design that have not been authorized by the Bureau are not permissible and must not bear the approval plate.

§ 24.8 Withdrawal of approval. The Bureau of Mines reserves the right to rescind for cause, at any time, any approval granted under this part.

§ 24.9 Future changes in design. All approvals are granted with the understanding that the manufacturer will make each blasting unit according to the drawings that were submitted to the Bureau and that have been included in the approval. Changes in the design shall not be made without first obtaining the Bureau's authorization, procedure for which is as follows:

(a) The manufacturer shall write to the Director of the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., requesting an extension of his original approval, and stating the change or changes desired. A copy of the letter, a revised drawing of the change in detail, and one of each of the parts affected shall be sent by the manufacturer to the Central Experiment Station, 4800 Forbes Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., marked "Attention of the Supervising Engineer, Electrical-Mechanical Section."

(b) The Bureau will consider the application and inspect the drawings and parts to determine whether it will be necessary to make any tests.

(c) If the Bureau finds the change to be acceptable without test, extension of approval authorizing the change will be granted through the Director's office.

(d) If tests are judged necessary, the applicant will be advised of the material that will be required and of the necessary deposit to cover the fee for the tests. When the changed design has been found to comply with the requirements of this schedule, extension of approval authorizing the changes will be granted.

R. R. SAYERS,
Director.

Secretary of the Interior.

[1] Sparking tests of battery-type units will be made with a contactor disk 8 inches in diameter equipped with brush-type contacts, each of approximately 50 No. 34 copper wires. The contactor will be surrounded by an explosive mixture of Pittsburgh natural gas and air. The test shall consist of making and breaking the discharge of each of three units at least 300 times with the contactor operating at 60 revolutions per minute. The resistance of the contacter circuit shall not be greater than 0.25 ohm. Similar tests will be made of magneto- and generator-type units but with the contactor equipped with a 1/16-inch bronze brush and brass contact and operating at speeds up to 1,200 revolutions per minute.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

PART 22—TREATMENT OF MAIL MATTER RECEIVED FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES INVOLVING THE CUSTOMS REVENUE

JOINT REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY AND POSTMASTER GENERAL

Sections 22.12, 22.14, 22.20, and 22.21 of Title 39, Code of Federal Regulations, are amended as follows:

1. In § 22.12 Treatment of shipments not exceeding $100 in value make the following changes:

Amend reference "§ 22.21 (a)-(c)" in paragraph (a) to read "§ 22.21 (a)-(e)."

Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) Immediately after customs treatment, all sealed articles (other than parcel post) except those which are opened in the presence of the addressee and delivered at the time of such opening, shall be securely repacked and resealed by a postal employee, in the presence of the customs employee who participated in the opening, so that the article will be in the same condition as when opened or in a better condition. Where practicable, each article shall be reenclosed in a special Post Office Department penalty envelope, readdressed and resealed by the postal employee. Articles too large to be enclosed in the special penalty envelope, as well as articles of nominal value, shall be resealed by the use of adhesive tape, mucilage, or wax, and the official adhesive seal of the Post Office Department. The postal employee shall sign or initial the envelope or wrapper covering each article repacked and resealed by him; and in case the article is found to be in bad order shall, after bringing the matter to the attention of the customs employee, note on the cover of the article over his signature, a report of the irregularity.

Amend paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) When a sealed article (other than parcel post) believed to contain merchandise is not indorsed (or labeled) as required by § 22.8 (a), the postmaster at the exchange office of first receipt or at the distributing office to which the shipment has been redispatched in accordance with the special distribution scheme shall request the addressee to furnish written authority for a customs officer to open the article in the presence of a representative of the postmaster. Any such sealed article which is believed to contain merchandise and is not indorsed or labeled as required shall be detained by the postmaster until opened. However, if an addressee does not furnish such written authority within 30 days after the date of notice by the postmaster or within such further time as may be allowed, as set forth in § 22.20 (a), the article should be treated as undeliverable mail matter and disposed of as such. If the article upon being opened is found to contain merchandise free of internal-revenue tax and free of duty either because unconditionally free or because the aggregate value of the shipment is not more than $1 and the expense and inconvenience of collecting the duty accruing thereon would be disproportionate to the amount of such duty, the merchandise may be delivered to the addressee without the collection of any fine on account of the article not having been indorsed (or labeled) in accordance with § 22.8 (a). Except as provided above, if the article is found to contain merchandise subject to duty (including conditionally free merchandise) or subject to internal-revenue tax, the merchandise is subject to seizure and forfeiture as having been imported contrary to law. Under the authority contained in section 618 of the Tariff Act of 1930, any forfeiture so incurred is hereby mitigated to an amount equal to 10 percent of the loss of revenue which was or might have been sustained, provided there is no evidence indicating to the collector that failure to label or indorse the article was due to willful negligence or to an intent to defraud the revenue. If there is any such evidence, or if for any other reason the collector believes that it would not be in the interest of the United States to grant this relief, the matter shall be reported to the Bureau of Customs for instructions. When the shipment does not exceed $100 in value, customs Form 3421 shall be used for the entry of the merchandise and the duty, any internal-revenue tax, and the amount of the mitigated forfeiture shall be entered as separate items thereon. If an article for which a mail fine entry has been issued in accordance with the foregoing provision is undeliverable, it shall be returned to the collector of customs at the port where the mail entry was issued, for disposition in accordance with § 22.21 (a)-(e) relating to articles subject to seizure. The addressee or the sender may file a petition with the collector of customs at the port where the mail fine entry was issued for relief from the forfeiture incurred and for the release of the seized merchandise to the addressee or the sender. (As to unindorsed sealed articles subjected to formal entry, see § 22.13 (d).)

2. In § 22.14 Forwarding after customs treatment, amend reference "§ 22.21 (a)-(c)" to read "§ 22.21 (a)-(e)."

3. In § 22.20 Failure of addressee to respond to notice, amend reference "§ 22.21 (a)-(c)" in paragraphs (a) and (b) to read "§ 22.21 (a)-(e)", and delete second sentence in paragraph (b).

4. In § 22.21 Article liable to seizure, make the following:

Amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Articles arriving at a post office where no customs officer is located, and with respect to which the postmaster may have information as to their seizable character, shall be detained by the postmaster and, except when known or supposed to contain lottery matter, or found to contain contraceptive literature, shall be forwarded to the nearest customs officer for appropriate treatment under the customs laws and regulations. However, before any such article (other than parcel post) which is sealed but not indorsed (or labeled) as required by § 22.8 (a) is forwarded to the nearest customs officer, the postmaster shall detain the article and request the addressee to furnish written authority for a customs officer to open the article in the presence of a representative of the postmaster where the article is to be sent. If the addressee does not comply with such request within a period of thirty days, the article shall then be forwarded to the nearest customs officer.
